Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

On September 1, 2015, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed consent decree with the United States District Court for the District of Maine in the lawsuit entitled United States and State of Maine v. Maine Mack, Inc., et al., Civil No.: 1:15-00358-NT.

In this action the United States sought recovery, pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (“CERCLA”), 42 U.S.C. 9601 et seq., of response costs regarding the Hows

Corner Superfund Site in Plymouth, Maine (“Site”). The settlement requires two parties to pay $98,409 into a trust account that was established to help fund the cleanup at the Site. The settlement resolves the United States’ and the State’s claims against these defendants regarding the Site.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the proposed consent decree. Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Clean Air Act, Clean Water Act, Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, Toxic Substances Control Act, and Emergency Planning and Community Right-To-Know Act

On September 1, 2015, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed Consent Decree with the United States

District Court for the Northern District of Alabama in the lawsuit entitled United States and the Alabama Department of Environmental Management v. McWane, Inc., Civil Action No. cv-15-JHE-1504-S.

In this action, the United States seeks civil penalties for violations of the Clean Air Act, Clean Water Act, Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, Toxic Substances Control Act, and the reporting requirements of the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act, together with their implementing regulations and permits, at two of McWane’s facilities, one in Birmingham, Alabama and one in Phillipsburg, New Jersey. McWane is a national company that operates iron foundries, brass foundries, and various valve and tank manufacturing facilities. The Alabama Department of Environmental Management is a co-plaintiff in this action.

Under the proposed Consent Decree, McWane will pay a total civil penalty of $471,031, of which $341,383 will go to the United States Treasury, $2,782 to the Oil Spill Liability Trust Fund to resolve alleged violations relating to its spill prevention program, and $126,866 to the State of Alabama. McWane will also implement a Supplemental Environmental Project, at an estimated cost of $2,500,000. McWane has already undertaken corrective measures to resolve all historical violations alleged in the Complaint, at an estimated cost of over $10 million. The proposed Consent Decree resolves only the specific violations alleged in the Complaint.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the Consent Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to United States and the Alabama Department of Environmental Protection v. McWane, Inc., D.J. Ref. No. 90-5-1-1-08282/5. All comments must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days after the publication date of this notice.
