

to permit unfair discrimination between customers, issuers, brokers, or dealers.

The Exchange believes the proposed fee change is reasonable because it would help ensure that revenue collected from the ORF, in combination with other regulatory fees and fines, does not exceed the Exchange's total regulatory costs. Moreover, the Exchange believes the ORF ensures fairness by assessing higher fees to those TPHs that require more Exchange regulatory services based on the amount of customer options business they conduct. Regulating customer trading activity is much more labor intensive and requires greater expenditure of human and technical resources than regulating non-customer trading activity, which tends to be more automated and less labor-intensive. As a result, the costs associated with administering the customer component of the Exchange's overall regulatory program are materially higher than the costs associated with administering the non-customer component (e.g., TPH proprietary transactions) of its regulatory program.<sup>8</sup> The Exchange believes the proposed fee change is equitable and not unfairly discriminatory in that it is charged to all TPHs on all their transactions that clear in the customer range at the OCC.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

C2 Options does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, because it applies to all TPHs. The proposed ORF is comparable to fees charged by other options exchanges for the same or similar service. The Exchange believes any burden on competition imposed by the proposed rule change is outweighed by the need to help the Exchange adequately fund its regulatory activities to ensure compliance with the Exchange Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

The Exchange neither solicited nor received comments on the proposed rule change.

<sup>8</sup> If the Exchange changes its method of funding regulation or if circumstances otherwise change in the future, the Exchange may decide to modify the ORF or assess a separate regulatory fee on TPH proprietary transactions if the Exchange deems it advisable.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing of Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>9</sup> and paragraph (f) of Rule 19b-4<sup>10</sup> thereunder. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. If the Commission takes such action, the Commission will institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be approved or disapproved.

II. Clearing Agency's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, OCC included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. OCC has prepared summaries, set forth in sections (A), (B), and (C) below, of the most significant aspects of these statements.

(A) Clearing Agency's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

(1) Purpose

The purpose of this proposed rule change is to revise OCC's Schedule of Fees to introduce a cash management fee that would cover administrative and other operational expenses incurred by OCC in connection with maintaining cash deposits that are held in OCC's Federal Reserve bank account and passing-through to Clearing Members the interest earned on such deposits. The revised fee schedule would become effective on March 1, 2018.

By way of background, on January 12, 2018, Commission approved changes to

OCC's By-Laws and Rules that establish a new minimum cash contribution requirement for OCC's Clearing Fund and provide for the pass-through to OCC's Clearing Members of interest income earned on cash Clearing Fund deposits held in OCC's Federal Reserve bank account.<sup>6</sup> As approved, the minimum cash contribution requirement will require OCC's Clearing Members to collectively contribute $3 billion in cash to OCC's Clearing Fund, with each Clearing Member's proportionate share of the minimum cash requirement being equal in percentage to its proportionate share of the Clearing Fund.<sup>7</sup> In addition, OCC's Executive Chairman, Chief Administrative Officer, or Chief Operating Officer, upon providing notice to the Risk Committee of OCC's Board of Directors, will have the ability, under certain limited circumstances, to temporarily increase the amount of cash required to be maintained in the Clearing Fund up to an amount that includes the size of the Clearing Fund.<sup>8</sup>

In connection with the minimum cash Clearing Fund requirement, substantially all of OCC's Clearing Fund deposits consisting of cash will be held in OCC's Federal Reserve bank account.<sup>9</sup> OCC will pass the interest income earned in such account through to its Clearing Members, provided that each such Clearing Member has provided OCC with all tax documentation as OCC may from time to time require in order to effectuate such payment.<sup>10</sup> Interest earned will be calculated daily based on each Clearing Member's pro rata share of Clearing Fund cash deposits.<sup>11</sup> In maintaining these minimum cash balances in OCC's Federal Reserve bank account and facilitating the pass-through of interest earned on such balances, OCC will incur certain administrative and other operational expenses. These expenses will include the operation of the Federal Reserve bank account, certain systems enhancements needed to maintain minimum cash deposits and facilitate pass-through of interest earned, and staffing costs to operate the cash management and funding desk. In order to defray these expenses, OCC is proposing to implement a cash management fee.

The proposed cash management fee would be an annual rate equal to 5 basis points (0.05%), calculated on a 365-day calendar, and billed monthly on each Clearing Member's daily proportionate share of cash on deposit in OCC's Federal Reserve bank account.<sup>12</sup> This proposed change is designed to provide OCC with a level of revenue sufficient to cover OCC's administrative and operating expenses, as described above.

(2) Statutory Basis

Section 17A(b)(3)(D) of the Act requires that the rules of a clearing agency provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees, and other charges among its participants.<sup>13</sup> The proposed cash management fee would cover administrative and other operational expenses incurred by OCC in connection with passing through to Clearing Members the interest earned on Clearing Fund cash deposits that are held in an account established by OCC at a Federal Reserve bank. OCC believes the proposed fee change is reasonable because the new cash management fee would be set at a level intended to cover OCC's expenses associated with maintaining a minimum amount of Clearing Fund cash (which requirement is designed to satisfy certain liquidity requirements under Rule 17Ad-22(e)(7)) and with passing-through to Clearing Members the interest earned on such deposits held in OCC's Federal Reserve bank account. Moreover, OCC believes that the proposed fee change would result in an equitable allocation of fees among its participants because it is a fee that would be equally applicable to all similarly situated participants (i.e., Clearing Members). As a result, OCC believes that the proposed fee schedule provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable fees in accordance with Section 17A(b)(3)(D) of the Act.<sup>14</sup> The proposed rule change is not inconsistent with the existing rules of OCC, including any other rules proposed to be amended.

<sup>9</sup> See supra note 6. OCC retains discretion to maintain a small portion of Clearing Fund cash deposits in other accounts (e.g., accounts with commercial banks) for various reasons, including facilitating normal substitution activity by its Clearing Members.

<sup>10</sup> See supra note 6. Interest earned will be calculated daily based on each Clearing Member's pro rata share of Clearing Fund cash deposits.

<sup>12</sup> Accordingly, a Clearing Member can determine the monthly amount of its cash management fee by (1) dividing the annual interest rate by 365; (2) then multiplying the product by the Clearing Member's proportionate share of cash on deposit in OCC's Federal Reserve bank account for each calendar day in a given month; and (3) taking the sum of all of the products in step (2) for the given month.

(B) Clearing Agency's Statement on Burden on Competition

Section 17A(b)(3)(I) of the Act<sup>15</sup> requires that the rules of a clearing agency not impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. OCC does not believe that the proposed rule change would have any impact or impose a burden on competition. Although this proposed rule change affects Clearing Members, their customers, and the markets that OCC serves, OCC believes that the proposed rule change would not disadvantage or favor any particular user of OCC's services in relationship to another user because the proposed cash management fee would apply equally to all Clearing Members. Accordingly, OCC does not believe that the proposed rule change would have any impact or impose a burden on competition.

(C) Clearing Agency's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were not and are not intended to be solicited with respect to the proposed rule change and none have been received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act<sup>16</sup> and Rule 19b-4(f)(2)<sup>17</sup> thereunder. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.<sup>18</sup>
