HUD's Qualified Mortgage Rule:
Annual Threshold Adjustments to the Points and Fees Limit
AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Housing—Federal Housing Commissioner, HUD.

ACTION: Announcement of HUD's qualified mortgage rule's annual threshold adjustments.

SUMMARY: The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) issued a final rule entitled "Truth in Lending (Regulation Z) Annual Threshold Adjustments (CARD ACT, HOEPA and ATR/QM)" on August 15, 2014. The final rule re-calculated the annual dollar amounts for the points and fees limit in CFPB's "qualified mortgage" definition to reflect the annual percentage change in the Consumer Price Index in effect on June 1, 2014. HUD's "qualified mortgage" definition incorporates CFPB's qualified mortgage points and fees limit and the requirement that the points and fees limit be adjusted annually. This document clarifies that all annual adjustments to the qualified mortgage points and fees limit issued by the CFPB to reflect the Consumer Price Index apply to HUD's points and fees limit provision, including CFPB's most recent final rule.

DATES: Effective Date: February 17, 2015.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:
I. Background

On December 11, 2013, at 78 FR 75215, HUD published a final rule that established a definition of "qualified mortgage" for single family residential mortgages that HUD insures, guarantees, or administers. Under HUD's qualified mortgage rule, qualified mortgage status attaches at origination and insurance endorsement to those single family residential mortgages insured under the National Housing Act (12 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.), section 184 loans for Indian housing under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (12 U.S.C. 1715z-13a), and section 184A loans for Native Hawaiian housing under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (12 U.S.C. 1715z-13b). HUD's definition of "qualified mortgage" is codified for each program at 24 CFR 201.7, 203.19, 1005.120 and 1007.80.

HUD has defined "qualified mortgage" in a manner that aligns HUD's definition, to the extent feasible and consistent with HUD's mission, with that of the "qualified mortgage" definition promulgated by the CFPB, and which is codified at 12 CFR 1026.43. HUD undertook the alignment for the purpose of lessening future differences in standards for HUD's single family residential insured mortgages and those established by the CFPB, which apply to conventional, federally-related mortgages for which designation as a qualified mortgage is sought.

HUD's alignment to CFPB's standards at 24 CFR 203.19 includes a cross-reference to the CFPB's limit on points and fees for a qualified mortgage at 12 CFR 1026.43(e)(3). The CFPB's qualified mortgage limit on points and fees requires that to be a "qualified mortgage," the transaction's points and fees must not exceed 3 percent of the total loan amount for a loan amount greater than or equal to $100,000; $3,000 for a loan amount greater than or equal to $60,000 but less than $100,000; 5 percent of the total loan amount for loans greater than or equal to $20,000 but less than $60,000; $1,000 for a loan amount greater than or equal to $12,500 but less than $20,000; and 8 percent of the total loan amount for loans less than $12,500. The definition also provides that the dollar amounts should be adjusted annually on January 1 by the annual percentage change in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U) that was reported on the preceding June 1. Members of the public interested in more detail about HUD's qualified mortgage regulations may refer to the preamble of HUD's September 30, 2013, proposed rule and HUD's December 11, 2013, final rule, at 78 FR 59890 and 78 FR 75215, respectively.

II. HUD Notice of CFPB's Final Rule

On August 15, 2014, the CFPB issued a final rule "Truth in Lending (Regulation Z) Annual Threshold Adjustments (CARD ACT, HOEPA and ATR/QM)." (79 FR 48015) CFPB's final rule amended the points and fees limit at 12 CFR 1026.43(e)(3), as required by 12 CFR 1026.43(e)(3)(ii), to reflect the annual inflation in the (CPI-U), as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, as of June 1, 2014. The adjustment adopted reflected a 2 percent increase in the CPI-U for the required period and is rounded to whole dollars for ease of compliance. The new points and fees limit, effective January 1, 2015, requires that for a covered transaction to be a qualified mortgage the total points and fees must not exceed 3 percent of the total loan amount for a loan greater than or equal to $101,953; $3,059 for a loan amount greater than or equal to $61,172 but less than $101,953; 5 percent of the total loan amount for a loan greater than or equal to $20,391 but less than $61,172; $1,020 for a loan amount greater than or equal to $12,744 but less than $20,391; and 8 percent of the total loan amount for a loan amount less than $12,744.

HUD's reference to 12 CFR 1026.43(e)(3) in its final rule included the requirement that the points and fees limit be updated annually to reflect the CPI-U. Therefore, this document clarifies that all adjustments to the CFPB's point and fees limit consistent with 12 CFR 1026.43(e)(3)(ii) are to be incorporated into HUD's points and fees limit per the effective date of the CFPB's adjustment, including the most recent change issued on August 15, 2014.

Dated: February 9, 2015.

Federal Housing Commissioner.*

Removal of Obsolete Section 8 Rental Assistance Certificate Program Regulations
AGENCY: Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public and Indian Housing, HUD.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This final rule removes from regulations obsolete references to the Section 8 Tenant-Based Rental Assistance Certificate program (Certificate Program). In accordance with Executive Order 13563, "Improving Regulation and Regulatory Review," HUD reviewed its regulations to identify regulations that are "outmoded, ineffective, insufficient or excessively burdensome." Following its review, HUD determined that the Certificate Program regulations are obsolete and unnecessary because they govern a program that has been consolidated into another program, the Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program. This rule also makes minor editorial corrections to the regulations.

DATES: Effective date: March 19, 2015.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

On January 18, 2011, President Obama issued Executive Order 13563, “Improving Regulation and Regulatory Review.”¹ The Executive Order directs heads of Federal departments and agencies to review all existing regulations to eliminate those that are outdated and modify others to increase flexibility and reduce burden. As a part of HUD’s overall effort to reduce regulatory burden and streamline the content of title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), this rule removes obsolete references to the Certificate Program, which has long been merged with the HCV program.

In the HCV program (and also formerly in the Certificate Program), HUD pays rental subsidies so eligible families can afford decent, safe, and sanitary housing. HUD provides housing assistance funds to public housing agencies (PHAs) that administer the program. Eligible families select and rent units that meet program housing quality standards. The PHA contracts with the owner of the housing to make rent subsidy payments on behalf of the family.

The Certificate Program was first created by the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974,² which amended section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (1937 Act).³ Building on the success of the Certificate Program, Congress authorized a new rental voucher demonstration program in 1984, by adding a new section 8(o) to the 1937 Act, as part of the Supplemental Appropriations Act, 1984.⁴ The rental voucher program was similar to the Certificate Program but provided families with more options in housing selection. The rental voucher program was made permanent by the Housing and Community Development Act of 1987.⁵

HUD published a series of regulatory changes in the 1990s to align the two programs as closely as possible, given the statutory framework of each program. The Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (QHWRA)⁶ amended section 8 of the 1937 Act to fully merge the Certificate and rental voucher programs and eliminated all differences between the two. On May 14, 1999,⁷ HUD published an interim rule implementing the merger of the two programs into the new HCV program. The interim rule was followed by publication of an October 21, 1999, final rule.⁸ In accordance with the regulations implementing the merger, the Certificate Program was phased out by October 2001.

The removal of obsolete references to the Certificate Program from 24 CFR will eliminate any misunderstanding that the Certificate Program is an active program. No new assistance is being provided under this program. To the extent that any Project-Based Certificate Program contracts remain in effect, they are now governed by the regulations in 24 CFR 983.10, entitled “Project-based certificate (PBC) program”.

In addition to eliminating obsolete regulatory provisions in 24 CFR part, this rule makes certain minor editorial corrections to the regulations in 24 CFR part 982. For example, in certain places, the regulations refer to PHAs as PHAs but in other places the regulations refer to PHAs as housing authorities or HAs. HUD revised the regulations to consistently use the terms PHA or PHAs throughout. Similarly, the rule revises the part 982 regulations to refer to the tenant-based voucher program as the HCV program.

II. Justification for Final Rulemaking

In accordance with 24 CFR part 10, it is the practice of HUD to offer interested parties the opportunity to comment on proposed regulations. Part 10, consistent with 5 U.S.C. 553(b), provides for exceptions to the general rule if an agency, for good cause, finds that “notice and public procedure thereon are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest.” (See 24 CFR 10.1.)

The removal of these regulations from 24 CFR does not establish or affect substantive policy. This final rule removes obsolete and unnecessary regulatory provisions for a program that is no longer being funded and makes non-substantive editorial corrections. Therefore, HUD finds that public notice and comment are unnecessary and contrary to the public interest.

III. Findings and Certifications

Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA) (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) generally requires an agency to conduct a regulatory flexibility analysis of any rule subject to notice and comment rulemaking requirements, unless the agency certifies that the rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Because HUD has determined that good cause exists to issue this rule without prior public comment, this rule is not subject to the requirement to publish an initial or final regulatory flexibility analysis under the RFA as part of such action.

Unfunded Mandates Reform

Section 202 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA) (2 U.S.C. 1532) requires that an agency prepare a budgetary impact statement before promulgating a rule that includes a Federal mandate that may result in the expenditure by state, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more in any one year. If a budgetary impact statement is required, section 205 of UMRA (2 U.S.C. 1534) also requires an agency to identify and consider a reasonable number of regulatory alternatives before promulgating a rule. However, the UMRA applies only to rules for which an agency publishes a general notice of proposed rulemaking. As discussed above, HUD has determined, for good cause, that prior notice and public comment is not required on this rule and, therefore, the UMRA does not apply to this final rule.

Executive Order 13132, Federalism

Executive Order 13132 (entitled “Federalism”) prohibits an agency from publishing any rule that has federalism implications if the rule either imposes substantial direct compliance costs on state and local governments and is not required by statute, or the rule preempts state law, unless the agency meets the consultation and funding requirements of section 6 of the Executive Order. This final rule will not have federalism implications and would not impose substantial direct compliance costs on state and local governments or preempt state law within the meaning of the Executive order.

Environmental Review

This final rule does not direct, provide for assistance or loan and mortgage insurance for, or otherwise govern, or regulate, real property acquisition, disposition, leasing, rehabilitation, alteration, demolition, or new construction, or establish, revise, or provide for standards for construction or construction materials, manufactured housing, or occupancy. Accordingly, under 24 CFR 50.19(c)(1), this final rule is categorically excluded from environmental review under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321).

Accordingly, for the reasons stated in the preamble, and pursuant to the Secretary's authority under 42 U.S.C. 3535(d), 24 CFR part 982 is amended as follows:

PART 982—SECTION 8 TENANT-BASED ASSISTANCE: HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER PROGRAM

- 1. The authority citation for part 982 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 42 U.S.C. 1437f and 3535(d).

- 2. Revise § 982.1(a) to read as follows:

§ 982.1 Programs: purpose and structure.

(a) General description. (1) In the HUD Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) program, HUD pays rental subsidies so eligible families can afford decent, safe, and sanitary housing. The HCV program is generally administered by State or local governmental entities called public housing agencies (PHAs). HUD provides housing assistance funds to the PHA. HUD also provides funds for PHA administration of the program.

(2) Families select and rent units that meet program housing quality standards. If the PHA approves a family's unit and tenancy, the PHA contracts with the owner to make rent subsidy payments on behalf of the family. A PHA may not approve a tenancy unless the rent is reasonable.

(3) Subsidy in the HCV program is based on a local "payment standard" that reflects the cost to lease a unit in the local housing market. If the rent is less than the payment standard, the family generally pays 30 percent of adjusted monthly income for rent. If the rent is more than the payment standard, the family pays a larger share of the rent.

* * * * *

- 3. Revise § 982.2 to read as follows:

§ 982.2 Applicability.

Part 982 contains the program requirements for the tenant-based housing assistance program under Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437f). The tenant-based program is the HCV program.
