

d. Is there one set of metrics for program effectiveness that the Bureau could use across its financial education programs, or should it use different metrics depending on the type of program and delivery method (e.g., online versus through a community channel)?

e. How can the Bureau's financial well-being scale be used to measure the effectiveness of financial education programs?

f. Should the Bureau consider adopting any measures of success for financial education that are used by others? What are those measures?

3. Avoiding duplication in financial education between the Bureau and other federal agencies or other entities.

a. Are there programs at other federal agencies that are similar to the Bureau's programs? Are these programs or aspects of these programs more or less effective than the Bureau's? If so, how and why?

b. Are there ways to improve coordination in financial education activities between the Bureau and other agencies?

4. Are there other perspectives or information that will assist the Bureau in its financial education work?

Authority: 12 U.S.C. 5511(c).
