SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

FDA and OHRP are announcing the availability of a guidance entitled “Use of Electronic Informed Consent—Questions and Answers.” The guidance is intended for IRBs, investigators, and sponsors responsible for oversight of human subject research under HHS and/or FDA regulations. The guidance provides recommendations on the use of electronic systems and processes that may employ multiple electronic media to obtain informed consent for both HHS-regulated human subject research and FDA-regulated clinical investigations of medical products, including human drug and biological products, medical devices, and combinations thereof. In particular, the guidance provides recommendations on procedures that may be followed when using an electronic informed consent (eIC) to help: (1) Ensure protection of the rights, safety, and welfare of human subjects; (2) facilitate the subject's comprehension of the information presented during the eIC process; (3) ensure that appropriate documentation of consent is obtained when electronic systems and processes that may employ multiple electronic media are used to obtain informed consent; and (4) ensure the quality and integrity of eIC data included in FDA applications and made available to FDA during inspections.

In the Federal Register of March 9, 2015 (80 FR 12496), FDA announced the availability of a draft guidance entitled "Use of Electronic Informed Consent in Clinical Investigations—Questions and Answers." FDA received a number of comments on the draft guidance. In response to these comments, this guidance provides further clarification on: (1) How to present information in the eIC to the subject; (2) how and where to conduct the eIC process; (3) how and when questions from subjects should be answered; (4) steps that may be taken to facilitate the subject's understanding; (5) how to convey additional information to the subject during the course of the research; (6) how to use electronic signatures to document eIC; (7) how to verify the identity of the subjects who will be electronically signing the informed consent; (8) how to use electronic informed consent for pediatric studies; (9) how to provide copies of the eIC to the subject; (10) steps that may be taken to ensure privacy, security, and confidentiality of the eIC information; (11) how to obtain Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act authorizations for research electronically; (12) what eIC materials the investigator should submit to the IRB; (13) what the IRB's responsibilities are in the eIC process; (14) the eIC documentation required for FDA submission with applications; (15) steps to ensure that eIC materials are archived appropriately for FDA-regulated clinical investigations; and (16) what eIC materials or documents FDA will require during an inspection.

In addition, in the Federal Register of March 9, 2015 (80 FR 12497), OHRP asked for public comment on whether OHRP should adopt the positions and recommendations proposed in the draft guidance for research regulated under the HHS protection of human subjects regulations, 45 CFR part 46, and whether OHRP and FDA should issue a joint guidance on this topic. In response to these comments, the final guidance was developed in collaboration with FDA and OHRP and is issued as a joint final guidance.

To enhance human subject protection and reduce regulatory burden, OHRP and FDA have been actively working to harmonize the Agencies' regulatory requirements and guidance for human subject research. This guidance was developed as a part of these efforts. OHRP and FDA believe that it will be helpful to the regulated community to issue a joint guidance, which will clearly demonstrate the Agencies' collaborative approach to the topic of electronic informed consent.

This guidance is being issued consistent with FDA's good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The guidance represents the current thinking of FDA and OHRP on the use of electronic informed consent. It does not establish any rights for any person and is not binding on OHRP, FDA, or the public. You can use an alternative approach if it satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In compliance with 44 U.S.C. 3507, FDA has submitted the following proposed collection of information to OMB for review and clearance.

Medical Devices; Third-Party Review Under the Food and Drug Administration Modernization Act—OMB Control Number 0910-0375—Extension

Section 210 of the Food and Drug Administration Modernization Act (FDAMA) established section 523 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C. 360m), directing FDA to accredit persons in the private sector to review certain premarket notifications (510(k)s). Participation in this third-party review program by accredited persons is entirely voluntary. A third party wishing to participate will submit a request for accreditation to FDA. Accredited third-party reviewers have the ability to review a manufacturer's 510(k) submission for selected devices. After reviewing a submission, the reviewer will forward a copy of the 510(k) submission, along with the reviewer's documented review and recommendation, to FDA. Third-party reviewers should maintain records of their 510(k) reviews and a copy of the 510(k) for a reasonable period of time, usually a period of 3 years.

This information collection will allow FDA to continue to implement the accredited person review program established by FDAMA and improve the efficiency of 510(k) review for low- to moderate-risk devices. Respondents to this information collection are businesses or other for-profit organizations.

FDA receives an average of one application for accreditation for third-party review per year. According to FDA's data, the number of 510(k)s submitted for third-party review is approximately 260 annually, which is 26 annual reviews per each of the 10 accredited reviewers. Third-party reviewers are required to keep records of their review of each submission.

In the Federal Register of July 8, 2016 (81 FR 44627), FDA published a 60-day notice requesting public comment on the proposed collection of information.

FDA estimates the burden of this collection of information as follows:

TABLE 1—ESTIMATED ANNUAL REPORTING BURDEN ¹

Activity	Number of respondents	Number of responses per respondent	Total annual responses	Average burden per response	Total hours
Requests for accreditation	1	1	1	24	24
510(k) reviews conducted by accredited third parties	10	26	260	40	10,400
Total					10,424

¹ There are no capital costs or operating and maintenance costs associated with this collection of information.

Activity	Number of recordkeepers	Number of records per recordkeeper	Total annual records	Average burden per recordkeeping	Total hours
510(k) reviews	10	26	260	10	2,600

¹ There are no capital costs or operating and maintenance costs associated with this collection of information.
