

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURYInternal Revenue Service*Privacy Act of 1974, as Amended; System of Records Notice

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service, Treasury

ACTION: Notice of systems of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the requirements of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the Internal Revenue Service, Treasury, is publishing its inventory of Privacy Act systems of records.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a) and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular No. A-130, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has completed a review of its Privacy Act systems of records notices to identify minor changes that will more accurately describe these records.

The changes throughout the document are editorial in nature and consist principally of changes to system manager titles, clarifications to the individuals or records covered, and updates to addresses.

Eleven systems of records have been amended and published to the IRS' inventory of Privacy Act notices since August 10, 2012.

The following three systems of records maintained by the IRS Division Commissioner, Wage and Investment (W&I) were amended on December 11, 2014, beginning at 79 FR 73702:

IRS 22.062—Electronic Filing Records; IRS 24.030—Customer Account Data Engine Individual Master File; and IRS 24.046—Customer Account Data Engine Business Master File.

The following two systems of records maintained by the IRS Director, Facilities Management and Security Services, were amended on February 11, 2015, beginning at 80 FR 7685, and March 11, 2013, beginning at 78 FR 15407, respectively:

IRS 34.013—Identification Media Files System for Employees and Others Issued IRS Identification; and IRS 34.037—Audit Trail and Security Records.

The following system of records maintained by the IRS Director, Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR) was amended on September 14, 2012, beginning at 77 FR 56913:

IRS 37.007—Practitioner Disciplinary Records.

This publication also incorporates the changes to systems of records maintained by the IRS Chief, Criminal

Investigation, as published on March 7, 2014, beginning at 79 FR 13089:

IRS 46.002—Criminal Investigation Management Information System (CIMIS) and Case Files;

IRS 46.003—Confidential Informants;

IRS 46.005—Electronic Surveillance Files;

IRS 46.015—Relocated Witnesses; and

IRS 46.050—Automated Information Analysis System.

Several existing systems of records notices included only one of a matched pair of routine uses which are standard for the IRS. The matched pair of routine uses provides for disclosure, (1) by IRS to the Department of Justice (DOJ) when IRS determines the records are relevant to DOJ's ability to provide legal assistance to the IRS, or are relevant to litigation which DOJ is handling; and (2) by IRS or DOJ before a court, tribunal, or other adjudicative body when IRS or DOJ determines the information is relevant or necessary for purposes of the proceeding. Both routine uses are included in many notices and adding the missing routine use of the pair merely clarifies that records in these systems of records may be disclosed in the same manner as similar records in other notices. Adding the first routine use clarifies that IRS can disclose records to DOJ when IRS determines the records are relevant and useful to DOJ's ability to properly perform duties on behalf of the IRS. Adding the second routine use clarifies that either the IRS or DOJ may disclose records in a proceeding before a court, tribunal, or other adjudicative body when those records are relevant and necessary to the proceeding. The following systems of records have been updated to reflect a matched pair of routine uses:

IRS 00.008—Recorded Quality Review Records;

IRS 21.001—Tax Administration

Advisory Services Resources Records;

IRS 22.062—Electronic Filing Records;

IRS 34.009—Safety Program Files;

IRS 34.012—Emergency Preparedness Cadre Assignments and Alerting Roster Files;

IRS 34.013—Identification Media Files System for Employees and Others Issued IRS Identification;

IRS 34.014—Motor Vehicle Registration and Entry Pass Files;

IRS 34.016—Security Clearance Files;

IRS 34.021—Personnel Security Investigations;

IRS 48.001—Disclosure Records;

IRS 48.008—Defunct Special Service Staff Files Being Retained Because of Congressional Directive; and IRS 60.000—Employee Protection System Records.

Additionally, IRS 36.003, General Personnel and Payroll, was updated to provide a non-exclusive list of the categories of records included under the broad category of general personnel and payroll records. The categories of records were updated to better define personnel and payroll records (e.g., office/building security records, disciplinary action records, travel/moving expense records, insurance/beneficiary records, personal addresses, personal telephone numbers, personal email addresses, emergency contact information, and payroll deduction records). Providing a listing of some of these records helps define the broad reach of this system of records, while still demonstrating that all records are generally within the category of personnel materials.

Routine uses for two systems of records were updated to reflect that returns and return information may be disclosed only as authorized in Internal Revenue Code (IRC) 6103. Updates were made to:

IRS 36.003—General Personnel and Payroll; and

IRS 35.001—Reasonable Accommodation Requests.

Records retention information has been updated to reflect that Records Control Schedules 8 through 37 are now found in Document 12990, and Schedules 38 through 64 are now found in Document 12829.

Finally, system of records 22.012 will be withdrawn as of January 1, 2017, unless the IRS receives information supporting continuing maintenance of these records; the tax credit expired as of January 1, 2014, and the records are scheduled for destruction three years after the end of their usage.

The following systems are withdrawn:

Treasury/IRS

26.055, Private Collection Agency (PCA) Quality Review Records

This system is withdrawn because the use of private collection agencies was discontinued in 2009, and these records are no longer maintained.

46.009, Centralized Evaluation and Processing of Information Items (CEPIIs), Evaluation and Processing of Information (EOI)

The system is withdrawn because it duplicated records described by other systems included in the amended revisions of IRS Criminal Investigation systems.
