SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 provides that if the Commission finds a violation it shall exclude the articles concerned from the United States:

- unless, after considering the effect of such exclusion upon the public health and welfare, competition conditions in the United States economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States consumers, it finds that such articles should not be excluded from entry. 19 U.S.C. 1337(d)(1). A similar provision applies to cease and desist orders. 19 U.S.C. 1337(f)(1).
- The Commission is interested in further development of the record on the public interest in its investigations. Accordingly, members of the public are invited to file submissions of no more than five (5) pages, inclusive of attachments, concerning the public interest in light of the administrative law judge’s Recommended Determination on Remedy and Bonding issued in this investigation on June 20, 2016. Comments should address whether issuance of an exclusion order and/or cease and desist orders in this investigation could affect the public health and welfare in the United States, competitive conditions in the United States economy, the production of like or directly competitive articles in the United States, or United States consumers.
- In particular, the Commission is interested in comments that:
  - (i) Explain how the articles potentially subject to the recommended orders are used in the United States;
  - (ii) identify any public health, safety, or welfare concerns in the United States relating to the recommended orders;
  - (iii) indicate the extent to which like or directly competitive articles are produced in the United States or are otherwise available in the United States, with respect to the articles potentially subject to the recommended orders;
  - (iv) indicate whether Complainant, Complainant’s licensees, and/or other private suppliers have the capacity to replace the volume of articles potentially subject to the recommended orders within a commercially reasonable time; and
  - (v) explain how the recommended orders would impact consumers in the United States.

Written submissions must be filed no later than by close of business on July 27, 2016.

Persons filing written submissions must file the original document electronically on or before the deadlines stated above and submit 8 true paper copies to the Office of the Secretary by noon the next day pursuant to Commission rule 210.4(f). 19 CFR 210.4(f). Submissions should refer to the investigation number (“Inv. No. 337 – TA–962”) in a prominent place on the cover page and/or the first page.
Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Clean Air Act, Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act, and Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

On June 20, 2016, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed consent decree with the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, in the lawsuit entitled United States v. J.S.B. Industries, Inc., John P. Anderson, as Trustee of 130 Crescent Ave. Realty Trust, and JMG Andover Street Realty, Civil Action No. 1:16–cv–11097–DPW. The United States filed this lawsuit under Section 112(r)(1) of the Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. 7412(r)(1), Sections 304, 311 and 312 of the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. 11004, 11021, and 11022, and Section 103 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. 9603. The United States’ complaint seeks civil penalties and injunctive relief in connection with the use and handling of anhydrous ammonia and sulfuric acid at two JSB baked goods facilities located in Chelsea and Lawrence, Massachusetts, respectively.

The Consent Decree requires the defendants to pay a civil penalty of $156,000, plus interest, and perform a supplemental environmental project, projected to cost $119,000, involving the provision of emergency response equipment to the fire departments serving the Chelsea and Lawrence communities.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the consent decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to United States v. J.S.B. Industries, Inc., et al., D.J. Ref. Nos. 90–5–2–1–10997 and 90–5–2–1–10997/1. All comments must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days after the publication date of this notice. Comments may be submitted either by email or by mail:
