Proposed Project

Congenital Heart Survey To Recognize Outcomes, Needs, and Well-being (CHSTRONG)—New—National Center on Birth Defects and Developmental Disabilities (NCBDDD), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Background and Brief Description

Congenital heart defects (CHDs) are the most common type of structural birth defects, affecting approximately 1 in 110 live-born children. According to previously published data, prior to the 1970s, many CHDs were considered fatal during infancy or childhood, but with tremendous advances in pediatric cardiology and cardiac surgery, at least 85% of patients now survive to adulthood. There are approximately 1.5 million adults with CHD in the United States today, and adults with CHD now outnumber children. With vast declines in mortality from pediatric heart disease over the past 30 years, it is vital to assess long term outcomes and quality of life issues.

For this one-year project, we will use data from U.S. state birth defect surveillance systems to identify a population-based sample of individuals 18 to 45 years of age born with CHD. We will then use state databases and online search engines to find current addresses for those individuals and mail surveys to them inquiring about their barriers to health care, quality of life, social and educational outcomes, and transition of care from childhood to adulthood. The information collected from this population-based survey will be used to inform current knowledge, allocate resources, develop services, and, ultimately, improve long-term health of adults born with CHD.

We estimate sending an introductory letter and survey to 6,675 individuals with CHD in the birth defects surveillance systems, and receiving completed surveys from 4,672 individuals (70%). The survey takes approximately 20 minutes to complete. The Contact Information Form will be provided in English and Spanish and should take approximately 2 minutes to read and complete. It is estimated that the total burden hours are 2,254.

There are no costs to participants other than their time.

ESTIMATED ANNUALIZED BURDEN HOURS

Type of respondents	Form name	Number of respondents	Number responses per respondent	Average burden per response (in hours)
Individuals aged 18–45 years who were born with a congenital heart defect.	Survey questionnaire	6,675	1	20/60
English-speaking mothers of respondents	Contact Information Form—English	757	1	2/60
Spanish-speaking mothers of respondents	Contact Information Form—Spanish	133	1	2/60
