INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 731–TA–663 (Fourth Review)]

Paper Clips From China

Determination

On the basis of the record developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission (“Commission”) determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 (“the Act”), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on paper clips from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)), instituted this review on June 1, 2016 (81 FR 35052) and determined on September 6, 2016 that it would conduct a full review (82 FR 13132, March 9, 2017). Notice of the scheduling of the Commission’s review and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on March 9, 2017 (82 FR 13132). The hearing was cancelled on June 8, 2017 at the request of the domestic interested parties (82 FR 27285, June 14, 2017).

The Commission made this determination pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)). It completed and filed its determination in this review on August 24, 2017. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 4719 (August 2017), entitled Paper Clips from China: Investigation No. 731–TA–663 (Fourth Review).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: August 24, 2017.

Katherine M. Hiner,
Supervisory Attorney.

The DOL notes that the information collection is subject to the PRA. A Federal agency generally cannot conduct or sponsor a collection of information, and the public is generally not required to respond to an information collection, unless it is approved by the OMB under the PRA and displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

OMB authorization for an ICR cannot be for more than three (3) years without renewal, and the current approval for this collection is scheduled to expire on August 31, 2017. The DOL seeks to extend PRA authorization for this information collection for three (3) more years, without any change to existing requirements. The DOL notes that existing information collection requirements submitted to the OMB receive a month-to-month extension while they undergo review. For additional substantive information about this ICR, see the related notice published in the Federal Register on April 13, 2017 (82 FR 17883).

Interested parties are encouraged to send comments to the OMB, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs at the address shown in the ADDRESSES section within thirty (30) days of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. In order to help ensure appropriate consideration, comments should mention OMB Control Number 1240–0029. The OMB is particularly interested in comments that:

1. Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the
