Truck and Bus Tires From the People's Republic of China: Amended Final Determination and Countervailing Duty Order

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On November 1, 2018, the Court of International Trade (CIT) remanded the International Trade Commission's (ITC) negative injury determination on truck and bus tires from the People's Republic of China (China). On January 30, 2019, the ITC filed its remand determination, finding material injury to an industry in the United States by reason of imports of truck and bus tires from China. Based on affirmative final determinations by the Department of Commerce (Commerce) and the ITC, Commerce is issuing a countervailing duty order on truck and bus tires from the China. In addition, Commerce is amending its final determination to correct ministerial errors. Therefore, Commerce will direct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to suspend liquidation and collect cash deposits on entries of truck and bus tires from China at the ad valorem rates listed below.

DATES: Applicable February 15, 2019.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Dana Mermelstein or Lana Nigro, AD/CVD Operations, Office I, Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone (202) 482-1391 or (202) 482-1779, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On March 17, 2017, the ITC published its final determination that an industry in the United States was not materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of imports of truck and bus tires from China.¹ The United Steel, Paper and Forestry, Rubber, Manufacturing, Energy, Allied Industrial and Service Workers International Union, AFL-CIO, CLC (the petitioner) challenged the ITC's final negative determination, and on November 1, 2018, the CIT remanded the determination to the ITC for reconsideration.² On January 30, 2019, upon remand, the ITC found that a U.S. industry is materially injured within the meaning of section 705(b)(1)(A)(i) of the Act, by reason of subsidized imports of truck and bus tires from China.³ Further, the ITC determined that critical circumstances do not exist with respect to imports of truck and bus tires from China.

On February 8, 2019, pursuant to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit's (CAFC) opinion in Diamond Sawblades Manufacturers Coalition v. United States, 626 F.3d 1374, 1381 (Fed. Cir. 2010), the ITC notified Commerce of its determination upon remand.⁴ In Diamond Sawblades, the CAFC clarified that the same procedures for issuance of an order and collection of cash deposits apply when a material injury determination is made upon remand, and that the ITC should provide notice to Commerce of its remand determination at the time that it is issued, notwithstanding the pendency of ongoing litigation.⁵ Moreover, the Court held that Commerce's duty to publish an order is triggered by the ITC's notification of its affirmative injury determination, rather than the date of the publication of the notice of such determination.⁶

Scope of the Order

The products covered by this order are truck and bus tires from China. For a complete description of the scope of this order, see the Appendix to this notice.

Amendment to the Final Determination

On January 30, 2017, and February 1, 2017, Shanghai Huayi Group Corporation Limited (Double Coin) and Guizhou Tyre Co., Ltd. and Guizhou Tyre Import and Export Co., Ltd. (collectively GTC), respectively, timely alleged that the *Final Determination*⁷ contained certain ministerial errors and requested that Commerce correct such errors.

Commerce reviewed the record and on February 14, 2017, agreed that certain errors referenced in Double Coin's and GTC's allegations constitute ministerial errors within the meaning of section 705(e) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.224(f).⁸ Pursuant to 19 CFR 351.224(e), Commerce is amending the Final Determination to reflect the correction of the ministerial errors described in the Ministerial Error Memorandum.⁹ Based on our correction of the ministerial errors in Double
