DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

[Docket No. FR-7009-N-03]

HUD Supportive Services Demonstration/Integrated Wellness in Supportive Housing: Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Office of Policy Development and Research, HUD.

ACTION: Notice of a new system of records.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, notice is hereby given that the Office of Policy Development and Research (PD&R), U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), provides public notice regarding its System of Records for the HUD Supportive Services Demonstration (SSD)/Integrated Wellness in Supportive Housing (IWISH). The demonstration will test a model of housing and supportive services in HUD-assisted Multifamily housing with the potential to delay or avoid nursing home care for low-income elderly residents in HUD-assisted housing. Primary data collection includes a Resident Assessment and uses a standardized, web-based platform to capture and store self-reported demographic and health and social status information from demonstration participants, including personally identifying information (PII) and protected health information (PHI). A more detailed description of the proposed system of records is contained in the purpose section of this notice.

DATES: This notice will become applicable March 19, 2018.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by docket number and title by one of the following methods: Interested persons are invited to submit comments regarding this notice to the Rules Docket Clerk, Office of General Counsel, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 Seventh Street SW, Room 10276, Washington, DC 20410. Comments may be filed electronically by accessing: www.regulations.gov. Regulations.gov provides clear instructions on how to submit a public comment on a rule. Communications should refer to the above docket number and title. Faxed comments are not accepted. A copy of each communication submitted will be available for public inspection and copying between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays at the above address.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: John Bravacos, Senior Agency Official for Privacy, at 451 7th Street SW, Room 10139; U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development; Washington, DC 20410-0001; telephone number 202-708-3054 (this is not a toll-free number). Individuals who are hearing- or speech-impaired may access this telephone number via TTY by calling the Federal Relay Service at 800-877-8339 (this is a toll-free number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The new System of Records will encompass data collected by PD&R to implement the HUD Supportive Services Demonstration (SSD)/Integrated Wellness in Supportive Housing (IWISH). HUD's Office of Policy Development and Research and Office of Multifamily Housing, are launching the Supportive Services Demonstration (SSD), which was authorized under the Fiscal Year 2014 Consolidated Appropriations Act.

The demonstration will test a model of housing and supportive services with the potential to delay or avoid nursing home care for low-income elderly residents in HUD-assisted Multifamily housing. The 3-year demonstration will be implemented in 40 HUD-assisted multifamily properties in California, Illinois, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, and South Carolina. Each property will enter into a cooperative agreement with HUD's Office of Multifamily Housing and receive funds to employ a Resident Wellness Director and Wellness Nurse to assess elderly residents' social service and healthcare needs, connect residents with services, and liaise with providers.

The Resident Wellness Director and Wellness Nurse teams will conduct a Resident Assessment and use a standardized, web-based platform to capture and store self-reported demographic and health and social status information from demonstration participants, including personally identifying information (PII) and protected health information (PHI). The web-based platform, Population Health Logistics (PHL), is provided by Preferred Population Health Management, LLC (PPHM). HUD has a contract with The Lewin Group to support the implementation of the Supportive Services Demonstration; The Lewin Group has a subcontract with PPHM to use PHL for the demonstration.

The new notice states the name and location of the record system, the authority for and manner of its operations, the categories of individuals that it covers, the type of records that it contains, the sources of the information for the records, the routine uses made of the records, and the types of exemptions in place for the records. The notice also includes the business address of the HUD officials who will inform interested persons of how they may gain access to and/or request amendments to records pertaining to themselves.

Publication of this notice allows the Department to provide new information about its system of records notices in a clear and cohesive format. The new system of records will incorporate Federal privacy requirements and Department's policy requirements. The Privacy Act places on Federal agencies principal responsibility for compliance with its provisions, by requiring Federal agencies to safeguard an individual's records against an invasion of personal privacy; protect the records contained in an agency system of records from unauthorized disclosure; ensure that the records collected are relevant, necessary, current, and collected only for their intended use; and adequately
