Huntington Alloys Corporation, Special Metals Division, a Subsidiary of Special Metals Corporation, Including On-Site Leased Workers From Kelly Services, Huntington, West Virginia; Huntington Alloys Corporation, Special Metals Division, a Subsidiary of Special Metals Corporation, Burnaugh, Kentucky; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on January 19, 2016, applicable to workers of Huntington Alloys Corporation, Special Metals Division, a subsidiary of Special Metals Corporation, including on-site leased workers from Kelly Services, Huntington, West Virginia (TA-W-86,089). The Department's notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on February 25, 2016 (81 FR 9510).

At the request of a state workforce office, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in activities related to the production of nickel based alloys in a variety of forms including but not limited to ingot, billet, bar, wire rod, tube, plate, and sheet products.

The company reports that workers from Huntington Alloys Corporation, Special Metals Division, a subsidiary of Special Metals Corporation, Burnaugh, Kentucky are engaged in activities related to the production of nickel based alloys in a variety of forms including but not limited to ingot, billet, bar, wire rod, tube, plate, and sheet products.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by increased imports of nickel based alloys in a variety of forms including but not limited to ingot, billet, bar, wire rod, tube, plate, and sheet products.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers from Huntington Alloys Corporation, Special Metals Division, a subsidiary of Special Metals Corporation, Burnaugh, Kentucky.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-86,089 and TA-W-86,089A is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Huntington Alloys Corporation, Special Metals Division, a subsidiary of Special Metals Corporation, including on-site leased workers from Kelly Services, Huntington, West Virginia (TA-W-86,089) and Huntington Alloys Corporation, Special Metals Division, a subsidiary of Special Metals Corporation, Burnaugh, Kentucky (TA-W-86,089A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 10, 2014, through January 19, 2018, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 15th day of December, 2016.

Hope D. Kinglock,

Certifying Officer, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOREmployment and Training
Administration*Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers by (TA-W) number issued during the period of December 19, 2016 through December 30, 2016.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Under Section 222(a)(2)(A), the following must be satisfied:

(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) the sales or production, or both, of such firm have decreased absolutely; and

(3) One of the following must be satisfied:

(A) Imports of articles or services like or directly competitive with articles produced or services supplied by such firm have increased;

(B) imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles into which one or more component parts produced by such firm are directly incorporated, have increased;

(C) imports of articles directly incorporating one or more component parts produced outside the United States that are like or directly competitive with imports of articles incorporating one or more component parts produced by such firm have increased;

(D) imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced directly using services supplied by such firm, have increased; and

(4) the increase in imports contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in the sales or production of such firm; or

II. Section 222(a)(2)(B) all of the following must be satisfied:

(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) One of the following must be satisfied:

(A) There has been a shift by the workers' firm to a foreign country in the production of articles or supply of services like or directly competitive with those produced/supplied by the workers' firm;

(B) there has been an acquisition from a foreign country by the workers' firm of articles/services that are like or directly competitive with those produced/supplied by the workers' firm; and

(3) the shift/acquisition contributed importantly to the workers' separation or threat of separation.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for adversely affected secondary workers of a firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(b) of the Act must be met.

(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) the workers' firm is a Supplier or Downstream Producer to a firm that employed a group of workers who received a certification of eligibility under Section 222(a) of the Act, and such supply or production is related to the article or service that was the basis for such certification; and

(3) either—
