NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

The Secretary of Homeland Security has exempted this system from the notification, access, and amendment procedures of the Privacy Act because it is a law enforcement system. However, DHS/ICE will consider individual requests to determine whether or not information may be released. Thus, individuals seeking notification of, and access to, any record contained in this system of records, or seeking to contest its content, may submit a request in writing to ICE’s Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Officer, whose contact information can be found at http://www.dhs.gov/foia under “Contacts.” If an individual believes more than one component maintains Privacy Act records concerning him or her, the individual may submit the request to the Chief Privacy Officer and Chief Freedom of Information Act Officer, Department of Homeland Security, 245 Murray Drive SW., Building 410, STOP—0653, Washington, DC 20528.

When seeking records about yourself from this system of records or any other Departmental system of records, your request must conform with the Privacy Act regulations set forth in 6 CFR part 5. You must first verify your identity, meaning that you must provide your full name, current address, as well as your date and place of birth. You must sign your request, and your signature must either be notarized or submitted under 28 U.S.C. 1746, a law that permits statements to be made under penalty of perjury as a substitute for notarization. While no specific form is required, you may obtain forms for this purpose from the Chief Privacy Officer and Chief Freedom of Information Act Officer, http://www.dhs.gov/foia or 1–866–431–0486. In addition, you should:

• Explain why you believe the Department would have information on you;
• Identify which component(s) of the Department you believe may have the information about you;
• Specify when you believe the records would have been created; and
• Provide any other information that will help the FOIA staff determine which DHS component agency may have responsive records.

If your request is seeking records pertaining to another living individual, you must include a statement from that individual certifying his/her agreement for you to access his/her records. Without the above information, the component(s) may not be able to conduct an effective search, and your request may be denied due to a lack of specificity or a lack of compliance with applicable regulations.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

See “Notification procedure” above.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

See “Notification procedure” above.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

More specifically, DHS/ICE—914 records are derived from the following sources: (a) Other federal, state, local, tribal, or foreign governments and government information systems; and (b) evidence, contraband, and other seized material.

EXEMPTIONS CLAIMED FOR THE SYSTEM:

The Secretary of Homeland Security, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552a(j)(2), has exempted this system from the following provisions of the Privacy Act: 5 U.S.C. 552a(c)(3), (c)(4); (d); (e)(1), (e)(2), (e)(3), (e)(4)[G], (e)(4)[H], (e)(4)[I], (e)(5), (e)(8); (f); and (g). SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Department of the Interior (DOI) maintains the “Privacy Act Files—Interior, DOI—57” system of records. This system enables DOI to efficiently manage Privacy Act Program activities; supports the processing and tracking of notification, record access and amendment requests, and administrative appeals under the Privacy Act; conduct and manage complaints; supports agency participation in litigation arising from such requests, complaints, and appeals; and carry out any other responsibilities under the provisions of the Privacy Act. DOI is publishing this amended notice to reflect updated information in the system location, categories of individuals covered by the system, categories of records in the system, authority for maintenance of the system, storage, safeguards, retention and disposal, system manager and address, notification procedures, records access and contesting procedures, records source categories, and exemption sections.

Additionally, DOI is modifying existing routine uses to reflect updates consistent with standard DOI routine uses, and adding new routine uses to permit sharing of information with: (1) The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) in relation to legislative affairs mandates by OMB Circular A–19; (2) the Department of the Treasury to recover debts owed to the United States; (3) the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to conduct records management inspections; (4) NARA, Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) to assist and facilitate the resolution of disputes, to the extent such a dispute involves a combined Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act request for agency records; (5) Federal, state, territorial, local, tribal, or foreign agencies when there is an indication of a violation of law; (6) Federal, state, territorial, local, tribal, or foreign agencies when relevant for hiring and retention, or issuance of security clearance, license, contract, grant or benefit; (7) appropriate government agencies and organizations to provide information in response to court orders or for discovery purposes related to litigation; (8) an expert, consultant, or contractor that performs services on DOI’s behalf to carry out the purposes of the system; (9) another Federal agency to assist that agency in responding to an inquiry by the individual to whom that record pertains; and (10) the news media and the public, with approval by the Public Affairs Officer and Senior Agency Official for Privacy in consultation with Counsel.

The Privacy Act records in this system may also be maintained in other DOI systems of records, “Electronic FOIA Tracking System and FOIA Case Files—Interior, DOI–71” (67 FR 58817) for combined FOIA and Privacy Act requests, and “Freedom of Information Act Appeals Files—Interior, OS–69” (64 FR 16986) for appeals filed on Privacy Act requests or combined FOIA and Privacy Act requests. DOI last published a system notice in the Federal Register on March 24, 1999 (64 FR 14258) and published an amended notice on February 13, 2008 (73 FR 8342).

The amendments to the system will be effective as proposed at the end of the comment period (the comment period will end 30 days after the publication of this notice in the Federal Register), unless comments are received which would require a contrary determination. DOI will publish a revised notice if changes are made based upon a review of the comments received.

II. Privacy Act

The Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, embodies fair information practice principles in a statutory framework governing the means by which Federal agencies collect, maintain, use, and disseminate individuals’ personal information. The Privacy Act applies to records about individuals that are maintained in a “system of records.” A “system of records” is a group of any records under the control of an agency for which information is retrieved by the name of an individual or by some identifying number, symbol, or other identifying particular assigned to the individual. The Privacy Act defines an individual as a United States citizen or lawful permanent resident. As a matter of policy, DOI extends administrative Privacy Act protections to all individuals. Individuals may request access to their own records that are maintained in a system of records in the possession or under the control of DOI by complying with DOI Privacy Act regulations at 43 CFR part 2, subpart K.

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish in the Federal Register a description denoting the type and character of each system of records that the agency maintains, the routine uses of each system to make agency recordkeeping practices transparent, to notify individuals regarding the uses of their records, and to assist individuals to more easily find such records within the agency. The amended “Privacy Act Files—Interior, DOI–57” system of records notice is published in its entirety below.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), DOI has provided a report of this system of records to the Office of Management and Budget and to Congress.

III. Public Disclosure

Before including your address, phone number, email address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment, including your personal identifying information, may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Teri Barnett,
Departmental Privacy Officer.

Long-term records that require additional retention, such as denials, amendment case files, and files regarding erroneous release of personal information not associated with specific individuals, are destroyed seven years after cut-off, which is generally when the record is closed.

Records not covered by DRS–1 are maintained under General Records Schedule (GRS) 4.2, Information Access and Protection Records. GRS 4.2 Item 050, Privacy Act Accounting of Disclosure files, are disposed of in accordance with the subject individual records, or five years after the disclosure, whichever is later. GRS 4.2 item 060, erroneous release files associated with specific records, generally follow the original records disposition or are destroyed six years after the erroneous release, whichever is later.

Paper records are disposed of by shredding or pulping, and records contained on electronic media are degaussed or erased in accordance with 184 Departmental Manual 1 and NARA guidelines.
