

Note: EL stands for efficiency level, E_t stands for thermal efficiency, and SL stands for standby loss.

The energy conservation standards for residential-duty commercial water heaters adopted in the December 6, 2016 conversion factor final rule (i.e., denominated in UEF and translated from the existing thermal efficiency and standby loss standards) are linear equations dependent on rated volume. Therefore, the converted UEF standard equations for residential-duty gas-fired storage water heaters presented in this NODA are consistent with this equation format. DOE based its methodology for developing UEF standard equations for more-stringent thermal efficiency and standby loss levels on the “representative model” method used for determining the converted standards equations in terms of UEF in the December 6, 2016 conversion factor final rule, as outlined below. (See Docket EERE–2015–BT–TP–0007)

DOE developed UEF standard equations corresponding to each combination of thermal efficiency and standby loss levels that DOE selected in the TSLs analyzed in the May 2016 CWH ECS NOPR. DOE converted the thermal efficiency level and standby loss value to UEF for each identified rated volume on the market and for each draw pattern using the conversion factors adopted in the December 6, 2016 conversion factor final rule. (See Docket EERE–2015–BT–TP–0007) To develop the UEF standard equation for each draw pattern and TSL, DOE used a linear regression between volume and UEF (see the December 6, 2016 conversion factor final rule for more details).

Table 4 shows the thermal efficiency and standby loss levels included in each TSL in the May 2016 CWH ECS NOPR for residential-duty commercial gas-fired storage water heaters. 81 FR 34440, 34504 (May 31, 2016). Table 5 shows the updated UEF standard equations, dependent on rated volume, that were developed for each TSL and draw pattern using the conversion factors adopted in the December 6, 2016 conversion factor final rule. (See Docket EERE–2015–BT–TP–0007)

* Draw pattern is a classification of hot water use of a consumer water heater or residential-duty commercial water heater, based upon the first-hour rating. The draw pattern is determined using the Uniform Test Method for Measuring the Energy Consumption of Water Heaters in appendix E to subpart B of 10 CFR Part 430.

Note: TSL 0 represents the baseline, and Vr is rated volume in gallons. UEF values were determined using the conversion factors adopted in the December 6, 2016 conversion factor final rule. (See Docket EERE–2015–BT–TP–0007).

III. Issues on Which DOE Seeks Public Comment

DOE is interested in receiving comments on the conversion of the thermal efficiency and standby loss levels for residential-duty gas-fired storage water heaters that were considered in the May 2016 CWH ECS NOPR to UEF levels and UEF standard equations using the conversion factors adopted by DOE in its December 6, 2016 final rule.

Issued in Washington, DC, on December 7, 2016.

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Energy Efficiency, Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy.

BILLING CODE 6450–01–P

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

11 CFR Parts 4, 5, 100, 110, 112, 113, and 300

[Notice 2016–14]

Technical Amendments and Corrections

AGENCY: Federal Election Commission.
ACTION: Correcting amendments.

SUMMARY: The Commission is making technical corrections to various sections of its regulations. These are non-substantive amendments to correct typographical errors, update references, and remove provisions that no longer apply.

DATES: Effective December 23, 2016.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Eugene Lynch, Paralegal, 999 E Street

NW., Washington, DC 20463, (202) 694–1650 or (800) 424–9530.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The existing rules that are the subject of these corrections are part of the continuing series of regulations that the Commission has promulgated to implement the Presidential Election Campaign Fund Act, 26 U.S.C. 9001–13, and the Presidential Primary Matching Payment Account Act, 26 U.S.C. 9031–42 (collectively, the “Funding Acts”), and the Federal Election Campaign Act, 52 U.S.C. 30101–46 (“FECA”). The Commission is promulgating these corrections without advance notice or an opportunity for comment because they fall under the “good cause” exemption of the Administrative Procedure Act. 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B). The Commission finds that notice and comment are unnecessary here because these corrections are merely typographical and technical; they effect no substantive changes to any rule. For the same reason, these corrections fall within the “good cause” exception to the delayed effective date provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act and the Congressional Review Act. 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3), 808(2).

Moreover, because these corrections are exempt from the notice and comment procedure of the Administrative Procedure Act under 5 U.S.C. 553(b), the Commission is not required to conduct a regulatory flexibility analysis under 5 U.S.C. 603 or 604. See 5 U.S.C. 601(2), 604(a). Nor is the Commission required to submit these revisions for congressional review under FECA or the Funding Acts. See 52 U.S.C. 30111(d)(1), (4) (providing for congressional review when Commission “prescribe[s]” a “rule of law”); 26 U.S.C. 9009(c)(1), (4), 9039(c)(1), (4) (same). Accordingly, these corrections are effective upon publication in the Federal Register.

Corrections to FECA and Funding Act Rules in Chapter I of Title 11 of the Code of Federal Regulations

A. Correction to 11 CFR Chapter I

The Commission has renamed a division within the agency. As a result, throughout 11 CFR chapter I, the Commission is replacing every instance of the phrase “Public Disclosure Division” with the phrase “Public Disclosure and Media Relations Division.”

B. Correction to 11 CFR 100.94

The Commission is correcting a typographical error in paragraph (b) of this section by adding a comma after the word “maintaining”. This comma was inadvertently omitted when the Commission promulgated this paragraph.

C. Correction to 11 CFR 100.155

The Commission is correcting a typographical error in paragraph (b) of this section by adding a comma after the word “creating” and a comma after the word “maintaining”. These commas were inadvertently omitted when the Commission promulgated this paragraph.

D. Correction to 11 CFR 110.6

The Commission is revising paragraphs (c)(2)(i) and (c)(2)(ii)(C) of this section to correctly note the reporting requirements for candidates and authorized committees receiving earmarked contributions from conduits and intermediaries. These paragraphs currently state that candidates and authorized committees are required to report a conduit or intermediary forwarding earmarked contributions which, in the aggregate, exceed $200 in “any calendar year.” In 1999, however, Congress amended FECA to require that authorized committees aggregate and report all receipts and disbursements by election cycle, rather than by calendar year. Treasury and General Government Appropriations Act of 2000, Public Law 106–58, sec. 641, 113 Stat. 430, 477 (1999). In 2000, the Commission implemented this legislation by amending § 104.3(c) of its regulations, Election Cycle Reporting by Authorized Committees, 65 FR 42619–21 (July 11, 2000), but inadvertently failed to update paragraphs (c)(2)(i) and (c)(2)(ii)(C) of § 110.6 to conform to the statute and to revised § 104.3. To correct that oversight, the Commission is amending the relevant portions of the text in paragraphs (c)(2)(i) and (c)(2)(ii)(C).

E. Corrections to 11 CFR 113.2

The Commission is removing paragraph (f) of this section because it is no longer applicable. Paragraph (f) describes the “personal use” rules, which concern the permissible non-campaign uses of campaign funds, that applied to Members of Congress serving in the 102d or an earlier Congress. Because this paragraph does not apply to any Members serving in the 103d or a later Congress, which includes all current and future Members of Congress, the Commission is removing paragraph (f).

F. Corrections to 11 CFR 300.12

The Commission is removing and reserving this section because it contains transitional rules that no longer apply. When the Commission enacted rules concerning the use of non-federal funds in 2002, the Commission also promulgated § 300.12, which outlined how and by what date national committees of political parties were to disburse non-federal funds received before November 6, 2002. Prohibited and Excessive Contributions: Non-Federal Funds or Soft Money, 67 FR 49064, 49091–92 (July 29, 2002); see also Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act, Public Law 107–155, sec. 402, 116 Stat. 81, 112–13 (2002). Since the deadline for the disbursement of these funds has long passed, this section is no longer necessary. Therefore, the Commission is removing and reserving this section. The Commission is also making conforming amendments by removing from § 300.1 two references to § 300.12.

G. Correction to 11 CFR 300.13

For the reasons discussed above regarding the removal of § 300.12, the Commission is also removing paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 300.13. Paragraph (b) directs national party committees to file termination reports disclosing the disposition of funds in non-federal accounts and building fund accounts by January 31, 2003. Paragraph (c) refers to reporting requirements for receipts and disbursements from national party committee non-federal accounts and building fund accounts for activity occurring between November 6 and December 31, 2002.
