

National Institute of Dental and Craniofacial Research, National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, MD 20892, 301-594-4805, adombroski@nidcr.nih.gov.

In the interest of security, NIH has instituted stringent procedures for entrance onto the NIH campus. All visitor vehicles, including taxicabs, hotel, and airport shuttles will be inspected before being allowed on campus. Visitors will be asked to show one form of identification (for example, a government-issued photo ID, driver's license, or passport) and to state the purpose of their visit.

Information is also available on the Institute's/Center's home page: <http://www.nidcr.nih.gov/about>, where an agenda and any additional information for the meeting will be posted when available.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

Confidentiality of Substance Use Disorder Patient Records

AGENCY: Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notice of public meeting.

SUMMARY: The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) announces that it will hold a public listening session on Wednesday, January 31, 2018, to solicit information concerning the Confidentiality of Substance Use Disorder Patient Records regulations as required by Section 11002 of the 21st Century Cures Act. The listening session will provide an opportunity for the public to provide input to SAMHSA concerning the effect of part 2 on "patient care, health outcomes, and patient privacy" as well as potential regulatory changes and future subregulatory guidance.

DATES: The listening session will be held on Wednesday, January 31, 2018, from 8:30 a.m. (Eastern) to 1:00 p.m. (Eastern).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For information concerning the listening session, please contact Rachel Karton, Senior Legislative and Regulatory Analyst, SAMHSA, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857, (240) 276-0416 or email PrivacyRegulations@SAMHSA.hhs.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Participation: The Listening Session proceeding will be recorded, and subsequently archived and posted on the SAMHSA website. The public may attend the listening session:

- Via Teleconference/Webcast: The entire proceeding will be streamed live over the internet (requires prior registration). Audio and streaming information will be sent to those who register prior to the meeting. Capacity for the Teleconference/Webcast participation is limited so early registration is recommended.

- In Person: The address for this meeting is 5600 Fishers Lane, 5th (Main) Floor Pavilion rooms, Rockville, Maryland 20852. The building is a federal facility; prior registration, a security screening and a federally-approved identification (e.g., driver's license) are required to attend in-person. Capacity for in-person attendance is limited so early registration is recommended.

Registration: Registration is required for participation in the listening session in person or via Teleconference/Webcast. Registration is now open. Registration for the in-person session will close on 01/22/2018 at 12:00 p.m. Eastern Time (ET). Registration for the Teleconference/Webcast will close on 01/31/2018 at 8:30 a.m. ET. Persons registering should indicate if they wish to make a public comment. SAMHSA recommends that when commenters suggest changes or revisions to current regulations that they indicate specifically, when feasible, how such regulation text should be revised. Only one representative of an organization may be allowed to present oral comments. Presentations will be limited to three minutes per speaker. SAMHSA will try to accommodate all speakers who wish to present based on the time allotted for this meeting. Persons making oral presentations are encouraged to also submit written comments as discussed below.

To register, go to: <https://42-cfr-part2-listening-session.eventbrite.com>.

Special Assistance: Individuals who plan to attend and need special assistance, such as sign language interpretation or other reasonable accommodations, should notify Rachel Karton (contact information provided below) at least 10 days prior to the meeting.

Public Comments: In addition to attending the session in person or joining via Teleconference/Webcast, the Agency offers several ways to provide comments. SAMHSA recommends that when commenters suggest changes or revisions to current regulations that they indicate specifically, when feasible, how such regulation text should be revised. You may provide comments through the following means:

- Electronically: PrivacyRegulations@SAMHSA.hhs.gov (preferred).
- Regular, Express or Overnight Mail, or Hand Delivery or Courier: Written comments must be sent to the following address ONLY: Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), Department of Health and
