

determinations as to whether to place offenders on GPS monitoring. If an offender is engaged in behavior that puts the offender at a high risk for reoffending or for harm to the offender or others, the offender's CSO may elect to place that offender on GPS monitoring. In all of the aforementioned instances, the decision to place an offender on GPS monitoring ultimately lies with the CSO, although it is subject to review and approval by the CSO's supervisory chain of command.

(b) Unless the releasing authority specifies a different timeframe, CSOSA will place an offender on GPS monitoring for an initial period of thirty (30) days. An offender's CSO may extend the monitoring period for up to ninety (90) days. Extensions past ninety (90) days may be done in thirty (30) day increments and must be reviewed and approved by a Supervisory CSO (SCSO).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Defense is determined to assist victims and witnesses of violent crimes committed in violation of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ).

I. Purpose of the Regulatory Action

a. This rule establishes policy, assigns responsibilities, and prescribes procedures to assist victims and witnesses of crimes committed in violation of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), and updates established policy, assigns responsibilities, and prescribes procedures for the rights of crime victims under the UCMJ and required mechanisms for enforcement. The rule also provides timely notification of information and assistance available to victims and witnesses of crime from initial contact through investigation, prosecution, confinement, and release, annual reporting requirements on assistance provided across the DoD to victims and witnesses of crime, and legal assistance for crime victims entitled to such services. The Military Services are required to provide legal counsel, known as Special Victims' Counsel/Victims' Legal Counsel (SVC/VLC), to assist victims of alleged sex-related offenses under Articles 120, 120a, 120b, 120c, and 125 of the UCMJ, who are eligible for legal assistance. The Military Services are also required to establish a special victim capability comprised of specially trained criminal investigators, judge advocates, paralegals, and victim/witness assistance personnel to support victims of covered special victim offenses. To de-conflict with "Special Victims' Counsel" programs, this distinct group of recognizable professionals will be referred to, at the DoD level, as the "Special Victim Investigation and Prosecution (SVIP)" capability.

b. Authority: 10 U.S.C. chapter 47, the UCMJ; 10 U.S.C. 113, 1034, 1044, 1044e 1058, 1059, and 1408; 18 U.S.C. 1512 through 1514; sections 1701 and 1716 of Public Law 113-66, which strengthened the rights of victims of crimes committed under the UCMJ, and designated SVC/VLC for victims of covered offenses; section 573 of Public Law 112-239, which required the Military Services to establish a special victim capability comprised of specially trained investigators, judge advocates, paralegals, and victim witness assistance personnel to support victims of covered offenses; and section 533 of the Carl Levin and Howard P. "Buck" McKeon National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015, which extended eligibility for SVC/VLC services to members of a reserve component of the armed forces.

II. Summary of the Major Provisions of the Regulatory Action in Question

This rule describes the responsibilities that the USD(P&R), Inspector General of the Department of Defense, and DoD component heads have when dealing with the procedures described in the regulatory text. The rule also discusses procedures involving local responsible officials, comprehensive information and services to be provided to victims and witnesses, special victim investigation and prosecution (SVIP) capability, legal assistance for crime victims, and special victims' counsel programs.

III. Costs and Benefits

The combined cost of annual reporting requirements to the DoD and Military Services related to DoD victim and witness assistance programs (VWAP) is approximately $12,317. DoD VWAP programs are administered directly by the DoD Components, including the Military Services, at local installations and regional commands worldwide.

(1) A complete victim and witness assistance policy, to ensure the consistent and effective management of DoD victim and witness assistance programs operated by DoD Components. The proposed rule updates and replaces DoD Directive 1030.01, "Victim and Witness Assistance" (April 13, 2004) (available at <http://www.dtic.mil/whs/directives/corres/pdf/103001p.pdf>), and DoD Instruction 1030.2 "Victim and Witness Procedures" (June 4, 2004) (available at <http://www.dtic.mil/whs/directives/corres/pdf/103002p.pdf>), to implement statutory requirements for the DoD victim assistance programs under the a single DoD instruction., which revises the rights for crime victims of offenses committed under the UCMJ, requires the Military Services to create enforcement mechanisms, provides for legal assistance for crime victims entitled to legal services, requires that Military Services to provide SVC/VLC to assist victims of covered offenses, and further implements the SVIP capability, which provides enhanced support to victims of sexual assault, serious domestic violence, and child abuse offenses. requiring each Military Service to establish a special victim capability comprised of specially trained criminal investigators, judge advocates, paralegals, and victim witness personnel to enhance support to victims of sexual assault, serious domestic violence, and child abuse offenses.

VWAP provides guidance for assisting victims and witnesses of crime from initial contact through investigation, prosecution, confinement, and release, until the victim specifies to the local responsible official that he or she no longer requires or desires services. Particular attention is paid to victims of serious and violent crime, including child abuse, domestic violence, and sexual assault.

(2) Strengthens the rights of crime victims in the military justice system and requires the establishment mechanisms for enforcement of these rights in each Military Department, in accordance with section 1701 of Public Law 113–66. These provisions ensure victims have a right to be reasonably heard at public hearings concerning the continuation of confinement before the trial of the accused, preliminary hearings under section 832 (Article 32) of the UCMJ, and court-martial proceedings relating to the Military Rules of Evidence (M.R.E.) 412, 513, and 514 of the Manual for Courts-Martial (MCM) (available at <http://www.apd.army.mil/pdf/ffiles/mcm.pdf>) and that all victims are treated with fairness and respect for their dignity and privacy.

(3) Orients victims and witnesses to the military justice system, about the military criminal justice process, on the role of the victim or witness in the process, and how the victim or witness can obtain additional information concerning the process and the case.

(4) Provides timely notification of information and assistance available to victims and witnesses of crime from initial contact through investigation, prosecution, and confinement.

(5) Enables victims to confer with the attorney for the U.S. Government in the case before preliminary and trial proceedings, and to express their views to the commander or convening authority as to disposition of the case.

(6) Assists victims with prompt return of personal property held as evidence during a military criminal investigation and court-martial.

(7) Provides eligible victims and military families with access to transitional compensation in accordance with Federal law and DoD Instruction 1342.24, “Transitional Compensation for Abused Dependents,” May 23, 1995 (available at <http://www.dtic.mil/whs/directives/corres/pdf/134224p.pdf>).

(8) Ensures victims are aware of procedures to receive restitution as provided in accordance with State, local, and federal crime victims’ funds, and the procedures for applying for such funds. Restitution may also be available from, or offered by, an accused as a condition in the terms of a pretrial agreement, during the sentencing process, as a part of post-trial mitigation under Rule of Court-Martial 1105, of the MCM. Under Article 139, UCMJ, victims may also be provided with relief if the property loss or damage resulted from wrongful taking or willful damage by a member of the Armed Forces due to riotous, violent, or disorderly conduct.

(9) Mandates compliance with DoD standards for victim assistance services in the military community established in DoD Instruction 6400.07 “Standards for Victim Assistance Services in the Military Community,” November 25, 2013 (available at <http://www.dtic.mil/whs/directives/corres/pdf/640007p.pdf>).

(10) Provides that crime victims who are entitled to military legal assistance under sections 1044 and 1044e of title 10, U.S.C., and as further prescribed by the Military Departments and National Guard Bureau policies, may consult with a military legal assistance attorney.

(11) Provides legal counsel, known as Special Victims’ Counsel or Victims’ Legal Counsel (SVC/VLC), to assist victims of alleged sex-related offenses in accordance with Articles 120, 120a, 120b, 120c, and 125 of the UCMJ, and attempts to commit any of these offenses under Article 80 of the UCMJ, regardless of whether the report of the offense is restricted or unrestricted. Individuals entitled to SVC/VLC representation include any of the following:

(a) Individuals eligible for military legal assistance under sections 1044 and 1044e of title 10, U.S.C., and as further prescribed by the Military Departments’ and National Guard Bureau policies.

(b) Members of a reserve component of the armed forces, in accordance with section 533 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2015, and as further prescribed by the Military Departments and National Guard Bureau policies.

(12) Establishes a Special Victim Investigation and Prosecution (SVIP) capability in each Military Service comprised of specially trained criminal investigators, judge advocates, paralegals, and victim and witness assistance personnel to work with specially trained military criminal investigators to support victims of adult sexual assault, domestic violence, and child abuse. To de-conflict with the names of SVC/VLC programs, this distinct group of recognizable professionals will be referred to as SVIP at the DoD level. Ensures SVIP training programs meet established DoD and Military Service standards for special prosecutors, paralegal, VWAP coordinators and providers, and legal support personnel.

(13) Establishes local Victim and Witness Assistance Councils, when practicable, at each military installation, to ensure victim and witness service providers follow an interdisciplinary approach. This will ensure effective coordination between VWAP coordinators and DoD personnel providing related services, including sexual assault prevention and response coordinators, family advocacy personnel, military treatment facility health care providers and emergency room personnel, family service center personnel, chaplains, military equal opportunity personnel, judge advocates, SVC/VLCs, unit commanding officers, corrections personnel, and other persons designated by the Secretaries of the Military Departments.

(14) Maintains annual reporting requirements on assistance provided across the DoD to victims and witnesses of crime, which will be provided to the Department of Justice Office of Victims of Crime and the Bureau of Justice Statistics.

IV. Regulatory Procedures

Executive Order 12866, “Regulatory Planning and Review” and Executive Order 13563, “Improving Regulation and Regulatory Review”

Executive Orders 13563 and 12866 direct agencies to assess all costs and benefits of available regulatory alternatives and, if regulation is necessary, to select regulatory approaches that maximize net benefits (including potential economic, environmental, public health and safety effects, distribute impacts, and equity). Executive Order 13563 emphasizes the importance of quantifying both costs and benefits, of reducing costs, of harmonizing rules, and of promoting flexibility. This rule has been designated a “significant regulatory action,” although not economically significant, under section 3(f) of Executive Order 12866. Accordingly, the rule has been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB).

Section 202, Public Law 104–4, “Unfunded Mandates Reform Act”

Section 202 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA) (Pub. L. 104–4) requires agencies assess anticipated costs and benefits before issuing any rule whose mandates require spending in any 1 year of $100 million in 1995 dollars, updated annually for inflation. In 2014, that threshold is approximately $141 million. This document will not mandate any requirements for State, local, or tribal governments, nor will it affect private sector costs.

Public Law 96–354, “Regulatory Flexibility Act” (5 U.S.C. 601)

The Department of Defense certifies that this proposed rule is not subject to the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601) because it would not, if promulgated, have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. Therefore, the Regulatory Flexibility Act, as amended, does not require DoD to prepare a regulatory flexibility analysis.

Public Law 96–511, “Paperwork Reduction Act” (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35)

This proposed rule does not impose reporting or recordkeeping requirements under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

Executive Order 13132, “Federalism”

Executive Order 13132 establishes certain requirements that an agency must meet when it promulgates a proposed rule (and subsequent final rule) that imposes substantial direct requirement costs on State and local governments, preempts State law, or otherwise has Federalism implications. This proposed rule will not have a substantial effect on State and local governments.

No limitations are hereby placed on the lawful prerogatives of the DoD or its officials.

§ 114.5 Responsibilities.

[Victim Name]

[Address]

Dear [Mr.][Mrs.][Ms.] [Victim Name]:

The United States [Military Service] believes it is important to keep victims of crimes under the Uniform Code of Military Justice informed of court proceedings. Based on your request, we are providing you with information about the military appellate process and upcoming events in your case, in accordance with Department of Defense Instruction 1030.02, “Victim Witness Assistance.”

[Name of Accused] (Appellant) filed an appeal of [his][her] criminal conviction on [Date] at the [Service] Court of Criminal Appeals. The process may take time before a decision is reached by the Court of Criminal Appeals. An appeal is a legal proceeding by which a case is brought before a higher court for review of the decision made by the lower, or trial, court. The Court of Criminal Appeals may decide this appeal solely on the basis of the brief submitted by the Appellant and the response which will be submitted by the U.S. Government, or the Court may decide to hold a public courtroom proceeding and hear the arguments made by the attorneys for both sides. If the Court does determine a courtroom proceeding is warranted, you will be notified of the date and location so that you may attend. If the Court declines to hold a courtroom proceeding and decides the issue on the basis of the Appellant's brief and the U.S. Government's response, you will be notified of the ultimate decision.

The ruling of the [Service] Court of Criminal Appeals is not necessarily the final resolution of this case. There are two courts superior to the Court of Criminal Appeals from which the Appellant could also seek review. If the Court of Criminal Appeals rules against the Appellant, [he][she] can seek review of that ruling at the Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces (C.A.A.F.). If the Appellant is denied review by the C.A.A.F. [his][her] case becomes final and you will be informed. If review is granted by the C.A.A.F., you will be informed of the review taking place, of any courtroom proceedings, and of the final ruling. If C.A.A.F. grants review of the Appellant's case and rules against [him][her], [he][she] could potentially appeal that decision to the Supreme Court of the United States. If this were to occur, you will be notified. Cases are also sometimes returned to the [Service] Court of Criminal Appeals for further proceedings. In addition, the Appellants may also petition the respective Military Department Judge Advocate General for a new trial based on newly discovered evidence or fraud upon the court. If that were to occur, you will be notified.

For now, the Appellant has sought review of [his][her] conviction at the [Service] Court of Criminal Appeals. Nothing is required of you, but should you so desire, have any questions, or require further information, please contact [DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE AND CONTACT INFORMATION].

Sincerely,

(Service designee)

Dated: May 15, 2015.

Aaron Siegel,

Alternate OSD Federal Register Liaison Officer, Department of Defense.
