FEDERAL LABOR RELATIONS AUTHORITYPrivacy Act of 1974; Publication of Proposed Amendments to Six Existing Systems of Records; Introduction of a New System of Records; Rescindment of Eleven Systems of Records; Request for Comments

AGENCY: Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA).

ACTION: Notice of amendments to six existing systems of records; introduction of a new system of records; and rescindment of eleven systems of records.

SUMMARY: The Privacy Act of 1974 requires that each agency publish notice of all the systems of records that it maintains. This document proposes the amendment of six of the FLRA's existing systems of records, the introduction of a new system of records, and the rescindment of eleven systems of records that are no longer in use or that are covered by government-wide system of records notices. With the proposed addition and rescindment of systems, the FLRA will maintain seven systems of records. Additional details are provided under Supplementary Information, below.

DATES: This action will be effective without further notice on November 27, 2017 unless comments are received that would result in contrary determinations.

ADDRESSES: Mail or deliver comments to Gina K. Grippando, Counsel for Regulatory and Public Affairs, Federal Labor Relations Authority, 1400 K Street NW., Washington, DC 20424; or email EngageTheFLRA@flra.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Fred B. Jacob, Solicitor and Senior Agency Official for Privacy, Federal Labor Relations Authority, 1400 K Street NW., Washington, DC 20424; (202) 218-7999; fax: (202) 343-1007; or email solmail@flra.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, the FLRA hereby publishes notice of updates to its systems of records. See 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4). This document proposes the amendment of six systems of records, the introduction of a new system of records, and the rescindment of eleven systems of records, bringing the FLRA's total number of systems of records to seven. This notice first provides a summary of the six amended systems of records, the new system of records, and the eleven systems of records proposed for rescindment, and then provides the text of each of the amended and new systems of records.

1. In the first proposed amendment to a system of records, the FLRA proposes to amend FLRA/Internal-2-Appeal and Administrative Review Records by updating the system location and the organizational title and address of the system manager. The system is being updated further to reflect that information is maintained on electronic and paper media, and that electronic records are maintained in a password-protected automated system, with access limited to personnel whose duties require access. In addition, the system is being amended to reflect that burning is no longer a method of record disposal.

2. In the second proposed amendment to a system of records, the FLRA proposes to amend FLRA/Internal-3-Complaints and Inquiries Records by updating the system location and the organizational title and address of the system manager. The system is being updated further to reflect that information is maintained on electronic and paper media, and that electronic records are maintained in a password-protected automated system, with access limited to personnel whose duties require access. In addition, the system is being amended to reflect that burning is no longer a method of record disposal.

3. In the third proposed amendment to a system of records, the FLRA proposes to amend FLRA/Internal-6-Grievance Records by updating the system location and the organizational title and address of the system manager. The system is being updated further to reflect that information is maintained on electronic and paper media, and that electronic records are maintained in a password-protected automated system, with access limited to personnel whose duties require access. In addition, the system is being amended to: (1) Reflect that burning no longer is a method of
