

certification, these statutory responsibilities include, determining that there are not able, willing, qualified and available U.S. workers for a position and location for which certification is being requested, and that the employment of the foreign worker(s) will not have an adverse impact on similarly employed U.S. workers.

Employers seeking to hire foreign workers in the D-1, E-3, H-1B, H-1B1, H-2A, H-2B, or the permanent/"green card" visa programs must first apply to the Secretary of Labor to obtain a labor certification or for the approval of a labor condition application, or a labor attestation. The Secretary has delegated the responsibilities for the administration of these programs to the Employment and Training Administration's (ETA) Office of Foreign Labor Certification (OFLC).

Before obtaining a certification from the Department, most employers must first obtain a Prevailing Wage Determination (PWD) for the appropriate occupation and area of intended employment from OFLC. Since January 1, 2010, the receipt and processing of PWD requests for use in the E-3, H-1B, H-1B1, H-2B, and the permanent/"green card" programs has been centralized in OFLC's National Prevailing Wage Center (NPWC) in Washington, DC.

The purpose of this Notice is to inform the public that the NPWC is relocating within Washington, DC and provide a new mailing address.
