Certain Oil Country Tubular Goods From Taiwan: Notice of Court Decision Not in Harmony With Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value, Notice of Amended Final Determination and Revocation of Antidumping Duty Order

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On July 12, 2017, the United States Court of International Trade (CIT) entered its final judgment sustaining the final results of remand redetermination pursuant to court order by the Department of Commerce (Department) pertaining to the less-than-fair-value (LTFV) investigation of certain oil country tubular goods (OCTG) from Taiwan. The Department is notifying the public that the final judgment in this case is not in harmony with the Department's final determination in the LTFV investigation of OCTG from Taiwan. Pursuant to the CIT's final judgment, both mandatory respondents in the LTFV investigation of OCTG from Taiwan have received weighted-average dumping margins of zero and, therefore, the Department is hereby revoking this order.

DATES: Applicable July 22, 2017.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Hermes Pinilla, AD/CVD Operations, Office I, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-3477.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On August 8, 2014, the Department published the LTFV Final in this proceeding.¹ The Department reached an affirmative determination that certain OCTG was being, or likely to be, sold at less than fair value, for mandatory respondent, Tension Steel Industries Co., Ltd. (Tension Steel). Tension Steel appealed the LTFV Final to the CIT, and on May 16, 2016, the CIT remanded the final determination.² Specifically, the CIT remanded the LTFV Final directing the Department to grant all of Tension Steel's claimed rebate adjustments, including where the conditions of the rebate were unknown to the customer at the time of sale.³

On July 15, 2016, the Department issued its final results of redetermination pursuant to remand in accordance with the CIT's order.⁴ On remand, the Department, under respectful protest,⁵ granted all of Tension Steel's reported rebates and recalculated the margin for Tension Steel accordingly. On July 12, 2017, the CIT sustained the Department's Remand Order.⁶ Thus, the effective date of this notice is July 22, 2017.

Timken Notice

In its decision in Timken,⁷ as clarified by Diamond Sawblades,⁸ the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (Federal Circuit) held that, pursuant to section 516A of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), the Department must publish a notice of court decision that is not "in harmony" with a Department determination and must suspend liquidation of entries pending a "conclusive" court decision.⁹ The CIT's July 12, 2017, judgment constitutes a final decision of that court that is not in harmony with the Department's original affirmative determination in the LTFV Final. Thus, this notice is published in fulfillment of the publication requirements of Timken and section 516A of the Act.

Accordingly, the Department intends to issue instructions to U.S. Customs and Border Protection to suspend liquidation of all unliquidated entries of subject merchandise from Taiwan which are entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after July 22, 2017, which is ten days after the court's decision in accordance with section 516A of the Act. The company-specific cash deposit rate will be zero percent. Pursuant to Timken, Diamond Sawblades, and Hosiden Corporation v. United States, 861 F. Supp. 115 (Fed. Cir. 1994), the suspension of liquidation on all entries of OCTG from Taiwan entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after July 22, 2017, that remain unliquidated, will be suspended during the pendency of the appeals process so that they may be liquidated in accordance with a "final and conclusive" court decision.

Amended Final Determination

Because there is now a final court decision, the Department is amending the LTFV Final with respect to Tension Steel. The revised weighted-average dumping margin for Tension Steel for the period July 1, 2012, through June 30, 2013, is as follows:

Exporter or producer	Weighted-average dumping margin (percent)
Tension Steel Industries Co., Ltd	0.00

⁷ See Timken Co. v. United States, 893 F.2d. 337 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (Timken).

⁸ See Diamond Sawblades Mfrs. Coalition v. United States, 626 F.3d. 1374 (Fed. Cir. 2010) (Diamond Sawblades).

⁹ See Sections 516A(c) and (e) of the Act.

Revocation of the Order

Pursuant to section 735(c)(2) of the Act, “the investigation shall be terminated upon publication of that negative determination” and the Department shall “terminate the suspension of liquidation” and “release any bond or other security and refund any cash deposit.”¹⁰ As a result of this amended final determination, the Department is hereby revoking the antidumping duty order and releasing any bonds or other security and refunding cash deposits with respect to Tension Steel.

Pursuant to the Federal Circuit’s decision in *Diamond Sawblades*¹¹ and the CIT’s decision affirming the Department’s remand redetermination, the Department is revoking the antidumping duty order on OCTG from Taiwan because the revised weighted-average dumping margin for Tension Steel is now zero, and because the Department also calculated a zero margin for the only other mandatory respondent in the underlying investigation. As a result of this revocation, the Department will not initiate any new administrative reviews of this antidumping duty Order.¹²

Although section 735(c)(2)(A) of the Act instructs the Department to terminate suspension of liquidation, here, because suspension of liquidation must continue during the pendency of the appeals process (in accordance with Timken and as discussed above), we will continue to instruct CBP at this time to (A) continue suspension at a cash deposit rate of zero percent until instructed otherwise; and (B) release any bond or other security, and refund any cash deposit made pursuant to OCTG From Taiwan: Antidumping Duty Order.¹³ In the event that the court’s ruling in the Final Remand Order is not appealed, or appealed and upheld by the CAFC, the Department will instruct CBP to terminate the suspension of ¹¹ See Diamond Sawblades Mfrs. Coalition v. United States, 626 F.3d 1374 (Fed. Cir. 2010) (Diamond Sawblades).

¹² Currently there are no unfinished or ongoing administrative reviews of this order. Further, we rescinded the 2015/2016 administrative review on March 1, 2017, and this was the last administrative review completed in this proceeding. liquidation and to liquidate those entries of subject merchandise without regard to antidumping duties. Notwithstanding the continued suspension described above, the antidumping duty order on OCTG from Taiwan is hereby revoked, also described above.

This notice is issued and published in accordance with sections 516A(e)(1), 751(a)(1) and 777(i)(1) of the Act.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

In the Final Determination, the Department determined that GVN Fuels Limited, Maharashtra Seamless Limited, and Jindal Pipes Limited are affiliated, pursuant to section 771(33)(F) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act), and should be collapsed and treated as a single entity, pursuant to 19 CFR 351.401(f).¹

On March 16, 2017, the United States Court of International Trade (CIT) entered final judgment sustaining the final results of remand redetermination pursuant to court order by the Department of Commerce (Department) pertaining to the less-than-fair-value investigation of certain oil country tubular goods (OCTG) from India.² On April 12, 2017, the Department published the Amended Final Determination on OCTG from India.³ On June 20, 2017, the Department published the Amended Order.⁴ In both the Amended Final Determination and Amended Order, the Department inadvertently omitted a statement to explain that, consistent with the Final Determination,⁵ GVN Fuels Limited, Maharashtra Seamless Limited, and Jindal Pipes Limited should be treated as a single entity.

Correction

We are correcting the Amended Final Determination and Amended Order to clarify that GVN Fuels Limited, Maharashtra Seamless Limited, and Jindal Pipes Limited should be treated as a single entity (collectively, GVN or the GVN single entity). The sections of the Amended Final Determination and Amended Order explaining the suspension of liquidation and listing the weighted-average antidumping duty margins and cash deposit rates should have appeared as provided below.
