Rubber Bands From Thailand: Antidumping Duty Order

AGENCY: Enforcement and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: Based on affirmative final determinations by the Department of Commerce (Commerce) and the International Trade Commission (ITC), Commerce is issuing an antidumping duty (AD) order on rubber bands from Thailand.

DATES: Applicable April 26, 2019.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Stephanie Berger at (202) 482-2483 and Laurel LaCivita at 202-482-4243, AD/CVD Operations, Enforcement and Compliance, U.S. Department of Commerce, 1401 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

In accordance with sections 735(d) and 777(i)(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act) and 19 CFR 351.210(c), on March 7, 2019, Commerce published its affirmative final determination in the less-than-fair-value (LTFV) investigation of rubber bands from Thailand.¹ On April 22, 2019, the ITC notified Commerce of its final determination, pursuant to section 735(d) of the Act, that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of LTFV imports of rubber bands from Thailand, within the meaning of section 735(b)(1)(A)(i) of the Act.²

² See Letter to the Honorable Jeffrey Kessler, Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Enforcement and Compliance, from David S. Johanson, Chairman of the ITC, "Notification of ITC Final

Scope of the Order

The products covered by this order are rubber bands from Thailand. For a complete description of the scope of the order, see the Appendix to this notice.

AD Order

On April 22, 2019, in accordance with section 735(d) of the Act, the ITC notified Commerce of its final determination that an industry in the United States is materially injured within the meaning of section 735(b)(1)(A)(i) of the Act by reason of imports of rubber bands from Thailand that are sold in the United States at LTFV. Therefore, in accordance with section 735(c)(2) of the Act, we are issuing this AD order. Because the ITC determined that imports of rubber bands from Thailand are materially injuring a U.S. industry, unliquidated entries of such merchandise from Thailand entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption are subject to the assessment of antidumping duties.

Therefore, in accordance with section 736(a)(1) of the Act, Commerce will direct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to assess, upon further instruction by Commerce, antidumping duties equal to the amount by which the normal value of the merchandise exceeds the export price (or constructed export price) of the merchandise, for all relevant entries of rubber bands from Thailand. With the exception of entries occurring after the expiration of the provisional measures period and before publication of the ITC's final affirmative injury determination, as further described below, antidumping duties will be assessed on unliquidated entries of rubber bands from Thailand entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after September 6, 2018, the date of publication of the Preliminary Determination.³

Additionally, because the estimated weighted-average dumping margin for Liang Hah Heng International Rubber Co., Ltd and Hah Shung Heng Co. was determined to be zero in the investigation of rubber bands from Thailand, Commerce is directing CBP to not suspend liquidation of entries of subject merchandise produced by Liang Hah Heng or Hah Shung Heng and exported by either of these companies.

Determinations," dated April 22, 2019 (ITC Notification); see also Rubber Bands from Thailand, Investigation No. 731-TA-1410 (Final), (USITC Publication 4887).
