SUMMARY: This document extends the period for submitting written comments on the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (NPRM) entitled “Expanding Employment, Training, and Apprenticeship Opportunities for 16-and 17-Year-Olds in Health Care Occupations Under the Fair Labor Standards Act.” The comment period now ends on December 11, 2018. The Department of Labor (Department) is taking this action to provide interested parties additional time to submit comments in response to a request for extension, as some supporting documents for the proposal may not have been originally fully visible in the docket.

DATES: The comment period for the proposed rule published September 27, 2018, at 83 FR 48737, is extended. Comments should be received on or before December 11, 2018.

The Department requests that no business proprietary information, copyrighted information, or personally identifiable information be submitted in response to this NPRM. Submit only one copy of your comment by only one method (e.g., persons submitting comments electronically are encouraged not to submit paper copies). Please be advised that comments received will become a matter of public record and will be posted without change to http://www.regulations.gov, including any personal information provided. All comments must be received by 11:59 p.m. on the date indicated for consideration in this NPRM; comments received after the comment period closes will not be considered. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

On September 27, 2018, the Department published an NPRM and request for comments in the Federal Register (83 FR 48737), proposing to revise Hazardous Order Number 7 under the FLSA to allow for 16- or 17-year-olds to operate power-driven patient lifts. The NPRM also requested public comments on the NPRM on or before November 26, 2018. Not all supporting documents in the public docket may have been originally fully visible. That issue has now been addressed, however, and the documents are fully publicly viewable. In light of the above, and out of an abundance of caution, the Department has extended the period for submitting public comment to December 11, 2018.

Bryan L. Jarrett,
Acting Administrator, Wage and Hour Division.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 16, 2018, the U.S. Copyright Office issued a notice of inquiry (“NOI”) regarding the Classics Protection and Access Act, title II of the recently enacted Orrin G. Hatch—Bob Goodlatte Music Modernization Act. In connection with the establishment of federal remedies for unauthorized uses of sound recordings fixed before February 15, 1972 (“Pre-1972 Sound Recordings”), Congress established an exception for certain noncommercial uses of Pre-1972 Sound Recordings that are not being commercially exploited. To qualify for this exemption, a user must file a notice of noncommercial use after conducting a good faith, reasonable search to determine whether the Pre-1972 Sound Recording is being commercially exploited, and the right owner of the sound recording must not object to the use within 90 days. To promulgate the regulations required by the new statute, the Office solicited comments regarding specific steps that a user should take to demonstrate she has made a good faith, reasonable search, as well as the filing requirements for the user to submit a notice of noncommercial use and for a rights owner to submit a notice objecting to such use. To ensure that members of the public have sufficient time to respond, and to ensure that the Office has the benefit of a complete record, the Office is extending the deadline for the submission of initial written comments to 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on November 26, 2018. Written reply comments must be received no later than 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on December 11, 2018. So that the Office is able to meet the statutory deadlines described in the NOI, no further extensions of time will be granted in this rulemaking.

Dated: November 8, 2018.
