

subgroup of products referred to as "covered tobacco products."

FDA is providing a 3-month extension that applies to effective dates and compliance deadlines for requirements under the final rule set for May 10, 2017, or later and to all categories of the newly regulated products, as well as the addictiveness warning requirement for RYO and cigarette tobacco.

The guidance represents the current thinking of the FDA on this topic. It does not establish any rights for any person and is not binding on FDA or the public. You can use an alternative approach if it satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations.
