General description of report: This information collection is mandatory pursuant to Section 48 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1831y). The Board does not generally consider the information obtained under Regulation G to be confidential. However, a respondent may request confidential treatment under section (b)(4) of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). Section (b)(4) provides an exemption for "trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential" (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4)). In order for a respondent to avail itself of this exemption, the respondent would have to show that the release of information would likely cause substantial harm to their competitive position. In addition, the information obtained under Regulation G may in appropriate circumstances also be withheld pursuant to section (b)(8) of the FOIA, which exempts information contained in "examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions" (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(8)).

Abstract: Regulation G implements provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) that require reporting and public disclosure of written agreements between (1) IDIs or their affiliates and (2) NGEFs, that are made in connection with the fulfillment of CRA requirements.¹ The GLBA requires both IDIs and NGEPs to make a copy of any CRA-Related agreement available upon request and file an annual report with each relevant supervisory agency regarding the use of funds under such agreement for that fiscal year. In addition, an IDI and affiliate must provide to the relevant supervisory agency each calendar quarter a list of all CRA-related agreements entered into during the quarter with a copy of the agreement.

Current Actions: On September 23, 2015 the Federal Reserve published a notice in the Federal Register (80 FR 57374) requesting public comment for 60 days on the extension, without revision, of the Requirements for Disclosure and Reporting of CRA-Related Agreements (Regulation G). The comment period for this notice expired on November 23, 2015. The Federal Reserve did not receive any comments. The information collection will be extended for three years, without revision, as proposed.

Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, December 4, 2015.

Robert deV. Frierson,
Secretary of the Board.
