as well as your ability and intention will effectively convey information to the public. We ordinarily presume that a representative of the news media satisfies this consideration;
(5) How you intend to disseminate the requested information to a broad spectrum of the public; and
(6) How disclosure will lead to a significantly greater understanding of the Government by the public.
(c) After reviewing your request and determining that there is a substantial public interest in release, we also determine if the request primarily furthers your commercial interests. If it does, you are not eligible for a fee waiver.
(d) You should ask for waiver or reduction of fees when you first submit your request to HHS, and should address the criteria referenced in this section.
(e) We may waive (either partially or in full) or reduce fees for records in additional circumstances as a matter of administrative discretion.

Subpart E—Appeals

§ 5.51 When may I appeal HHS's FOIA determination?
In order to fully exhaust all of your administrative remedies, you must file an appeal of an adverse agency determination. You may appeal when there is an adverse determination, including:
(a) Refusal to release a record, either in whole or in part;
(b) Determination that a record does not exist or cannot be found;
(c) Determination that the record you sought was not subject to the FOIA;
(d) Denial of a request for expedited processing;
(e) Denial of a fee waiver request; or
(f) Fee category determination.

§ 5.52 How do I file an appeal?
(a) You have the right to appeal an adverse agency determination of your FOIA request.
(b) You may submit your appeal via mail or electronically. All appeals must be in writing and received by HHS within 45 calendar days from the date of our final determination letter.
(1) Please send your appeal to the review official at the address provided in your denial letter. If you are unsure who is the appropriate review official, please contact the FOIA Service Center that processed your request to obtain that information.
(2) The addresses to mail FOIA appeals for CMS, the PSC and OS are, respectively: Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services, Attn: Principal Deputy Administrator, Room C5–16–03, 7500 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, MD 21244; U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (PSC), Deputy Agency Chief FOIA Officer, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs, 5600 Fishers Lane, Room 19–01, Rockville, MD 20857; U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Deputy Agency Chief FOIA Officer, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs, Room 729H, 200 Independence Avenue SW., Washington, DC 20201.
Additionally, information can be found at the following online locations for CMS, PSC, and OS: https://www.cms.gov/Regulations-and-Guidance/Legislation/FOIA/filehow.html; http://www.psc.foia/guide.html; and http://www.hhs.gov/foia/FOIA%20Appeals/index.html.
(3) For appeals submitted via mail, you should mark both your letter and envelope with the words “FOIA Appeal” and include your FOIA request tracking number, a copy of your initial request, and our final determination letter.
(c) Your appeal should clearly identify the agency determination that is being appealed. It would be helpful if you provide specific reasons explaining why you believe the agency’s adverse determination should be reconsidered.

§ 5.53 How does HHS process appeals?
(a) We respond to your appeal within 20 working days after the appeal official designated in your appeal letter receives it. If, however, your appeal is based on a denial of a request for expedited processing, we will act on your appeal of that decision expeditiously. Before making a decision on an appeal of an adverse determination, the designated review official will consult with the Office of the General Counsel. Also, the concurrence of the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs is required in all appeal decisions, including those on fees. When the review official responds to an appeal, that constitutes the Department’s final action on the request.
(b) If we reverse or modify the initial decision, we will inform you in writing and, if applicable, reprocess your request. If we do not change our initial decision, we will respond in writing to you, explain the reasons for the decision, set out any FOIA exemptions that apply, and inform you of the provisions for judicial review. If a requester files a FOIA lawsuit in reference to an appeal, we will cease processing the appeal.

§ 5.54 What avenues are available to me if I disagree with HHS’s appeal decision?
(a) In our response letter, we notify you of your right to seek judicial review of an adverse determination as set forth in the FOIA at 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4)(B). If you wish to seek judicial review of any adverse determination, you must first appeal it administratively as described in this subpart.
(b) We also inform you that the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. As referenced in § 5.29(b) you may contact OGIS via mail, email, or telephone for assistance.

Subpart F—Records Retention

§ 5.61 How does HHS retain FOIA records?
We will preserve records created in administering the Department’s Freedom of Information program until disposition is authorized under an applicable General Records Schedule or other records schedule duly approved by the Archivist of the United States.

Dated: June 7, 2016.
