

the distribution of any royalties that remain in controversy. 17 U.S.C. 111(d)(4)(B). Alternatively, the Judges may, on motion of claimants and on notice to all interested parties, authorize a partial distribution of royalties, reserving on deposit sufficient funds to resolve identified disputes. 17 U.S.C. 111(d)(4)(C), 801(b)(3)(C).

On May 18, 2018, representatives of the categorical groups of royalty claimants (Claimants)¹ filed with the Judges a motion pursuant to section 801(b)(3)(C) of the Copyright Act requesting a partial distribution amounting to 50% of the 2016 cable royalty funds on deposit. 17 U.S.C. 801(b)(3)(C). That statutory section requires that, before ruling on the motion, the Judges publish a notice in the Federal Register seeking responses to the motion for partial distribution to ascertain whether any claimant entitled to receive the subject royalties has a reasonable objection to the requested distribution.

Accordingly, this Notice seeks comments from interested claimants on whether any reasonable objection exists that would preclude the distribution of 50% of the 2016 cable royalty funds to the Claimants. Parties objecting to the partial distribution must advise the Judges of the existence and extent of all objections by the end of the comment period. The Judges will not consider any objections with respect to the partial distribution that come to their attention after the close of the comment period.

Members of the public may read the Motion of the Allocation Phase Claimants for Partial Distribution by accessing the Copyright Royalty Board's electronic filing and case management system at <https://app.crb.gov/> and searching for docket number 17-CRB-0017-CD (2016).

Dated: May 30, 2018.

Suzanne M. Barnett,
Chief U.S. Copyright Royalty Judge.

Title: Joint Standards for Assessing the Diversity Policies and Practices.

Form: NCUA 15004.

Abstract: Section 342 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act instructed Office of Minority and Women Inclusion (OMWI) Directors to develop standards for assessing the diversity policies and practices of entities for which they regulate. Together, NCUA, OCC, the Board, FDIC, CFPB, and SEC develop joint standards and, on June 10, 2015, they jointly published in the Federal Register the "Final Interagency Policy Statement Establishing Joint Standards for Assessing the Diversity Policies and Practices of Entities Regulated by the Agencies."

The Joint Standards envision that a regulated entity, in a manner reflective of its size and other characteristics, (a) conducts annually a voluntary self-assessment of its diversity policies and practices; (b) monitors and evaluates its performance under its diversity policies and practices on an ongoing basis; (c) provides information pertaining to its self-assessment to the OMWI Director of its primary federal financial regulator; and (d) publishes information pertaining to its efforts with respect to the Joint Standards. In order to facilitate the self-assessment and information collection described in the Policy Statement, the NCUA provides NCUA Form 15004, "Annual Voluntary Credit Union Diversity Self-Assessment," to federally insured credit unions to perform their assessment and to submit information to the NCUA.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Private Sector: Not-for-profit institutions.

Estimated Total Annual Burden Hours: 2,600.

Explanation for change: Further evaluation of the burden associated with the redesign and burden methodology is estimated at 8 hours per response.
