SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Introduction

The Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11)) requires the Department to publish this notice of an altered system of records in the Federal Register. The Department's regulations implementing the Privacy Act are contained in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) in 34 CFR part 5b.

The Privacy Act applies to a record about an individual that is maintained in a system of records from which information is retrieved by a unique identifier associated with each individual, such as a name or Social Security number (SSN). The information about each individual is called a "record," and the system, whether manual or computer-based, is called a "system of records."

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish a system of records notice in the Federal Register and to submit a report to the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, OMB whenever the agency publishes a new system of records or significantly alters an established system of records. Each agency is also required to send copies of the report to the Chair of the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs and the Chair of the House of Representatives Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. These reports are included to permit an evaluation of the probable effect of the proposal on the privacy rights of individuals.

The PAS system of records will:

1. Allow a user to create and manage an FSA ID that provides a secure credential for access to FSA systems and Web sites;
2. Provide tracking on changes to user account information;
3. Provide matching with the Social Security Administration for identity verification purposes;
4. Provide usage and authentication information for FSA systems and Web sites;
5. Allow a user to electronically sign various student aid applications, including the FAFSA and the Renewal FAFSA, and Direct Loan Master Promissory Notes, as well as to initiate loan deferments or forbearances; and
6. Support the administration of Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (HEA) programs.

Electronic Access to This Document: The official version of this document is the document published in the Federal Register. Free Internet access to the official edition of the Federal Register and the Code of Federal Regulations is available via the Federal Digital System at: www.gpo.gov/fdsys.
