SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: ONMS serves as the trustee for 14 marine protected areas encompassing more than 170,000 square miles of ocean and Great Lakes waters from the Hawaiian Islands to the Florida Keys, and from Lake Huron to American Samoa. National marine sanctuaries protect our Nation's most vital coastal and marine natural and cultural resources, and through active research, management, and public engagement, sustains healthy environments that are the foundation for thriving communities and stable economies. One of the many ways ONMS ensures public participation in the designation and management of national marine sanctuaries is through the formation of advisory councils. The Sanctuary System Business Advisory Council (Council) has been formed to provide advice and recommendations to the Director regarding the relationship of the ONMS with the business community. Additional information on the Council can be found at <http://sanctuaries.noaa.gov/management/ac/>.

Matters to Be Considered: This meeting of the Council will provide an opportunity for council representatives to hear about ONMS interest in developing a business plan that analyzes the work conducted within the National Marine Sanctuary System and identifies the gaps between what ONMS wants to accomplish and the resources and opportunities available to it. Council representatives will be asked to provide their perspective on the utility of this type of plan as well as its content, structure, and format. The agenda is subject to change. The agenda is available at <http://>
