

ensure that the meetings proceed in a fair and orderly manner. The rules for taking evidence in an administrative proceeding will not apply to the public meetings. Panel members may question witnesses, but no cross-examination of witnesses will be permitted. The public meetings will be transcribed, and the transcripts will be posted on the respective public websites of the Board and the FDIC.² Information regarding the procedures for obtaining a copy of the transcripts will be announced at the public meetings.

Charlotte, North Carolina: All persons wishing to testify at the public meeting in Charlotte should submit a written request no later than 5:00 p.m. EDT on Monday, April 15, 2019. A request to testify at the Charlotte public meeting may be sent by mail to: Matthew Martin, Vice President, Research Department Microeconomics and Research Communications, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, 530 East Trade Street, Charlotte, North Carolina, 28202; by online form at: <https://fedsurvey2.frbatlanta.org/Survey.aspx?s=7169b12f832e42278c1789f8b8ff5524>; by email to: Publicmeeting.Charlotte@rich.frb.org; or by facsimile: 704-358-2300.

Atlanta, Georgia: All persons wishing to testify at the public meeting in Atlanta should submit a written request no later than 5:00 p.m. EDT on Tuesday, April 23, 2019. A request to testify at the Atlanta public meeting may be sent by mail to: Karen Leone de Nie, Vice President Community and Economic Development, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, 1000 Peachtree Street NE, Atlanta, Georgia, 30309-4470; by online form at: <https://fedsurvey2.frbatlanta.org/SunTrustBBT-Meeting-Atl.aspx>; by email to: atlfedcomdev@atl.frb.org; or by facsimile: 404-498-8956.

The Board will provide a copy of each request to the FDIC.

The request to testify should include the following information: (i) A brief statement of the nature of the expected testimony (including whether the testimony will support or oppose the proposed transactions or provide other comment on them); (ii) the address and telephone number (email address and facsimile number, if available) of the person testifying; and (iii) the identification of any special needs, such as translation services, physical disabilities requiring assistance, or presentations requiring visual aids.

²Materials related to the applications will be made available on the Board's website <https://www.federalreserve.gov/foia/bbt-suntrust-application-materials.htm> and the FDIC's website <https://www.fdic.gov/regulations/applications/bbt-suntrust/>.

Translators will be provided to the extent available if a need for such services is noted in the request to testify. Persons interested only in attending the meetings, but not testifying, need not submit a written request to attend.

The Presiding Officers will prepare a schedule for persons wishing to testify and establish the order of presentation. To ensure an opportunity for all interested commenters to present their views, the Presiding Officers may limit the time for presentations and may establish other procedures related to the conduct of the public meetings as appropriate. Persons not listed on the schedule may be permitted to speak at the public meetings, if time permits, at the conclusion of the schedule of witnesses in the discretion of the Presiding Officers. Copies of testimony may, but need not, be filed with the Presiding Officers before a person's presentation.

All individuals who wish to attend either public meeting must present a valid, government-issued photo identification. In addition, X-ray and metal detection devices will be in use and there will be limitations on materials that may be brought into the building (i.e., no objects that could raise security or safety concerns).

The Board is extending the comment period on the Holding Company Application through the close of business on Friday, May 3, 2019. The FDIC also has determined that there is good cause to extend the comment period on the Bank Application through the close of business on Friday, May 3, 2019. The Board will make the public record of the Holding Company Application, including all comments received and the transcripts of the public meetings, available on the Board's public website. The FDIC will make the public record of the Bank Application, including all comments received and the transcripts of the public meetings, available on the FDIC's public website.

By order of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, effective March 13, 2019.

Margaret McCloskey Shanks,
Deputy Secretary of the Board.

Dated at Washington, DC, on March 14, 2019.

Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Valerie J. Best,
Assistant Executive Secretary.
