SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Notice of the Applications for Expansion

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration is providing notice that Nemko-CCL, Inc. (CCL), is applying for expansion of its current recognition as an NRTL. CCL requests the addition of two (2) recognized testing and certification sites, and twenty-two (22) additional test standards to its NRTL scope of recognition. Additionally, CCL is applying to relocate its headquarters to Ottawa, Canada, after its existing headquarters in Salt Lake City, Utah was destroyed in a fire.

OSHA recognition of an NRTL signifies that the organization meets the requirements specified in title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, section 1910.7 (29 CFR 1910.7). Recognition is an acknowledgment that the organization can perform independent safety testing and certification of the specific products covered within its scope of recognition and is not a delegation or grant of government authority. Recognition enables employers to use products approved by the NRTL to meet OSHA standards that require product testing and certification.

The Agency processes applications by an NRTL for initial recognition and for an expansion or renewal of this recognition, following requirements in Appendix A to 29 CFR 1910.7. This appendix requires that the Agency publish two notices in the Federal Register in processing an application. In the first notice, OSHA announces the application and provides its preliminary finding. In the second notice, the Agency provides its final decision on the application. These notices set forth the NRTL's scope of recognition or modifications of that scope. OSHA maintains an informational Web page for each NRTL, including CCL, which details the NRTL's scope of recognition. These pages are available from the OSHA Web site at <http://www.osha.gov/dts/otpca/nrtl/index.html>.

Each NRTL's scope of recognition includes: (1) The type of products the NRTL may test, with each type specified by its applicable test standard; and (2) the recognized site(s) that has/have the technical capability to perform the product testing and product-certification activities for test standards within the NRTL's scope.

CCL currently has one facility (site) recognized by OSHA for product testing and certification, with its headquarters located at: Nemko-CCL 1940 West Alexander Street, Salt Lake City, Utah 84119-2039. A complete list of CCL sites recognized by OSHA is available at <https://www.osha.gov/dts/otpca/nrtl/ccl.html>.

II. General Background on the Applications for Expansion

CCL submitted two applications, one dated January 28, 2015 (OSHA–2013–0016–008), and a second dated January 26, 2016 (OSHA–2013–0016–009), to expand its recognition to include the addition of two recognized testing and certification sites located at: Nemko North America, Inc., 2210 Faraday Avenue, Suite 150, Carlsbad, California 92008; and Nemko Canada, Inc., 303 River Road, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada

K1V 1H2. OSHA staff performed an on-site review of CCL's testing facilities on November 17–18, 2015, at CCL Ottawa, and on January 11–12, 2016, at CCL California. During these assessments, the assessors found some nonconformances with the requirements of 29 CFR 1910.7. CCL addressed these issues sufficiently, and OSHA staff preliminarily determined that OSHA should grant the applications.

CCL's first application also requested the addition of twenty-two test standards to its scope of recognition. OSHA staff performed a detailed analysis of the application packet, reviewed other pertinent information, and conducted the on-site reviews described above in relation to this application.

Table 1 below lists the appropriate test standards found in CCL's application for expansion for testing and certification of products under the NRTL Program.

III. Background on the Relocation of Nemko-CCL, Inc. Headquarters

On October 28, 2015, CCL provided notice to OSHA that their company headquarters located at 1940 West Alexander Road, Salt Lake City, Utah 84119–2039 had been completely destroyed in a fire that occurred on October 25, 2015. CCL temporarily moved their testing operations to their Ottawa and California locations while searching for a location to re-establish their headquarters. OSHA advised CCL that their inability to perform testing at their recognized site could lead to revocation from the NRTL Program, but proceeded to conduct the November 2015 and January 2016 on-site assessments of the Ottawa and California proposed sites because these assessments were scheduled before the fire occurred. In January of 2016, CCL advised OSHA that they wanted to move their headquarters to the Ottawa, Canada site and had secured a new location for their Salt Lake City, Utah site, which would now serve as an administrative site with no test capabilities. OSHA performed an electronic assessment of this new administrative site located at Nemko-CCL, Inc. 2964 West 4700 South, Suite 200, Salt Lake City, Utah 84129, on February 17, 2016.

IV. Preliminary Finding on the Applications

CCL submitted acceptable applications for expansion of its scope of recognition, and relocation of its company headquarters. OSHA's review of the application files and its detailed on-site and electronic assessments indicate that CCL can meet the requirements prescribed by 29 CFR 1910.7 for expanding its recognition to include the addition of these two sites and twenty-two test standards for NRTL testing and certification and the new headquarters site. This preliminary finding does not constitute an interim or temporary approval of CCL's applications.

OSHA welcomes public comment as to whether CCL meets the requirements of 29 CFR 1910.7 for expansion of its recognition as an NRTL. Comments should consist of pertinent written documents and exhibits. Commenters needing more time to comment must submit a request in writing, stating the reasons for the request. Commenters must submit the written request for an extension by the due date for comments. OSHA will limit any extension to 10 days unless the requester justifies a longer period. OSHA may deny a request for an extension if it is not adequately justified. To obtain or review copies of the exhibits identified in this notice, as well as comments submitted to the docket, contact the Docket Office, Room N–2625, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, at the above address. These materials also are available online at <http://www.regulations.gov> under Docket No. OSHA–2013–0016.

OSHA staff will review all comments to the docket submitted in a timely manner and, after addressing the issues raised by these comments, will recommend to the Assistant Secretary for Occupational Safety and Health whether to grant CCL's applications for expansion of its scope of recognition. The Assistant Secretary will make the final decision on granting the applications. In making this decision, the Assistant Secretary may undertake other proceedings prescribed in Appendix A to 29 CFR 1910.7.

OSHA will publish a public notice of this final decision in the Federal Register.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On April 3, 2016, Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI), the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP), SESAC, Inc. (SESAC) (together the Performing Rights Organizations or PROs) and The Harry Fox Agency LLC (with the PROs, the Settling Claimants) filed with the Copyright Royalty Judges (Judges) a Motion for Partial Distribution of the Musical Works Fund . . . (Motion). In the Motion, the Settling Claimants asserted that they have reached a confidential settlement among themselves concerning the distribution shares of the 2012 and 2013 DART Musical Works Fund royalties.

The Settling Claimants contend that they are, or they represent, "the vast majority" of claimants entitled to the Musical Works Fund royalties at issue in this proceeding. As support for their request, the Settling Claimants assert that, since 1997, non-settling music writer or publisher claimants have established claims to and have received less than 0.1% of the Musical Works Fund, if any. The Settling Claimants request a partial distribution of 95% of the subject royalty funds pursuant to Section 801(b)(3)(C) of the Copyright Act (Act).

Under section 801(b)(3)(C) of the Act, before ruling on a partial distribution motion the Judges must publish a notice
