Certain Cold-Rolled Steel Flat Products From the Republic of Korea: Notice of Court Decision Not in Harmony With Amended Final Determination of the Countervailing Duty Investigation

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On September 10, 2018, the United States Court of International Trade (CIT or Court) sustained the final remand results pertaining to the countervailing duty (CVD) investigation on certain cold-rolled steel flat products from the Republic of Korea covering the period January 1, 2014, through December 31, 2014. The Department of Commerce (Commerce) is notifying the public that the final judgement in this case is not in harmony with the Amended Final Determination of the CVD investigation and that Commerce is amending the Amended Final Determination with respect to the CVD rate assigned to POSCO.

DATES: Applicable September 20, 2018.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Yasmin Bordas at (202) 482-3813, AD/CVD Operations, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

calculated a subsidy rate of 59.72 percent for POSCO.<sup>2</sup>

On March, 8, 2018, the CIT remanded various aspects of the Amended Final Determination to Commerce.<sup>3</sup> In its Remand Order, the Court held that “substantial evidence supports Commerce’s decision to apply facts available.”<sup>4</sup> The Court held that the record demonstrated that POSCO “withheld information, failed to timely provide information, and impeded the proceeding,” and that POSCO’s “failure to supply the requested information” reflected a failure to act to the best of its ability.<sup>5</sup>

However, the Court also held that Commerce had not conducted an “evaluation of the specific situation,” under the relatively new statutory language of section 776(d)(2) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act) and had not explained “why this case justified its selection of the highest rates.”<sup>6</sup> In addition, the Court concluded that the 1.64 percent rate from Refrigerators from Korea was “derived from estimates Commerce made on the basis of an adverse inference,” and, therefore, was not corroborated, under section 776(c) of the Act.<sup>7</sup> The Court, therefore, instructed

On September 20, 2016, the Commerce published its amended final results upon consideration of various ministerial error allegations. Ltd. and POSCO,” dated August 24, 2016 (Ministerial Error Memo); and “Countervailing Duty Investigation of Certain Cold-Rolled Steel Flat Products from the Republic of Korea: Amended Final Determination Calculation Memorandum for POSCO,” dated August 24, 2016 (POSCO Amended Final Analysis Memorandum).

Commerce to reconsider its selection of this rate.<sup>8</sup> On the other hand, the Court found that Commerce’s corroboration and selection of the 1.05 percent rate from Washers from Korea was supported by substantial evidence.<sup>9</sup>

Pursuant to the Remand Order, Commerce issued its Final Redetermination, which addressed the Court’s holdings and revised the CVD rate for POSCO to 42.61 percent.<sup>10</sup> On September 10, 2018, the CIT sustained in whole Commerce’s Final Redetermination.<sup>11</sup>

Timken Notice

In its decision in Timken,<sup>12</sup> as clarified by Diamond Sawblades,<sup>13</sup> the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit held that, pursuant to section 516A(e) of the Act, Commerce must publish a notice of court decision that is not “in harmony” with Commerce’s determination and must suspend liquidation of entries pending a “conclusive” court decision. The CIT’s September 10, 2018 final judgement, ordering Commerce to proceed with replacing POSCO’s 1.64 percent subsidy rate for programs that were calculated on the basis of adverse facts available with the 1.05 percent rate from Washers from Korea constitutes a final decision of that court that is not in harmony with the Final Amended Determination. This notice is published in fulfillment of the publication requirements of Timken.

This notice is issued and published in accordance with sections 516A(e)(1), 705(c)(1)(B), and 777(i)(1) of the Act.
