

Under the PM<sub>2.5</sub> SIP Requirements Rule, Serious area PM<sub>2.5</sub> attainment plans must define appropriate quantitative milestones and include projected RFP emission levels for direct PM<sub>2.5</sub> and all PM<sub>2.5</sub> plan precursors in each milestone year. For an area designated nonattainment for the 2006 PM<sub>2.5</sub> NAAQS before January 15, 2015, the attainment plan must contain quantitative milestones to be achieved no later than 3 years after December 31, 2014, and every 3 years thereafter until the milestone date that falls within 3 years after the applicable attainment date (40 CFR 51.1013(a)(4)).<sup>3</sup> As the EPA explained in the preamble to the PM<sub>2.5</sub> SIP Requirements Rule, it is important to include a post-attainment year quantitative milestone to ensure that, if the area fails to attain by the attainment date, the EPA can continue to monitor the area's progress toward attainment while the state develops a new attainment plan (see 81 FR 58010, 58063–58064, August 24, 2016).

Consistent with the requirements of 40 CFR 51.1013(a)(4), the 2016 PM<sub>2.5</sub> Plan identifies December 31, 2017, as the first quantitative milestone date (i.e., the date 3 years after December 31, 2014). The second quantitative milestone date is December 31, 2020, and is also the last milestone date identified in the Plan because it falls within 3 years after the December 31, 2019 attainment date for the area.<sup>4</sup> Although this post-attainment year quantitative milestone is a required element of the Serious area plan, it is not necessary to demonstrate transportation conformity for 2020 in the submitted SIP or to use the 2020 budgets in transportation conformity determinations until such time as the area fails to attain the 2006 PM<sub>2.5</sub> NAAQS. Therefore, the EPA is not taking action at this time on the submitted MVEBs for 2020 in the 2016 PM<sub>2.5</sub> Plan. Additionally, the EPA has not yet started the adequacy process for the 2020 budgets.

If the EPA were to either find adequate or approve the post-attainment milestone year MVEBs now, those budgets would have to be used in transportation conformity determinations that are made after the effective date of the adequacy finding or approval even if the South Coast area ultimately attains the PM<sub>2.5</sub> NAAQS by the Serious area attainment date. This would mean that SCAG<sup>5</sup> would be required to demonstrate conformity for the post-attainment date milestone year and all later years addressed in the conformity determination (e.g., the last year of the metropolitan transportation plan) to the post-attainment date RFP budgets rather than the budgets associated with the attainment year for the area (i.e., the budgets for 2019). The EPA does not believe that it is necessary to demonstrate conformity using these post-attainment year budgets in areas that either the EPA anticipates will attain by the attainment date or in areas that attain by the attainment date. As discussed elsewhere in this notice, the EPA is announcing that it has found adequate the MVEBs for the first milestone year (2017) and the attainment year (2019) for the South Coast PM<sub>2.5</sub> nonattainment area.

If and when the EPA determines that the South Coast area has failed to attain the 2006 PM<sub>2.5</sub> NAAQS by the applicable attainment date, the EPA will begin the MVEB adequacy and approval processes for the post-attainment year (2020) budgets. If the EPA finds the 2020 budgets adequate or approves them, those budgets will have to be used in subsequent transportation conformity determinations. The EPA believes that initiating the process to act on the submitted post-attainment year MVEBs following a determination that the area has failed to attain by the Serious area attainment date ensures that transportation activities will not cause or contribute to new violations, increase the frequency or severity of any existing violations, or delay timely attainment or any required interim emission reductions or milestones in the South Coast PM<sub>2.5</sub> nonattainment area, consistent with the requirements of CAA section 176(c)(1)(B).

<sup>4</sup> Under CAA section 188(c)(2), a Serious PM<sub>2.5</sub> nonattainment area must attain the PM<sub>2.5</sub> NAAQS as expeditiously as practicable but no later than the end of the tenth calendar year after the area is designated as nonattainment. Because the South Coast area was designated as nonattainment for the 2006 PM<sub>2.5</sub> NAAQS effective December 14, 2009 (74 FR 58688, November 13, 2009), the latest permissible attainment date for the area is December 31, 2019.

Background on the CPSTF: The CPSTF is an independent, nonfederal panel whose members are appointed by the CDC Director. CPSTF members represent a broad range of research, practice, and policy expertise in prevention, wellness, health promotion, and public health. The CPSTF was convened in 1996 by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to identify community preventive programs, services, and policies that increase healthy longevity, save lives and dollars, and improve Americans' quality of life. CDC is mandated to provide ongoing administrative, research, and technical support for the operations of the CPSTF. During its meetings, the CPSTF considers the findings of systematic reviews on existing research and practice-based evidence and issues recommendations. CPSTF recommendations are not mandates for compliance or spending. Instead, they provide information about evidence-based options that decision makers and stakeholders can consider when they are determining what best meet the specific needs, preferences, available resources, and constraints of their jurisdictions and constituents. The CPSTF's recommendations, along with the systematic reviews of the evidence on which they are based, are compiled in the Guide to Community Preventive Services (The Community Guide).

Matters proposed for discussion:

Cancer Prevention and Control (Economics of Multicomponent Interventions to Improve Cancer Screening for Breast, Colorectal, and Cervical Cancer); Health Equity (proposal for housing interventions as a new topic area); Obesity Prevention and Control (Combined School-Based Interventions to Increase Healthier Food and Beverage Consumption and Physical Activity); Women's Health (Primary Prevention of Intimate Partner Violence and Sexual Violence Among Youth); and discussion of Community Guide economic methods.
