Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Clean Water Act

On February 21, 2019, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed Partial Consent Decree (“Consent Decree”) with the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts in the lawsuit entitled United States, et al. v. City of Holyoke, Massachusetts, Civil Action No. 19-cv-10332. In a Complaint, the United States, on behalf of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (“EPA”), alleges that the City of Holyoke, Massachusetts, violated the Clean Water Act (CWA), 33 U.S.C. 1311 and 1319, by discharging pollutants from its wastewater collection system without authorization and not in compliance with its National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit. The Commonwealth of Massachusetts is a Plaintiff-Intervenor in the case. The proposed Partial Consent Decree requires that Holyoke submit a long-term, combined sewer overflow plan by December 31, 2019, with stipulated penalties attached for late submission. Civil penalties are deferred. The Consent Decree is partial in nature because, once the City develops its plan,
