

Complainants) filed a formal complaint against Colonial Pipeline Company (Colonial or Respondent) challenging the lawfulness of the rate structure and terms and conditions of service by Colonial for transportation of refined petroleum products, including those practices contained in Colonial's FERC Tariff No. 99.46.0; Colonial's FERC Tariff No. 98.37.0; and Colonial's Shipper Manual, as more fully explained in the complaint.

The Complainant certifies that a copy of the complaint was served on the contacts for the Respondent as listed on the official service list.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protests must be served on the Complainants.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 5 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street NE, Washington, DC 20426.
