

annual implementation or replacement costs began, the State and local agencies are estimated to have nationwide start-up implementation costs of $29.4 million to develop maintenance methods and purchase measurement equipment. Finally, the compliance dates to replace markings that do not meet the minimum retroreflectivity have been eliminated. Although agencies will still need to replace these markings, their schedules would be based on their method for maintaining retroreflectivity as well as their resources and relative priorities. Therefore, this proposed rule would not result in the expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $151 million or more in any one year. In addition, pavement marking replacement is eligible for up to 100 percent Federal-aid funding. This applies to local jurisdictions and tribal governments, pursuant to 23 U.S.C. 120(c). Further, the definition of "Federal Mandate" in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act excludes financial assistance of the type in which State, local, or tribal governments have authority to adjust their participation in the program in accordance with changes made in the program by the Federal Government. The Federal-aid highway program permits this type of flexibility.

Executive Order 13175 (Tribal Consultation)

The FHWA has analyzed this proposed action under Executive Order 13175, dated November 6, 2000, and believes that it would not have substantial direct effects on one or more Indian tribes, would not impose substantial direct compliance costs on Indian tribal governments, and would not preempt tribal law. Therefore, a tribal summary impact statement is not required.

Executive Order 13211 (Energy Effects)

The FHWA has analyzed this proposed action under Executive Order 13211, Actions Concerning Regulations That Significantly Affect Energy Supply, Distribution, or Use. The FHWA has determined that this is not a significant energy action under that order because it is not likely to have a significant adverse effect on the supply, distribution, or use of energy. Therefore, a Statement of Energy Effects under Executive Order 13211 is not required.

Changes to Certain Alcohol-Related Regulations Governing Bond Requirements and Tax Return Filing Periods

AGENCY: Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking; cross-reference to temporary rule.

SUMMARY: In a temporary rule published elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register, the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) is amending its regulations relating to excise taxes imposed on distilled spirits, wines, and beer to implement certain changes made to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (IRC) by the Protecting Americans from Tax Hikes Act of 2015 (PATH Act). The temporary rule implements section 332 of the PATH Act, which amends the IRC to remove bond requirements and change tax return due dates for certain eligible excise taxpayers. In this document, TTB proposes to adopt the regulations in the temporary rule as a permanent regulatory change. The text of the regulations in the temporary rule serves as the text of the proposed regulations. This document also proposes to amend the regulations governing the submission of reports by certain eligible excise taxpayers. In this document, TTB is soliciting comments on the amendments adopted in the temporary rule and the amendments proposed in this notice of proposed rulemaking.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before March 6, 2017.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

TTB Authority

The Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) administers provisions in chapter 51 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (IRC), pertaining to the taxation of distilled spirits, wines, and beer (see title 26 of the United States Code (U.S.C.), chapter 51 (26 U.S.C. chapter 51)). TTB also regulates distilled spirits, wines, and malt beverages pursuant to the Federal Alcohol Administration Act (FAA Act). TTB administers the provisions of the IRC and FAA Act, and their implementing regulations, pursuant to section 1111(d) of the Homeland Security Act of 2002, codified at 6 U.S.C. 531(d). The Secretary has delegated various authorities through Treasury Department Order 120-01, dated December 10, 2013 (superseding Treasury Department Order 120-01, dated January 24, 2003), to the TTB Administrator to perform the functions and duties in administration and enforcement of these laws.

Sections 5001, 5041, and 5051 of the IRC (26 U.S.C. 5001, 5041, and 5051) impose tax on distilled spirits, wines, and beer produced in or imported into the United States. Generally, taxes are determined (i.e., become due for payment) when they are removed from qualified facilities in the United States or imported as provided in sections 5006, 5043, and 5054 of the IRC (26 U.S.C. 5006, 5043, and 5054). Section 5061 of the IRC (26 U.S.C. 5061) governs the collection of tax due on distilled spirits, wines, and beer, including the time periods and due dates for paying such taxes by return. Under some circumstances, the IRC authorizes the removal of distilled spirits, wines, and beer from facilities in the United States without paying the excise taxes imposed on such products. For example, the IRC does not require payment of tax for certain transfers between qualified facilities in the United States as provided in sections 5212, 5362(b), and 5414 of the IRC (26 U.S.C. 5212, 5362(b), and 5414).

The PATH Act and the Temporary Rule

On December 18, 2015, the President signed into law the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2016 (Public Law 114-113). Division Q of this Act is titled the Protecting Americans from Tax Hikes Act of 2015 (PATH Act). Section 332 of the PATH Act amends the IRC to change tax return due dates and remove bond requirements for certain eligible taxpayers who pay excise taxes on distilled spirits, wines, and beer.

With respect to tax return due dates, section 332 amends section 5061(d) of the IRC to authorize a new annual return period for deferred payment of excise tax, in addition to the preexisting quarterly and semimonthly deferred payment periods authorized under that section. Deferred payment of tax refers to payment using one of these three return periods prescribed under the IRC rather than payment immediately each time the tax becomes due. As described above, taxes on distilled spirits, wines, and beer generally become due when the products are removed from qualified facilities in the United States or imported into the United States. To be eligible to use the annual or quarterly return periods, the taxpayer must reasonably expect to be liable for not more than $1,000 in excise taxes, in the case of annual returns, or $50,000 in excise taxes, in the case of quarterly returns, for the calendar year and must have been liable for not more than these respective quantities in the preceding calendar year. Since these $1,000 and $50,000 ceilings are based on liability for payment of taxes by return under section 5061 of the IRC, they do not include liability for taxes imposed but not necessarily due, such as liability associated with taxes imposed on distilled spirits, wines, and beer produced in or imported into the United States that have not been removed from qualified facilities on payment or determination of tax.

Section 332 of the PATH Act also amends several provisions of the IRC to remove bond requirements for certain taxpayers who are eligible to pay taxes on distilled spirits, wines, and beer using quarterly or annual return periods and who pay taxes on a deferred basis. Under section 332, these taxpayers are exempt from bond requirements with respect to distilled spirits and wine only to the extent those products are for nonindustrial use. The amended provisions relating to this bond exemption are sections 5173, 5351, 5401, and 5551 of the IRC.

In a temporary rule published elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register, TTB is amending the regulations in chapter I of title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations (27 CFR) to implement section 332 of the PATH Act and to make several technical amendments to update certain bond-related provisions. The temporary rule amends regulations in 27 CFR parts 18, 19, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, and 30. These amendments include incorporating the new annual return period into the regulations, clarifying the circumstances under which taxpayers are eligible for the bond exemption, and adding new provisions governing qualification and loss of eligibility for the bond exemption. The preamble of the temporary rule explains the proposed regulations in more detail, and this notice solicits comments on the amendments adopted in the temporary rule. The text of the regulations in the temporary rule serves as the text of the proposed regulations for purposes of this document.

Proposed Amendments to Reporting Requirements

In this document, TTB is also proposing to amend the regulations governing reporting requirements for distilled spirits plants (DSPs) and brewers in order to reduce unnecessary regulatory burden on some industry members who pay taxes using annual or quarterly return periods. TTB is also soliciting comments on whether to amend current reporting requirements for bonded wine cellars (including bonded wineries). These reporting provisions help protect the revenue by requiring regulated parties to submit information to TTB relating to their operations that are subject to regulation under the IRC. This section discusses current reporting requirements for these industry members and the proposed regulatory amendments.

Current Reporting Requirements

The regulations in 27 CFR parts 19, 24, and 25 govern the operations of DSPs, bonded wine cellars, and breweries in the United States. Under 27 CFR 19.632, DSP proprietors must submit to TTB certain monthly reports of operations. These reports are TTB Form 5110.40 (Monthly Report of Production Operations), TTB Form 5110.11 (Monthly Report of Storage Operations), TTB Form 5110.28 (Monthly Report of Processing Operations), and TTB Form 5110.43 (Monthly Report of Processing (Denaturing) Operations). Under the current regulations, DSPs may not file required reports less frequently than monthly.

Under 27 CFR 24.300(g), bonded wine cellars must generally file reports on a monthly basis using TTB Form 5120.17 (Report of Wine Premises Operations), but they may file reports quarterly or annually if they meet the criteria to do so. To be eligible to file reports on a quarterly basis, the proprietor must be filing quarterly tax returns, and the proprietor must not expect the sum of the bulk and bottled wine to be accounted for in all tax classes to exceed 60,000 gallons for any one quarter during the calendar year when adding up certain wine on the proprietor's premises. The wine that must be taken into account for this purpose is wine on hand at the beginning of the month, bulk wine produced by fermentation, sweetening, blending, amelioration or addition of wine spirits, bulk wine bottled, bulk and bottled wine received in bond, taxpaid wine returned to bond, bottled wine dumped to bulk, inventory gains, and any activity written in the untitled lines of the report which increases the amount of wine to be accounted for. The wines that must be taken into account for this purpose are wines on which taxes are imposed but not necessarily due, since the wines are not reported as withdrawn on payment or determination of tax. To be eligible to file reports on an annual basis, the proprietor must be filing annual tax returns, and the proprietor must not expect the sum of the bulk and bottled wine to be accounted for in all tax classes to exceed 20,000 gallons for any one month during the calendar year when adding up certain wine on the proprietor's premises. The wine that must be taken into account for this purpose is the same as the wine that must be taken into account for purposes of determining eligibility for quarterly reporting.

Under 27 CFR 25.297, each brewer must file a monthly report using TTB Form 5130.9 (Brewer's Report of Operations), unless the brewer is required to file reports on a quarterly basis. A brewer must file quarterly reports using TTB Form 5130.26 (Quarterly Brewer's Report of Operations) or TTB Form 5130.9 if the brewer was liable for not more than $50,000 in taxes with respect to beer in the preceding calendar year and reasonably expects to be liable for not more than $50,000 in such taxes during the current calendar year. As referenced above, a brewer who meets these $50,000 ceilings is eligible to pay taxes quarterly under section 5061 of the IRC. Since these $50,000 ceilings are based on liability for payment of taxes by return under section 5061 of the IRC, they do not include liability for taxes imposed but not necessarily due.

Proposed Amendments and Solicitation of Comments

TTB is proposing to amend the reporting regulations applicable to DSPs and brewers, and TTB is soliciting comments on whether to amend the reporting regulations for bonded wine cellars. TTB proposes to amend the regulations to authorize new quarterly and annual reporting periods for certain DSPs, to authorize a new annual reporting period for certain brewers, and to change the existing quarterly reporting requirements for brewers. As discussed further below, the proposed criteria for quarterly and annual reporting by DSPs and brewers are modeled in part on the current criteria for quarterly and annual reporting by bonded wine cellars, with some modifications. TTB is soliciting comment on whether these modified criteria should be adopted for DSPs and brewers. TTB is also requesting comment on whether it should instead adopt criteria for quarterly and annual reporting by DSPs and brewers that resemble the requirements used for such reporting by bonded wine cellars (i.e., by taking into account the sum of certain products listed on specific lines of proprietors' reports). In addition, TTB is soliciting comment on whether it should amend the current requirements for quarterly and annual reporting by bonded wine cellars so that the requirements are consistent with the proposed modified criteria for quarterly and annual reporting by DSPs and brewers.

Under the proposed amendments to §§ 19.632 and 25.297, DSPs and brewers must report monthly unless they are required to report quarterly or annually. Under the proposed amendments, DSPs and brewers must report quarterly for a calendar year if they file quarterly tax returns for that calendar year and if their liability for taxes on alcohol for which taxes have not been paid does not exceed $50,000 at any time during that calendar year. For purposes of the latter criterion, liability for taxes that have not been paid includes liability for taxes determined but not yet paid and liability for taxes imposed but not necessarily due for payment. Under the proposed amendments, DSPs and brewers must report annually if they file annual tax returns and if their liability for taxes on alcohol for which taxes have not been paid does not exceed $50,000 at any time during the calendar year. The purpose of these eligibility criteria is to reduce reporting burdens on taxpayers whose tax payments do not exceed the ceilings described above for paying taxes quarterly or annually and whose liability for taxes that have not been paid does not exceed $50,000. As discussed below, both types of liability are relevant for determining required reporting frequency for revenue protection purposes.

The proposed criteria for quarterly and annual reporting in amended §§ 19.632 and 25.297 are modeled in part on the current criteria for quarterly and annual reporting by bonded wine cellars, which are based on both the frequency with which the proprietor pays taxes by return and the proprietor's liability for alcohol on which taxes have not been paid. Both factors are relevant for determining required reporting frequency because they relate to the proprietor's overall tax liability under the IRC. Generally, more frequent reporting is necessary for a proprietor who has greater tax liability because TTB needs more detailed information regarding the proprietor's operations for revenue protection purposes. More frequent reporting is necessary for proprietors who use more frequent return periods for paying tax because such proprietors generally have greater liability for taxes due for payment. In addition, since a proprietor's liability for taxes imposed but not necessarily due also raises revenue risks, this type of tax liability must also be taken into account for determining appropriate reporting frequency.

With respect to return periods, TTB believes it is appropriate to require that DSPs and brewers pay taxes on an annual or quarterly basis to be eligible to report on an annual or quarterly basis, respectively. This requirement under proposed §§ 19.632 and 25.297 is consistent with current reporting requirements for bonded wine cellars under § 24.300(g). With respect to liability for taxes imposed but not necessarily due, TTB has determined that the proposed $50,000 maximum discussed above for DSPs and brewers reporting quarterly and annually is necessary for revenue protection purposes. The $50,000 limit ensures that DSPs and brewers reporting quarterly or annually who pay excise taxes using quarterly or annual return periods do not engage in operations that involve significant tax liability for which the IRC does not require payment of tax, such as certain transfers of alcohol between qualified facilities in the United States (see sections 5212, 5362(b), and 5414 of the IRC). Since DSPs and brewers who report quarterly or annually meet the tax payment ceilings for the use of quarterly or annual return periods, TTB has determined that this $50,000 limit on taxes imposed but not necessarily due is appropriate for both quarterly and annual reporters. Quarterly and annual reporters will be subject to different tax payment ceilings based on the tax return period they use, and the $50,000 limit is simply intended to ensure that neither category of reporters engages in operations that involve significant tax liability for which the IRC does not require payment of tax.

The $50,000 maximum for DSPs and brewers under proposed §§ 19.632 and 25.297 is different from current quarterly and annual reporting requirements for bonded wine cellars. Under § 24.300(g), bonded wine cellars must not expect the sum of the bulk and bottled wine to be accounted for in all tax classes to exceed 60,000 gallons for any one quarter (in the case of quarterly reporting) or 20,000 gallons for any one month (in the case of annual reporting) when adding up certain wine on the proprietor's premises as described above. Because section 5041 of the IRC imposes several different tax rates on wine, the tax liability associated with these quantities may or may not exceed $50,000, depending on the circumstances. TTB is soliciting comment on whether there are wine-specific reasons for retaining the 60,000-gallon and 20,000-gallon limits in the regulations and whether it would instead be appropriate for consistency purposes to amend § 24.300(g) to incorporate the same $50,000 maximum that TTB is proposing for DSPs and brewers under §§ 19.632 and 25.297.

Finally, TTB is also requesting comment on whether it should amend § 24.300(g) to require (rather than simply allow) the use of quarterly and annual reporting periods for bonded wine cellars who meet the criteria to use them. Under the current regulations, such proprietors may choose to submit reports monthly even though they are eligible to report less frequently. TTB believes that requiring less frequent reporting for eligible proprietors would reduce reporting burdens on proprietors and would reduce report processing burdens on TTB. TTB is therefore soliciting comment on whether there are wine-specific reasons for continuing to allow the voluntary use of quarterly or annual reporting periods for bonded wine cellars that are eligible to use them.

TTB requests comments from interested members of the public on the regulations adopted in the temporary rule and the additional regulatory amendments proposed in this document. In addition, TTB is requesting comments whether it should amend the current requirements for quarterly and annual reporting by bonded wine cellars so that the requirements are consistent with the criteria proposed in this document for quarterly and annual reporting by DSPs and brewers.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

TTB certifies that this proposed regulation, if adopted, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The proposed amendments would reduce reporting requirements for certain proprietors described in this document. The proposed rule, if adopted, will not impose, or otherwise cause, a significant increase in reporting, recordkeeping, or other compliance burdens on a substantial number of small entities. Accordingly, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required. Pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 7805(f), TTB will submit the proposed regulations to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on the impact of the proposed regulations on small businesses.

Executive Order 12866

Certain TTB regulations issued under the IRC, including this one, are exempt from the requirements of Executive Order 12866, as supplemented and reaffirmed by Executive Order 13563. Therefore, a regulatory impact assessment is not required.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The six collections of information associated with the proposed regulatory requirements discussed in this notice of proposed rulemaking (including the regulatory requirements relating to wine reporting on which TTB is seeking comment) have been previously reviewed and approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3507(d)) and assigned control numbers 1513-0007, 1513-0039, 1513-0041, 1513-0047, 1513-0049, and 1513-0053. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid control number assigned by OMB.

The proposed regulatory text in 27 CFR 19.632 contains alterations to the information collections currently approved under OMB control numbers 1513-0039, 1513-0041, 1513-0047, and 1513-0049. These control numbers cover, respectively, TTB Forms 5110.11, 5110.28, 5110.40, and 5110.43. If adopted, these revisions would provide for less frequent reporting by certain DSPs. Under the current regulations, DSPs must submit required reports on a monthly basis. Under the proposed regulatory amendments, a DSP would report quarterly if they file quarterly tax returns and would report annually if they file annual tax returns as long as, in either case, the DSP's liability for taxes on distilled spirits for which taxes have not been paid does not exceed $50,000 at any time during the calendar year. Taking into account the proposed regulatory amendments, TTB estimates the burden associated with these information collections as follows:

- Estimated number of respondents: 684 reporting monthly; 651 reporting quarterly; 424 reporting annually.
- Estimated annual frequency of responses: 12 for monthly reporting; 4 for quarterly reporting; 1 for annual reporting.
- Estimated average annual total burden hours: 11,236.

1513-0041

- Estimated number of respondents: 634 reporting monthly; 603 reporting quarterly; 392 reporting annually.
- Estimated annual frequency of responses: 12 for monthly reporting; 4 for quarterly reporting; 1 for annual reporting.
- Estimated average annual total burden hours: 20,824.

1513-0047

- Estimated number of respondents: 571 reporting monthly; 544 reporting quarterly; 354 reporting annually.
- Estimated annual frequency of responses: 12 for monthly reporting; 4 for quarterly reporting; 1 for annual reporting.
- Estimated average annual total burden hours: 18,764.

1513-0049

- Estimated number of respondents: 184 reporting monthly; 175 reporting quarterly; 114 reporting annually.
- Estimated annual frequency of responses: 12 for monthly reporting; 4 for quarterly reporting; 1 for annual reporting.
- Estimated average annual total burden hours: 3,022.

The proposed regulatory text in 27 CFR 25.297 contains alterations to the information collection currently approved under OMB control number 1513-0007. This control number covers TTB Forms 5130.9 and 5130.26. If adopted, these revisions would provide for less frequent reporting by certain brewers who file annual tax returns and would continue to authorize quarterly reporting by certain brewers who file quarterly tax returns. In the case of a brewer who reports quarterly or annually, the brewer's liability for taxes on beer for which taxes have not been paid must not exceed $50,000 at any time during the calendar year. Taking into account the proposed regulatory amendments, TTB estimates the burden associated with this information collection as follows:

- Estimated number of respondents: 1,344 reporting monthly; 2,998 reporting quarterly; 1,956 reporting annually.
- Estimated annual frequency of responses: 12 for monthly reporting; 4 for quarterly reporting; 1 for annual reporting.
- Estimated average annual total burden hours: 22,557.

Finally, TTB is requesting comments on whether to amend § 24.300(g) so that the reporting requirements for bonded wine cellars on TTB Form 5120.17 are consistent with the proposed reporting requirements for DSPs and brewers. The reporting requirements in § 24.300(g) are covered under OMB control number 1513-0053. Similar to the proposed amendments for DSPs and brewers, the current reporting provisions for bonded wine cellars require that the proprietor file tax returns quarterly or annually to be eligible for quarterly or annual reporting, respectively. In addition, the proprietor must not expect the sum of the bulk and bottled wine to be accounted for in all tax classes to exceed 60,000 gallons for any one quarter (in the case of quarterly reporting) or 20,000 gallons for any one month (in the case of annual reporting) when adding up certain wine on the proprietor's premises. TTB is soliciting comment on whether to adopt the proposed $50,000 limit described above for DSPs and brewers in lieu of the 20,000-gallon and 60,000-gallon limits in the current regulations. TTB does not estimate that this change, if adopted, would result in changes in reporting burden for proprietors. We are, however, reporting an increase in the number of respondents to this collection to reflect the current number of proprietors who file the form. TTB estimates the burden associated with this information collection as follows:

- Estimated number of respondents: 2,316 reporting monthly; 4,733 reporting quarterly; 4,467 reporting annually.
- Estimated annual frequency of responses: 12 for monthly reporting; 4 for quarterly reporting; 1 for annual reporting.
- Estimated average annual total burden hours: 56,310.

Revisions of these six currently approved collections have been submitted to OMB for review. Comments on the revisions should be sent to OMB at Office of Management and Budget, Attention: Desk Officer for the Department of the Treasury, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Washington, DC 20503 or by email to OIRA_submissions@omb.eop.gov. A copy should also be sent to TTB by any of the methods previously described. Comments on the information collections should be submitted no later than March 6, 2017. Comments are specifically requested concerning:

- Whether the proposed revisions of the collections of information are necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- The accuracy of the estimated burdens associated with the proposed revisions of the collections of information;

- How to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;
- How to minimize the burden of complying with the proposed revision of the collection of information, including the application of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology; and
- Estimates of capital or start-up costs and costs of operation, maintenance, and purchase of services to provide information.

33 CFR Part 117

[Docket No. USCG–2016–0561]

RIN 1625–AA09

Drawbridge Operation Regulation; Upper Mississippi River, IA

AGENCY: Coast Guard, DHS.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The Coast Guard proposes to change the operating schedule that governs the draws of all bridges between Lock and Dam No. 14, mile 493.3, and Lock and Dam No. 10, mile 615.1, on the Upper Mississippi River by adding a 24-hour notice requirement for openings during the winter season. This proposed rule would allow the drawbridges to remain in the closed-to-navigation position for extended periods allowing the owners of the drawbridges to perform preventive maintenance that is essential to the safe operation of the drawbridges. This proposed rule would allow for flexibility in beginning these special operating schedules each year based on the arrival of winter weather.

DATES: Comments and related material must reach the Coast Guard on or before March 6, 2017.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments identified by docket number USCG–2016–0561 using Federal eRulemaking Portal at <http://www.regulations.gov>.

II. Background, Purpose and Legal Basis

For 7 years the Coast Guard has issued temporary deviations requiring 24 hours advance notice to open for the three drawbridges between Lock and Dam No. 14, mile 493.3, and Lock and Dam No. 10, mile 615.1, on the Upper Mississippi River. The temporary deviations allowed the bridge owners to perform preventive maintenance during the winter season when there is less impact on navigation. Most recently, the temporary deviations for 2015 were published in the Federal Register in December, 2015 as follows: “Drawbridge Operation Regulation; Upper Mississippi River, Clinton, IA” and “Drawbridge Operation Regulation; Upper Mississippi River, Dubuque, IA” both published on December 4, 2015 (80 FR 75811); and “Drawbridge Operation Regulation; Upper Mississippi River,
