OFFICE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY POLICY

National Science and Technology Council

Framework for a Federal Strategic Plan for Soil Science

ACTION: Notice of Request for Information.

SUMMARY: The Soil Science Interagency Working Group (SSIWG) was established under the National Science and Technology Council to develop a Framework for a Federal Strategic Plan for Soil Science. This Framework aims to establish Federal soil research priorities, ensure availability of tools and information for improved soil management and stewardship, deliver key information to land managers to help them implement soil conserving systems, and inform related policy development and coordination. The Framework identifies current gaps, needs, and opportunities in soil science, and proposes Federal research priorities for the future. The Framework will inform a more comprehensive Federal Strategic Plan that will provide recommendations for improving the coordination of soil science research, as well as the development, implementation, and evaluation of soil conservation and management practices among Federal agencies and between Federal agencies and non-Federal organizations, both domestic and international. This notice solicits public comments on the Framework. The Framework can be accessed at the following link: https://www.whitehouse.gov/sites/default/files/microsites/ostp/SSIWG\_Framework\_December\_2016.pdf.

DATES: Comments must be received by January 10, 2017 to be considered.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments by any of the following methods:

- Email (preferred): science@ostp.eop.gov. Include [Framework—Soils] in the subject line of the message.
- Fax: (202) 456–6027, Attn: Parker Liautaud.

- Mail: Attn: Parker Liautaud, Office of Science and Technology Policy, Eisenhower Executive Office Building, 1650 Pennsylvania Ave. NW., Washington, DC 20504.

Instructions: Response to this Request for Information (RFI) is voluntary. Responses exceeding 10 pages will not be considered. If responding to a question listed in the SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION section, please identify the question number(s) in your comment. Responses to this RFI may be posted without change online. The Office of Science and Technology Policy (OSTP) therefore requests that no business proprietary information, copyrighted information, or personally identifiable information be submitted in response to this RFI. Please note that the U.S. Government will not pay for response preparation, or for the use of any information contained in the response.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Parker Liautaud, (202) 881–7564, pliautaud@ostp.eop.gov, OSTP.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In preparing comments on the contents of the Framework, you may wish to consider the following questions:

(1) What research gaps currently exist in soil science and in soil-related questions within the earth and life sciences? Do Federal research programs adequately address these questions and support the necessary research to answer them? If no, where might there be needs for further Federal support?

(2) In general, does the Framework appropriately characterize the threats to U.S. soil resources? Are there significant challenges to soils that have not been mentioned or addressed in the Framework? Are there aspects to the issues explored that have not been considered, which should be?

(3) Land Use and Land Cover Change (LULCC): Have the appropriate LULCC issues been discussed and listed? Are there other forms of LULCC that are important (as related to impacts on soils) and have not been considered?

(4) Land Management Practices: Does the Framework accurately characterize the types of practices that impact agricultural soils? Does the Framework neglect any relevant issues related to the effects of different land management practices on soil?

(5) Climate and Environmental Change: Does the Framework identify the most important research needs? Does it neglect to mention significant opportunities or needs?

(6) Under each “Challenge and Opportunity” subsection, the Framework defines needs and opportunities to address threats to U.S. soils within four broad categories: Research, Technology, Land Management, and Social Sciences. Do these four categories adequately characterize the appropriate needs and opportunities in the Challenge areas? Are there threats to soils that cannot be addressed through programs that fall into one of these four categories?

(7) Priorities for the Future
a. Do these priorities adequately reflect the science and technology needs for ensuring the long-term sustainable use of soils in the United States?

b. Do you believe the list of priorities is comprehensive, or does it neglect one or more important issues?

c. Are the recommendations achievable?

d. The process of developing the Framework into a comprehensive plan may involve adding specificity to the recommendations, as well as suggesting Federal mechanisms for fulfilling them. In what way should these recommendations be made more detailed to better protect soils in the future? What metrics, targets, and benchmarks should be used, and in which soil properties?

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34–79431; File No. SR–Nasdaq–2016–120]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC; Order Instituting Proceedings To Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove a Proposed Rule Change To Amend Rules 7034 and 7051 To Establish the Third Party Connectivity Service

November 30, 2016.

I. Introduction

On August 16, 2016, the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq” or “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1)<sup>1</sup> of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)<sup>2</sup> and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,<sup>3</sup> a proposed rule change to establish the Third Party Connectivity Service under Rules 7034 and 7051. The proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register on September 2, 2016.<sup>4</sup> The Commission received one comment letter regarding the proposal.<sup>5</sup> Nasdaq responded to the comment letter.<sup>6</sup> Subsequently, the Commission received three additional comment letters regarding the proposal: One from Bats responding to Nasdaq’s Letter, another from Virtu Financial, and a third from SIFMA.<sup>7</sup> This order institutes proceedings under Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act<sup>8</sup> to determine whether to approve or disapprove the proposed rule change.

II. Description of the Proposed Rule Change

Proposed New Connectivity

As described in the Notice, the Exchange is proposing to amend Rules 7034 and 7051 to establish the Third Party Connectivity Service. Under the proposal, the Exchange would segregate connectivity to the Exchange and its proprietary data feeds from connectivity to third party services and data feeds, including SIP data feeds. The Third Party Connectivity Service will provide customers third party market data feeds, including SIP data, and other non-exchange services.<sup>9</sup> The Exchange is proposing to offer the Third Party Connectivity Service to co-location and non-co-location customers and will offer the service to customers in 10 Gb Ultra and 1 Gb Ultra hand-offs.<sup>10</sup> To receive the SIP feeds, customers must subscribe to the 10 Gb Ultra connectivity option under either Rule 7034(b) or 7051(b).

The proposed 1 Gb Ultra Third Party Connectivity Service option under Rules 7034(b) and 7051(b) will only support data feeds from other exchanges and markets.<sup>11</sup> Customers seeking connectivity to the Exchange and its proprietary data feeds may continue to do so through existing connectivity options under Rules 7034(b) and Rule 7051(a).<sup>12</sup>

Proposed New Fees<sup>13</sup>

The Exchange is proposing to assess fees for the Third Party Connectivity Service under Rules 7034(b) and 7051(b), including a fee of $1,500 for installation of either a 10 Gb Ultra or 1 Gb Ultra Third Party Services co-location or direct connectivity subscription and an ongoing monthly fee of $5,000 for 10 Gb Ultra connection and $2,000 for a 1 Gb Ultra connection.

III. Comment Letters and Nasdaq’s Response

The Commission received a total of four comments on the proposed rule change.<sup>14</sup> All of the commenters object to the proposal. The Commission also received a response to the Bats Letter from Nasdaq.<sup>15</sup>

In its comment letter, Bats stated that the proposed rule change constitutes a UTP access services fee for direct access to UTP data, and, as such, the fee should have been approved by the UTP Operating Committee.<sup>16</sup> SIFMA noted its agreement with BATS’s position on this issue.<sup>17</sup> More specifically, Bats stated its belief that because Nasdaq is the sole provider of direct access to UTP Data, the proposal targets UTP Data recipients and extends the scope of the UTP system to include customer connectivity, because firms desiring direct access to UTP Data would be required to subscribe to and pay for the proposed Third Party Connectivity Service.<sup>18</sup> Bats also stated its views that the proposal is anti-competitive, in that it benefits Nasdaq’s proprietary data products over UTP data, and is technically unnecessary.<sup>19</sup> Virtu Financial and SIFMA also questioned whether the proposal is technically necessary.<sup>20</sup>

Nasdaq responded to the Bats Letter, stating that Nasdaq has controlled the network and network connectivity without input from the UTP Operating Committee for over 25 years,<sup>21</sup> and that neither the UTP Plan nor the processor agreement grants the UTP Operating Committee authority over the network or network connectivity associated with SIP Data.<sup>22</sup>

Nasdaq also stated that SIP Data can be obtained from multiple extranet providers that compete with Nasdaq’s data distribution services.<sup>23</sup> Nasdaq further stated that extranet providers are not at a competitive disadvantage because extranet providers and Nasdaq receive SIP Data via the same switches, and therefore clients that receive SIP Data via direct connections do not have an advantage with respect to location or speed.<sup>24</sup> Nasdaq also stated that the proposal does not target UTP data recipients because UTP SIP Data is combined with and carried on the same network as data from other sources.<sup>25</sup> Nasdaq argued that it “is proposing to charge firms less for access to SIP Data than it will charge for access to Nasdaq Data” because the “proposed monthly fees for direct connections to the Third Party Data are $2000 for 1G connections and $5000 for 10G connections, where the current fees for direct connections to Nasdaq Data are $2500 and $7500 for the same services.”<sup>26</sup>

With respect to technical necessity, Nasdaq stated that it has “done substantial analysis to support the recommendation, and it believes the recommendation is consistent with its limited experience with the new Processor.”<sup>27</sup> Nasdaq further stated that the UTP Operating Committee has “input into the bandwidth

If you add the new UTP Quote Data binary feed to that same connection, the combined feeds exceed 1G capacity for 1 microsecond timeframe in 23 trading days.” See id.

recommendation” and can act to lower it further.<sup>28</sup>

In its response to Nasdaq, Bats stated its views that the Nasdaq Letter fails to: (i) Address Bats’ assertions that the proposal is anti-competitive; (ii) explain why the proposed rule change is technically necessary; and (iii) show that the proposed rule change does not constitute an access services fee for UTP Data. Specifically, Bats stated that under the proposal, Nasdaq members who maintain direct connections to Nasdaq for trading and quoting purposes would continue to receive Nasdaq proprietary products at no additional cost, while those wishing to also obtain UTP Data would be required to purchase an additional connection via the proposed Third Party Connectivity Service, and pay a separate fee for that connection, thereby making access to UTP data materially more expensive.<sup>29</sup> Bats also stated that it is the access to UTP Data that is at issue, and not the coupling of UTP Data with other third party services, or the percentage of clients that also take another data product via a direct connection to Nasdaq.<sup>30</sup>

Bats also stated its view that Nasdaq SIP bandwidth recommendations are excessive, inconsistent with current peak UTP message traffic, and much higher than recommendations for Nasdaq’s own proprietary data products.<sup>31</sup> SIFMA states that Nasdaq has not provided any “reasonable justification for requiring member firms to use a 10Gb connection to receive SIP data.”<sup>32</sup> Bats stated its belief that using a one microsecond burst to determine a bandwidth recommendation is misplaced, as the observed peak is not sustained over a full second.<sup>33</sup> Bats further stated its belief that the UTP Operating Committee has historically acquiesced in the current framework only because by “leveraging a single physical connection to access to both Nasdaq and UTP services, firms can save on the total cost of access, which is a worthwhile benefit to direct UTP data recipients,”<sup>34</sup> and that this ability to leverage existing connectivity was a factor in the selection of Nasdaq as SIP processor.<sup>35</sup>

In its letter, SIFMA agreed with issues raised by other commenters and asserted that the proposed rule change is not consistent with the statutory standards that govern fees.<sup>36</sup>

IV. Proceedings To Determine Whether To Approve or Disapprove SR–NASDAQ–2016–120 and Grounds for Disapproval Under Consideration

The Commission is instituting proceedings pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act<sup>37</sup> to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved. Institution of proceedings is appropriate at this time in view of the legal and policy issues raised by the proposed rule change, as discussed. Institution of proceedings does not indicate that the Commission has reached any conclusions with respect to any of the issues involved. Rather, as described in greater detail below, the Commission seeks and encourages interested persons to provide additional comment on the proposed rule change.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act,<sup>38</sup> the Commission is providing notice of the grounds for disapproval under consideration. Specifically, the Commission is instituting proceedings to allow for additional analysis of, and input from commenters with respect to, the proposed rule change’s consistency with Section 6(b)(4) of the Act, which requires that the rules of a national securities exchange “provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among its members and issuers and other persons using its facilities,”<sup>39</sup> Section 6(b)(5) of the Act, which requires, among other things, that the rules of a national securities exchange be “designed to perfect the operation of a free and open market and a national market system” and “protect investors and the public interest,” and not be “designed to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers,”<sup>40</sup> and Section 6(b)(8) of the Act, which requires that the rules of a national securities exchange “not impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of [the Act].”<sup>41</sup>

<sup>37</sup> 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(2)(B). Section 19(b)(2)(B) of the Act also provides that proceedings to determine whether to disapprove a proposed rule change must be concluded within 180 days of the date of publication of notice of the filing of the proposed rule change. The time for conclusion of the proceedings may be extended for up to 60 days if the Commission finds good cause for such extension and publishes its reasons for so finding.

V. Procedure: Request for Written Comments

The Commission requests that interested persons provide written submissions of their data, views, and arguments with respect to the concerns identified above, as well as any other concerns they may have with the proposed rule change. In particular, the Commission invites the written views of interested persons concerning whether the proposal is consistent with Sections 6(b)(4),<sup>42</sup> 6(b)(5),<sup>43</sup> 6(b)(8),<sup>44</sup> or any other provision of the Act, or the rules and regulations thereunder. Although there does not appear to be any issue relevant to approval or disapproval which would be facilitated by an oral presentation of data, views, and arguments, the Commission will consider, pursuant to Rule 19b–4 under the Act,<sup>45</sup> any request for an opportunity to make an oral presentation.<sup>46</sup> Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments regarding whether the proposal should be approved or disapproved by December 27, 2016. Any person who wishes to file a rebuttal to any other person’s submission must file that rebuttal by January 10, 2017.

In light of the issues raised by the proposed rule change, as discussed above, the Commission invites additional comment on the proposal, as the Commission continues its analysis of the proposed rule change’s consistency with the Act, or the rules and regulations thereunder. More specifically, the Commission asks that any commenters address the sufficiency and merit of the Exchange’s statements in support of the proposed rule change. In addition, the Commission seeks comment on the relative merits and advantages or disadvantages of obtaining UTP Data from sources other than directly from Nasdaq via the proposed Third Party Connectivity Service.

Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

<sup>46</sup> Section 19(b)(2) of the Act, as amended by the Securities Act Amendments of 1975, Public Law 94–29 (June 4, 1975), grants to the Commission flexibility to determine what type of proceeding—either oral or notice and opportunity for written comments—is appropriate for consideration of a particular proposal by a self-regulatory organization. [Release No. 34-79435; File No. SR-OCC-2016-014]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; The Options Clearing Corporation; Notice of Filing of Amendment No. 1 and Order Granting Accelerated Approval of a Proposed Rule Change, as Modified by Amendment No. 1, Related to Compliance With Section 871(m) of the Internal Revenue Code

November 30, 2016.

On October 18, 2016, The Options Clearing Corporation ("OCC") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change SR-OCC-2016-014 pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")<sup>1</sup> and Rule 19b-4 thereunder.<sup>2</sup> On November 1, 2016, the proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register.<sup>3</sup> On November 28, 2016, OCC filed Amendment No. 1 to the proposal.<sup>4</sup> The Commission did not receive any comments on the proposed rule change. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comment on Amendment No. 1 from interested persons and is approving the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1, on an accelerated basis.

I. Description of the Proposed Rule Change

The following is a description of the proposed rule change as provided by OCC.<sup>5</sup> All capitalized terms not defined herein have the same meaning as set forth in OCC's By-Laws and Rules.<sup>6</sup>

A. Background

OCC is proposing to modify its By-Laws and Rules to address the

<sup>3</sup> Securities Exchange Act Release No. 79172 (Oct. 27, 2016), 81 FR 75867 (Nov. 1, 2016) (SR-OCC-2016-014) ("Notice").

<sup>4</sup> In Amendment No. 1, OCC amended the proposal by adjusting and clarifying the date by which an affected Clearing Member would need to demonstrate compliance with the proposed rule change, to allow additional time for the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") to finalize the form necessary to demonstrate such compliance. Whereas the original filing defined the "Section 871(m) Implementation Date" to mean "December 1, 2016, or, if later, the date that is 30 days before the Section 871(m) Effective Date", Amendment No. 1 defines "Section 871(m) Implementation Date" to mean "such date on or after December 1, 2016 as [OCC] may designate in an Information Memo issued to its Clearing Members."

application of I.R.C. Section 871(m) ("Section 871(m)")<sup>7</sup> to listed options transactions commencing on January 1, 2017. The proposed modifications are designed to ensure that OCC will not be liable for U.S. withholding tax with respect to certain options transactions entered into by OCC's Clearing Members that are treated as non-U.S. persons for federal income tax purposes.

Section 871(m), which was enacted in 2010, imposes a 30% withholding tax on "dividend equivalent" payments that are made or deemed to be made to non-U.S. persons with respect to certain derivatives (such as total return swaps) that reference equity of a U.S. issuer. In enacting Section 871(m), Congress was attempting to address the ability of foreign persons to obtain the economics of owning dividend-paying stock through a derivative while avoiding the withholding tax that would apply to dividends paid on the stock if the foreign person owned the stock directly.<sup>8</sup>

In September 2015, the Treasury Department adopted final regulations (the "Final Section 871(m) Regulations")<sup>9</sup> based on a proposal issued in December 2013 expanding the types of derivatives to which Section 871(m) applies to include certain listed options transactions with an effective date of January 1, 2017. While actual dividends paid to foreign owners of U.S. equities have been subject to withholding tax for over 80 years, transactions by foreign persons in listed options referencing U.S. equities have not previously given rise to withholding tax. The application of Section 871(m) to listed options, as provided in the Final Section 871(m) Regulations, thus introduces new tax obligations and associated risks for OCC and its Clearing Members.

Under the Final Section 871(m) Regulations, any equity option entered into by a non-U.S. person with an initial delta of .8 or above is considered a "Section 871(m) Transaction" and can potentially give rise to a dividend equivalent subject to withholding tax.<sup>10</sup>

<sup>10</sup> Under the regulations, "delta" refers to the ratio of the change in the fair market value of an option to a small change in the fair market value of the number of shares of the underlying security referenced by the option. See 26 CFR 1.871-15(g)(1). Individual options entered into "in connection with each other" must generally be combined and tested against the .8 delta threshold on a combined basis (the "Combination Rule"). See 26 CFR 1.871-15(n). For example, if a non-U.S. person buys a call option and writes a put option on the same stock, and the options are entered into
