NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

[NARA-2015-039]

Office of Presidential Libraries; Disposal of Presidential Records

AGENCY: National Archives and Records Administration (NARA).

ACTION: Presidential Records Act notice of proposed disposal of Reagan and George H.W. Bush administration disaster recovery backup tapes; final agency action.

SUMMARY: NARA is issuing final notice that it intends to dispose of several collections of disaster recovery backup tapes from the Ronald Reagan (Reagan) and George H.W. Bush (GHW Bush) administrations under the provisions of 44 U.S.C. 2203(g)(3). NARA published notice in the Federal Register (February 6, 2015 (80 FR 6770)), proposing to dispose of these backup tapes. That initial notice contains a detailed description of the tapes, the reasons for destruction, and a synopsis of the completed restoration projects.

NARA has determined that the backup tapes do not warrant further retention. All required backup restoration projects have taken place, NARA is preserving and permanently retaining the restored records, and we have identified no further need to preserve or maintain the backup tapes.

This notice constitutes a final agency action, as described in 44 U.S.C. 2203(g)(3), and NARA will dispose of the described backup tapes on or after the date below.

DATES: NARA will dispose of the backup tapes on or after August 24, 2015.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Director of Presidential Libraries Susan K. Donius, by mail at National Archives and Records Administration, Suite 2200; 8601 Adelphi Road; College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, by telephone at (301) 837-3250, by fax at (301) 837-3199, or by email at elizabeth.fidler@nara.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Public

comments: NARA published a “Presidential Records Act notice of proposed disposal of Reagan and George H.W. Bush administration disaster recovery backup tapes; request for public comment” on February 6, 2015, in the Federal Register (80 FR 6770) for a 45-day comment period. NARA received one written comment, in which a concerned citizen suggested that NARA should retain the “documentation” so that it can be made available to the public.

NARA has considered the comment. As described in the notice of proposed disposal, NARA is retaining the recovered records from the backup tapes. All the Presidential and Federal records that were on the tapes have been restored, and NARA is permanently retaining those restored records. This is in line with the commenter’s suggestion and goal, so NARA believes no further action is necessary in response to the comment and is proceeding with destruction of the backup tapes as outlined in the proposal notice.

NARA action

NARA will dispose of 3,071 original disaster recovery backup tapes created during the Reagan and GHW Bush administrations, and subsequent preservation copies of those media (maintained for the Professional/Office Vision software (PROFS) system, the Sperry/VAX All-in-One system, and for systems operated by the White House Situation Support Staff (WHSSS) and the White House Situation Room (WHSR)), on or after August 24, 2015, because NARA has determined that they lack sufficient administrative, historical, informational, or evidentiary value.

Dated: June 16, 2015.

David S. Ferriero,

Archivist of the United States.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Title of Collection: Survey of Science and Engineering Research Facilities.

OMB Control Number: 3145-0101.

Summary of Collection: The National Science Foundation Survey of Science and Engineering Research Facilities is a Congressionally mandated (Pub. L. 99-159; NSF Act of 1950, as amended; America COMPETES Reauthorization Act of 2010), biennial survey that has been conducted since 1986. As required by law, the survey collects data on the amount, condition, and costs of the physical facilities used to conduct science and engineering research. Congress expected this survey to provide the data necessary to describe the status and needs of science and engineering research facilities. Data on computing and networking capacity, often termed "cyberinfrastructure" were collected from 2003 to 2013. These questions are being eliminated from future questionnaires based on a review by NSF that indicated the data did not provide clear and useful metrics for measuring cyberinfrastructure.

Use of the Information: Analysis of the Facilities Survey data will provide updated information on the status of scientific and engineering research facilities and capabilities. In order to provide consistency and comparability across national academic surveys, the data collection field of "agricultural sciences and natural sciences" will be divided into two fields: (1) Agricultural sciences and (2) natural resources and conservation. "Physical sciences, group 1: Atmospheric, earth, and geological sciences; meteorology; and oceanography" will be renamed "geosciences, atmospheric, and ocean sciences," and will include appropriate subfield examples. "Physical sciences, group 2: Astronomy, astrophysics, chemistry, materials sciences, and physics" will be renamed "physical sciences," and will include appropriate subfield examples. "Health and clinical sciences" will be renamed "health sciences." Some subfield examples will be updated in the various major S&E fields. The survey information can be used by Federal policy makers, planners, and budget analysts in making policy decisions, as well as by institutional academic officials, the scientific/engineering establishment, and state agencies and legislatures that fund universities. Detailed statistical tables and a summary InfoBrief are available at <http://nsf.gov/statistics/srvyfacilities/>. Data reports can also be run from the NSF Integrated Science and Engineering Resources Data System (WebCASPAR).

Expected Respondents: The Facilities Survey is a census of institutions that performed at least $1 million in separately budgeted science and engineering research and development in the previous fiscal year.

In the most recent FY 2013 Facilities Survey, a census of 588 academic institutions was conducted. The sampling frame used for the survey was the FY 2012 Higher Education Research and Development Survey conducted by the National Center for Science and Engineering Statistics. Data are collected through a Web-based interface, although institutions have the option of printing and completing a PDF that can be sent by mail.

Estimate of Burden: The Facilities Survey will be sent to approximately 600 academic institutions for the FY 2015 and FY 2017 data collection cycles. The completion time per academic institution is expected to average 19 hours, based on completion time estimates provided by all survey participants in the FY 2013 survey. This would result in an estimated burden of 11,210 hours per cycle.

Comments: As required by 5 CFR 1320.8(d), comments on the information collection activities as part of this study were solicited through publication of a 60-Day Notice in the Federal Register on March 23, 2015, at 80 FR 16030. We received no comments.

Dated: June 17, 2015.

Suzanne H. Plimpton,

Reports Clearance Officer, National Science Foundation.
