

Current actions: On January 22, 2018 the Board published a notice in the Federal Register (83 FR 2983) requesting public comment for 60 days on the extension, with revision, of the Reporting Requirements Associated with Resolution Plans (Regulation QQ). The revision to the clearance is burden increase due to a reassessment of the burden hours associated with responding to the informational requirements of Regulation QQ and to guidance, feedback, and additional requests for information by the agencies as part of the iterative resolution planning process. The increase in burden is mitigated by the postponement of the July 2018 submission date for the resolution plans of the complex domestic filers, which account for the largest percentage of overall burden hours. The comment period for this notice expired on March 23, 2018. The Board received one comment on the proposal. The commenter recommended a number of potential changes to Regulation QQ intended to enhance the quality of the information collected pursuant to the regulation and reduce the burden of the information collection requirements.<sup>7</sup>

The Board is not adopting any of the recommended changes at this time. Either a revision to the Board's Regulation QQ or joint action with the FDIC would be necessary to implement each of the recommended changes. Most of the recommendations would require changes to the Board's Regulation QQ, which could only be accomplished

<sup>7</sup> These recommended changes include:

- (i) Extending the annual resolution plan filing cycle to a two-year cycle;
- (ii) providing additional clarity on filing deadlines;
- (iii) requiring that any agency guidance be provided more than 12 months in advance of each filing deadline;
- (iv) allowing firms to satisfy some of their Regulation QQ requirements by incorporating their IDI plans by reference;
- (v) providing for further tailoring based on the systemic risk posed by each firm;
- (vi) further reducing the need for duplicative reporting;
- (vii) adjusting the forecasting expected from the firms;
- (viii) providing greater guidance regarding regulatory expectations related to the resolution of financial market utilities;
- (ix) eliminating the strategic analysis section from tailored plans;
- (x) providing an opportunity for notice and comment on any new information requirements, the framework used for assessing resolution plans, and the procedures related to remediation;
- (xi) requiring the agencies to provide feedback on plans within six months of plan submission;
- (xii) refraining from making feedback provided to the firms public or providing firms more time to consider the feedback before it is made public; and
- (xiii) reconsidering the procedures the Board and FDIC undertake to engage with firms.

pursuant to a rulemaking. In addition, the Board could not unilaterally take the actions requested by these comments, even those that would not require a rulemaking, as they fall under the purview of a rule that the Board proposed jointly with the FDIC and a process that is jointly administered by the two agencies.<sup>8</sup> However, the Board will consider the recommended changes in due course as it determines, in consultation with the FDIC, whether to conduct a joint rulemaking. The revisions will be implemented as proposed.
