

their parents. In the 1–3 minute video, Challenge-solvers must highlight one or more approach(es), practice(s), policy(ies), program(s), safe space(s), activity(ies), and strategy(ies) that support children and youth beyond traditional services, programs, and supports. Videos should strive to raise awareness of available support for this special population. Challenge-solvers may focus on culturally specific and other groups of children and youth. Applicants should strive to be creative, innovative, and educational in their video content. Videos may include explanations or instruction on how the idea can be replicated in different communities. So that the privacy, confidentiality, and safety of survivors and clients of domestic violence prevention programs are respected, survivors and program clients may not be featured in contestant videos.

Each video entry must be accompanied by a written transcript.

Public Voting

After the submission period is closed, a public voting period will commence on www.challenge.gov/domestic-violence-video-challenge. To assist FVPSA in making this award, voters should vote for a video based on some of the criteria discussed in the Video Criteria section.

Voting will be open for 2 weeks (14 calendar days) that will begin after the submission deadline and end no later than November 30, 2016. The actual dates and deadline for public voting period will be posted on the www.challenge.gov/domestic-violence-video-challenge Web site.

Winner Selection

The top 15 videos with highest scores at the public voting deadline will move on to the next round of judging. In addition, FVPSA employees will select an additional five videos based on whether the videos demonstrate a new emerging and effective approach, to move on to the next round of judging by the panel of subject matter experts.

The judges, made up of the panel of subject matter experts, will evaluate, score, and rank the top 20 finalists' videos. The top three scoring videos will win the Challenge. FVPSA will award three prizes as follows: First Prize: $5,000; Second Prize: $3,000; and Third Prize: $2,000. All prize awards are subject to FVPSA verification of the winners' identity, eligibility, and participation in the Challenge. Awards will be paid using electronic funds transfer and may be subject to federal income taxes. FVPSA will comply with the International Revenue Service (IRS) withholding and reporting requirements, where applicable.

Judging Criteria

The judging panel of experts will use a 100-point scale to evaluate the top 15 videos from the public voting and the 5 videos selected by FVPSA staff. In case of tied results, the winners will be selected by majority vote. The judging criteria are:

- The extent to which the video content highlights one or more new, innovative, emerging, and effective approach(es), practice(s), policy(ies), program(s), safe space(s), activity(ies), strategy(ies), and any other way(s) that help to improve safety, promote healing, and build the resilience of children exposed to domestic violence and their abused parents. (25 points)
- The extent to which the video aligns with FYSB's vision of a future in which all our nation's youth, individuals, and families—no matter what challenges they may face—can live healthy, productive, violence-free lives (FYSB's vision can be found at www.acf.hhs.gov/fysb). (15 points)
- The extent to which the video content increases awareness of domestic violence issues. (15 points)
- The extent to which the video content is educational, imparts knowledge, or deepens understanding of supports for children, youth, and parents. (15 points)
- The extent to which the video content is innovative. (15 points)
- The extent to which the video content is creative. (15 points)

Waivers and Releases

To enter the Domestic Violence Awareness Month YouTube Challenge, registered participants must sign a waiver, agreeing to assume any and all risks and waive claims against the Federal Government and its related entities, except in the case of willful misconduct, for any injury, death, damage, or loss of property, revenue, or profits, whether direct, indirect, or consequential, arising from their participation in a competition, whether the injury, death, damage, or loss arises through negligence or otherwise. Participants shall be required to obtain liability insurance or demonstrate financial responsibility for claims, as detailed in 15 U.S.C. 3719(i)(2).

Challenge-solvers must also obtain a signed ACF photo/video release waiver for individuals featured on the videos and submit it with their video link by the submission deadline listed in the DATES section. The waiver is available at www.challenge.gov/domestic-violence-video-challenge.

Restrictions

Challenge-solvers cannot use funding from the Federal Government (either through grants or contracts) to compete in the Domestic Violence Awareness Month YouTube Challenge.

More details on the Challenge are available on www.challenge.gov/domestic-violence-video-challenge. Submitted videos may be featured at FVPSA meetings and events and posted on the FVPSA Web site.

Proposed Information Collection Activity; Comment Request

Title: Provision of Child Support Services in IV–D cases under the Hague Child Support Convention; Federally Approved Forms.

OMB No.: New Collection.

Description: On January 1, 2017, the 2007 Hague Convention on the International Recovery of Child Support and Other Forms of Family Maintenance will enter into force for the United States. This Convention contains groundbreaking provisions that, for the first time on a worldwide scale, will establish uniform, simple, fast, and inexpensive procedures for the processing of international child support cases. Once the Convention is in effect, U.S. states will process child support cases with other countries that have ratified the Convention under the requirements of the Convention and Article 7 of the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA 2008). In order to comply with the Convention, the U.S. must implement the Convention's case processing forms.

State and Federal law require states to use Federally-approved case processing forms. Section 311(b) of UIFSA 2008, which has been enacted by all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, requires States to use forms mandated by Federal law. 45 CFR 303.7 also requires child support programs to use federally-approved forms in intergovernmental IV–D cases unless a country has provided alternative forms as a part of its chapter in a Caseworker’s Guide to Processing Cases with Foreign Reciprocating Countries.

Respondents: State agencies administering a child support program under title IV–D of the Social Security Act.

[Docket No. FDA–2016–N–0007]

Fee for Using a Tropical Disease Priority Review Voucher in Fiscal Year 2017

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA or the Agency) is announcing the fee rates for using a tropical disease priority review voucher for fiscal year (FY) 2017. The Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (the FD&C Act), as amended by the Food and Drug Administration Amendments Act of 2007 (FDAAA), authorizes FDA to determine and collect priority review user fees for certain applications for approval of drug or biological products when those applications use a tropical disease priority review voucher awarded by the Secretary of Health and Human Services. These vouchers are awarded to the sponsors of certain tropical disease product applications, submitted after September 27, 2007, upon FDA approval of such applications. The amount of the fee submitted to FDA with applications using a tropical disease priority review voucher is determined each fiscal year based on the difference between the average cost incurred by FDA in the review of a human drug application subject to priority review in the previous fiscal year, and the average cost incurred in the review of an application that is not subject to priority review in the previous fiscal year. This notice establishes the tropical disease priority review fee rate for FY 2017.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

Section 1102 of FDAAA (Pub. L. 110–85) added section 524 to the FD&C Act (21 U.S.C. 360n). In section 524, Congress encouraged development of new drug and biological products for prevention and treatment of certain tropical diseases by offering additional incentives for obtaining FDA approval
