SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

On September 25, 2008, the President issued Executive Order (E.O.) 13473 allowing agencies to make noncompetitive appointments of certain military spouses of members of the Armed Forces. OPM implemented this E.O. via final regulations which were published in the Federal Register (FR) on August 12, 2009, at 74 FR 40471, and amended on August 31, 2011, at 76 FR 54071. OPM's implementing rules established a noncompetitive hiring authority for certain military spouses. Under this hiring authority, eligible spouses include, subject to other criteria specified in the final rule, the following categories of military spouses: Those who are relocating with their service member spouse as a result of permanent change of station (PCS) orders, spouses of service members who incurred a 100 percent disability because of the service member's active duty service, and the un-remarried widow or widower of a service member killed while on active duty. OPM's implementing rules did not restrict the number of permanent appointments the spouse of a disabled or deceased member of Armed Forces may receive under these provisions.

On January 2, 2013, the President signed the FY 13 NDAA. Section 566(a) of this Act codifies in statute, at 5 U.S.C. 3330d, the hiring authority previously created by E.O. 13743 and, in so doing, limits to one the number of permanent appointments the spouse of a disabled or deceased member of Armed Forces may receive under section 3330d. OPM is proposing to limit to one the number of permanent appointments an eligible spouse may receive under its regulatory provisions. We are making this change to conform our regulations to 5 U.S.C. 3330d(d)(2).

E.O. 12866 and E.O. 13563, Regulatory Review

This rule has been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget in accordance with Executive Order 12866 and Executive Order 13563.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

I certify that this regulation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because it affects only Federal agencies and employees.
