SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA) (44 U.S.C. 3501–3520), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for each collection of information they conduct or sponsor. In addition, the PRA also requires Federal agencies to provide a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each new proposed collection, each proposed extension of existing collection of information, and each reinstatement of previously approved information collection before submitting the collection to the OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, we are publishing this notice of a proposed data collection as described below.

The OMB is particularly interested in comments that will help:

1. Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
  2. Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
  3. Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
  4. Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.
5. Assess information collection costs.

Proposed Project

Contact Investigation Outcome Reporting Forms (OMB Control Number 0920–0900, Expiration 6/30/2018)—Revision—National Center for Emerging and Zoonotic Infectious Diseases (NCEZID), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Background and Brief Description

This is a request for revision to a currently approved information collection, OMB Control Number 0920–0900, Contact Investigation Outcome Reporting Forms. CDC requests a three-year approval for contact investigation outcome reporting information collection tools to continue the CDC routine contact investigation activities.

To understand which pieces of data are critical to understanding outcomes, CDC bases all revisions on reassessments of data from the past three years.

CDC proposes to collect passenger-level, epidemiologic, demographic, and health status data from state/local Health Departments and maritime Health Operators at the conclusion of contact investigations of individuals believed to have had exposure to a communicable disease during travel. The health departments or maritime operators would obtain the CDC requested information while conducting the contact investigation according to their established policies and procedures, and would report the information to CDC on a voluntary basis. This information will assist CDC in fulfilling its regulatory responsibility to prevent the importation of communicable diseases from foreign countries (42 CFR part 71) and interstate control of communicable diseases in humans (42 CFR part 70).

CDC provides state and local health departments and maritime conveyance operators with information to notify and contact individuals and further investigate this exposure by contacting others with potential exposure to disease. However, there currently is no standardized tool or form to collect pertinent information regarding the outcome of such investigations.

To address the need to inform CDC of additional actions that may be needed to further protect public health based on the outcome of the contact investigations, CDC has developed forms to assist health departments and maritime conveyance operators in reporting to CDC. The forms are specific to the nature of the investigation: Tuberculosis (TB), Measles, Rubella, or the General form for other diseases of public health concern. The purpose of the forms is the same: To collect information to help CDC quarantine officials fully understand the extent of disease spread and transmission during travel and to inform the development and/or refinement of investigative protocols aimed at reducing the spread of communicable disease.

Respondents are state and local health departments and maritime conveyance operators. Respondents may use these standardized forms to submit data voluntarily to CDC for each individual contacted via a secure means of their choice, e.g., web-based application, fax, or email.

In the past three years, CDC has used these forms to investigate TB cases on aircrafts and on cruise ships, as well as during measles cases that have occurred in the U.S. associated with travel.

The respondents are Cruise Ship Medical Staff/Cargo Ship Managers and State/local health department staff.

There is no cost to respondents other than their time to complete the form and submit the data to CDC.
