SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

MPAA does, however, oppose IPG’s request regarding satellite royalties because, according to MPAA (1) IPG has not yet established its entitlement to receive a share of satellite royalties, and (2) the 0.20% percentage share of the Program Suppliers Category royalties that IPG seeks is either equivalent to or greater than the total royalty award that MPAA proposed for IPG for some of the 2000–2009 satellite funds. MPAA Opposition at 1–2. MPAA also states that it has concerns, which it contends disqualifies the Judges share, “not only about IPG’s ability, but also its willingness, to discharge funds, should the need arise.” Id. at 4, quoting Order Denying IPG Motion For Partial Distribution, Docket Nos. 2008–2 CRB CD 2000–03 (Phase II), 2008–1 CRB CD 1998–99 (Phase II), 2012–6 CRB CD 2004–09 (Phase II) and 2012–7 CRB SD 1999–2009 (Phase II) at 6 (Feb. 11, 2014).

IPG counters that the “touchstone as to whether a party may seek and be advance distributed [sic] royalties has been determined to be whether such party has established itself as a legitimate claimant, and whether adverse parties can set forth a ‘reasonable’ objection to such advance distribution.” IPG Reply at 5. IPG contends that for each year from 2000–2009 it maintains cable and satellite claims that survived all claims-hearing challenges and to which even MPAA has assigned a value, IPG contends that those facts establish IPG as a “legitimate” claimant entitled to a partial distribution of satellite royalties. Id.

IPG also disputes MPAA’s contention that the partial distribution percentage that IPG seeks is equivalent to or greater than the total royalty award that MPAA proposed for IPG for some of the 2000–2009 Satellite Royalties (Sept. 25, 2015) (“MPAA Opposition”).

In its opposition, MPAA provides what it calls a “good faith estimate of the dollar amounts of the shares requested” by IPG for cable royalties. MPAA Opposition at 2–3. MPAA does not explain the methodology it used to derive the estimates. In its reply, IPG questions the accuracy of MPAA’s estimates, which IPG states are “substantially lower than what was previously reported by the MPAA to IPG to be the Program Supplier share of such royalty pools.” Independent Producer Group’s Reply in Support of Motion for Partial Distribution of 2004–2009 Cable Royalties and 2000–2009 Satellite Royalties (“IPG Reply”) at 1–2 (Oct. 1, 2015). MPAA, in turn, filed a motion to strike IPG’s reply which motion the Judges denied because it was not ripe. MPAA Motion to Strike IPG’s Reply . . . (Oct. 6, 2015); Order Denying MPAA Motion to Strike IG’s Reply (December 10, 2015).
apply (i.e., cable royalties? Does the reverse also represent a representative) carry over to satellite establishments? If not, to which years does the established cable claimant (or claimant) carry over to all categories (e.g., Sports, etc.)? Does it carry over to all categories, and for which funds. For purposes of receiving a partial distribution of royalties, and, if so, for what years and for which Phase I categories, and for which funds. For example, assuming for the sake of argument that IPG is deemed an “established claimant” with respect to the Phase I Program Suppliers Category for cable for a particular year, does that status carry over to other Phase I categories, and for which funds. For example, the Judges seek written objections detailing the existence and extent of any entity’s objection(s) to the proposed distribution. This Notice seeks comments on whether any interested claimant asserts a reasonable objection to IPG’s request. The Judges must receive written objections detailing the existence and extent of any entity’s objection(s) by the end of the comment period. The Judges will not consider any objections with respect to the partial distribution motion that come to their attention after the close of that period. In particular, the Judges seek comment on whether IPG should be considered an “established claimant” for purposes of receiving a partial distribution of royalties, and, if so, for what years and for which Phase I categories, and for which funds. For example, if IPG contends that the Judges’ concerns about IPG’s ability and willingness to disgorge funds should the need arise, IPG contends that the Judges’ concern expressed in that order (which IPG contends was “unwarranted”) “was inspired by nothing more than inflammatory rhetoric of the [Settling Devotional Claimants].” IPG Reply at 7. Before authorizing a partial distribution of royalty funds requested under Section 801(b)(3)(C) of the Copyright Act, the Judges must first published a notice in the Federal Register seeking responses to the request to ascertain whether any claimant entitled to receive such royalty fees has a reasonable objection to the proposed distribution. This Notice seeks comments on whether any interested claimant asserts a reasonable objection to IPG’s request. The Judges must receive written objections detailing the existence and extent of any entity’s objection(s) by the end of the comment period. The Judges will not consider any objections with respect to the partial distribution motion that come to their attention after the close of that period. In particular, the Judges seek comment on whether IPG should be considered an “established claimant” for purposes of receiving a partial distribution of royalties, and, if so, for what years and for which Phase I categories, and for which funds.

3 The Judges note that MPAA’s “unfounded assertion . . . is simply inaccurate . . .” Id. at 6. If the Judges determine that IPG is an “established claimant” for the first time for any fund, are there safeguards (in addition to the pay-back agreement) the Judges can and should employ to ensure that IPG is able and willing to disgorge in the event of overpaid funds? Which safeguards would be appropriate or necessary? How long should they last and how would they be enforced?

If the Judges determine that IPG is entitled to the partial distribution it requests, what methodology should the Judges use to determine the dollar amount to which IPG is entitled? Would it be necessary for the Judges (or the Licensing Division of the Copyright Office, or both) to have access to all applicable Phase I confidential agreements to make the necessary calculations or is another means available? Commenters should consider what special calculations would have to be made to determine IPG’s share of the various subfunds (Basic, Syndex and 3.75%) in addition to calculating interest on (and deductions of applicable expenses against) funds deposited with the Licensing Division. The issues and questions set forth above are not necessarily exhaustive. Commenters may address any other issues or questions that they believe are relevant to the pending Motion. The Copyright Royalty Board has posted IPG’s Motion at http://www.loc.gov/crb.

Jesse M. Feder,
U.S. Copyright Royalty Judge.
