III. Congressional Review Act

The Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs of the Office of Management and Budget has determined that this is a major rule for purposes of the Congressional Review Act (CRA) (5 U.S.C. 801 et seq.) Under section 801(3) of the CRA, a major rule takes effect 60 days after the rule is published in the Federal Register. Notwithstanding this requirement, section 808(2) of the CRA allows agencies to dispense with the requirements of 801 when the agency for good cause finds that such procedure would be impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest and that rule shall take effect at such time as the agency promulgating the rule determines.

Pursuant to section 808(2) of the CRA, the Treasury Department and the IRS find, for good cause, that a 60-day delay in the effective date is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest. Section 199A was enacted on December 22, 2017, and applies to taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017, and before January 1, 2026. This means that the statute is currently effective and that taxpayers may claim the deduction when filing their U.S. federal income tax returns for taxable years ending in calendar year 2018. The Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the rules in this Treasury decision are generally applicable to taxable years ending after February 8, 2019, the date this Treasury decision was published in the Federal Register. Sections 1.199A–1(f), 1.199A–2(d), 1.199A–3(d), 1.199A–4(e), 1.199A–5(e), 1.199A–6(e), and 1.643(f)–1(b) are applicable for taxable years ending after August 16, 2018, the date that the proposed regulations were published in the Federal Register. However, taxpayers may rely on the rules set forth in §§ 1.199A–1 through 1.199A–6, in their entirety, or on the proposed regulations under §§ 1.199A–1 through 1.199A–6 issued on August 16, 2018, in their entirety, for taxable years ending in calendar year 2018. These final regulations provide crucial guidance for taxpayers on how to apply the rules of section 199A, correctly calculate their deduction under section 199A, and to accurately file their U.S. federal income tax returns.

Inflation Adjustment of Civil Monetary Penalties

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

In order to improve the effectiveness of CMPs and to maintain their deterrent effect, the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act of 1990, 28 U.S.C. 2461 note ("the Inflation Adjustment Act"), as amended by the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act Improvements Act of 2015 (Pub. L. 114-74) ("the 2015 Act"), requires Federal agencies to adjust each CMP provided by law within the jurisdiction of the agency. The 2015 Act requires agencies to adjust the level of CMPs with an initial "catch-up" adjustment through an interim final rulemaking and to make subsequent annual adjustments for inflation, without needing to provide notice and the opportunity for public comment required by 5 U.S.C. 553. The Department's initial catch-up adjustment interim final rules were published on December 7, 2016 (Departmental Offices) (81 FR 88600), and for 31 CFR part 27, on February 11, 2019 (84 FR 3105). The Department's 2018 annual adjustment was published on March 19, 2018 (83 FR 11876). The 2015 Act provides that any increase in a CMP shall apply to CMPs that are assessed after the date the increase takes effect, regardless of whether the
