Credit unions must join the CLF to gain access to CLF services. NCUA Rules and Regulations § 725.3(a)(1) and 725.4(a)(1) state a credit union may become a member of the CLF by making application on a form approved the CLF and furnishing applicable supporting documentation. The information requested on the form and the supporting documentation is necessary to establish the relationship between the CLF and the credit union and to determine the amount of the applicant's stock subscription as required by 12 U.S.C. 1795c.

NCUA Rules and Regulations § 725.20, requires member of the Central Liquidity Fund (CLF), to sign the repayment, security and credit reporting agreement in order to receive loans from the CLF. This form (CLF-8703) is the contract required to document loans made by the CLF to have an enforceable legal right to repayment of said loan, create a security interest in the specified asset in case of non-repayment, and establish reporting requirements for monitoring the credit union's financial condition when it has a CLF loan.

A Central Liquidity Facility (CLF) member may apply for extensions of credit for short-term adjustment, seasonal and protracted adjustment credit to meet liquidity needs. The forms are necessary for the CLF to determine credit worthiness, as required by 12 U.S.C 1795e(2).

The public is invited to submit comments concerning: (a) Whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the function of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of the information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.
