

also distribute the funds through competitive subawards (subgrants or cooperative agreements) to public, academic, research, school, or special libraries or library consortia (for-profit and Federal libraries are not eligible). Each SLAA must submit a plan that details library services goals for a five-year period. (20 U.S.C. 9134). SLAAs must also conduct a five-year evaluation of library services based on that plan. These plans and evaluations are the foundation for improving practice and informing policy. Each SLAA receives IMLS funding to support the five year period through a series of overlapping, two year grant awards.

NATIONAL FOUNDATION ON THE ARTS AND THE HUMANITIES

60-Day Notice for the “NEA Panelist Profile Data”

AGENCY: National Endowment for the Arts, National Foundation on the Arts and the Humanities.

ACTION: Notice of proposed collection; comment request.

SUMMARY: The National Endowment for the Arts (NEA), as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, conducts a preclearance consultation program to provide the general public and federal agencies with an opportunity to comment on proposed and/or continuing collections of information in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. This program helps to ensure that requested data is provided in the desired format; reporting burden (time and financial resources) is minimized; collection instruments are clearly understood; and the impact of collection requirements on respondents is properly assessed. Currently, the NEA is soliciting comments concerning the proposed information collection of NEA panelist profile data. A copy of the current information collection request can be obtained by contacting the office listed below in the address section of this notice.

DATES: Written comments must be submitted to the office listed in the address section below within 60 days from the date of this publication in the Federal Register. The NEA is particularly interested in comments that:

- Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- Evaluate the accuracy of the agency’s estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and
- Can help the agency minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the electronic submission of responses.

ADDRESSES: Email comments to Jillian Miller, Director, Office of Guidelines and Panel Operations, National Endowment for the Arts, at: millerj@arts.gov.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jillian Miller, Director of Guidelines and Panel Operations, National Endowment for the Arts, at millerj@arts.gov, or 202–682–5504.

Dated: February 26, 2018.

Jillian Miller,

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Office of the Inspector General, National Science Foundation.

ACTION: Notice of a modified system of records; correction.

SUMMARY: The National Science Foundation (NSF) published a document in the Federal Register of February 15, 2018, concerning revisions to an existing system, NSF–52, “Office of the Inspector General—Investigative Files.”

Correction

In the Federal Register of February 15, 2018, in FR Doc. 2018–03147, on page 6883, in the third column, please correct the following:

Delete in entirety the following:
11. Disclosure may be made to a congressional office from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the congressional office made at the request of that individual.

Renumber the previously numbered paragraphs 12, 13, and 14 to 11, 12, and 13 respectively.

On page 6882, in the third column please correct the following:

Insert the words “the outcomes of” into routine use 14 so that it reads “This use not only advances overall transparency, but, by keeping complainants and victims informed about the outcomes of cases in which they are involved, it will encourage individuals to come forward and to cooperate in future investigations.”

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Dorothy Aronson, Acting Senior Agency Official for Privacy, Office of the Director, 2415 Eisenhower Ave., Alexandria, VA 22314, or daronson@nsf.gov or via telephone at 703–292–8000.

Dated: February 26, 2018.

Suzanne H. Plimpton,

Reports Clearance Officer, National Science Foundation.
