

sent to our environmental mailing list that included federal, state, and local government agencies; elected officials; affected landowners; regional environmental groups and non-governmental organizations; Native Americans and Indian tribes; local libraries and newspapers; and other interested parties. The Mountain Valley Pipeline Project NOI announced the date, time, and location of six public meetings sponsored by the FERC in the project area, and a scoping period that ran to June 16, 2015 to take comments on the project. Some of the major issues raised during scoping included potential impacts on karst terrain and caves; impacts on groundwater and springs, drinking water supplies, and surface waterbodies; impacts on forest; impacts on property values and the use of eminent domain; impacts on tourism; impacts on public recreational areas such as the Jefferson National Forest, Appalachian National Scenic Trail, and the Blue Ridge Parkway; impacts on historic districts; and pipeline safety.

The United States (U.S.) Department of Agriculture Forest Service, Jefferson National Forest; U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Huntington and Norfolk Districts; U.S. Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management; U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region 3; Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration within the U.S. Department of Transportation; West Virginia Department of Environmental Protection; and West Virginia Division of Natural Resources are cooperating agencies in the preparation of the EIS.

Additional Information

In order to receive notification of the issuance of the EIS and to keep track of all formal issuances and submittals in specific dockets, the Commission offers a free service called eSubscription (<http://www.ferc.gov/docs-filing/esubscription.asp>). Additional data about the projects can be obtained electronically through the Commission's Internet Web site (www.ferc.gov). Under "Dockets & Filings," use the "eLibrary" link, select "General Search" from the menu, enter the docket numbers excluding the last three digits (i.e., CP16-10 or CP16-13), and the search dates. Questions about the projects can be directed to the Commission's Office of External Affairs at (866) 208-FERC.
