

limited exclusion order prohibiting further importation of Sony's accused LTO-4, LTO-5, and LTO-6 tape products and cease and desist orders against Sony's U.S. subsidiaries, Sony DADC and Sony Latin America. The Commission has set a bond of 10.4 percent of entered value on Sony's branded LTO-4 tapes, 7.9 percent of entered value on Sony's branded LTO-6 tapes, and 16.8 percent of entered value on Sony's OEM LTO-6 tapes imported during the period of Presidential review. The Commission has not set a bond on Sony's LTO-5 tapes (branded and OEM) or Sony's OEM LTO-4 tapes.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in Part 210 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR part 210).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: June 6, 2019.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.

BILLING CODE 7020-02-P

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 701-TA-622 and 731-TA-1448 (Preliminary)]

Dried Tart Cherries From Turkey

Determinations

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject investigations, the United States International Trade Commission ("Commission") determines, pursuant to the Tariff Act of 1930 ("the Act"), that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured by reason of imports of dried tart cherries from Turkey, provided for in subheadings 0813.40.30, 0813.40.90, 0813.50.00, 2006.00.20, 2006.00.50, and 2008.60.00 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States, that are alleged to be sold in the United States at less than fair value ("LTFV") and to be subsidized by the government of Turkey.²

Commencement of Final Phase Investigations

Pursuant to section 207.18 of the Commission's rules, the Commission also gives notice of the commencement of the final phase of its investigations. The Commission will issue a final phase notice of scheduling, which will be published in the Federal Register, as provided in section 207.21 of the Commission's rules, upon notice from the U.S. Department of Commerce ("Commerce") of affirmative preliminary determinations in the investigations under sections 703(b) or 733(b) of the Act, or, if the preliminary determinations are negative, upon notice of affirmative final determinations in those investigations under sections 705(a) or 735(a) of the Act. Parties that filed entries of appearance in the preliminary phase of the investigations need not enter a separate appearance for the final phase of the investigations. Industrial users, and, if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the investigations.

Background

On April 23, 2019, the Dried Tart Cherry Trade Committee filed petitions with the Commission and Commerce, alleging that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury by reason of subsidized imports of dried tart cherries from Turkey and LTFV imports of dried tart cherries from Turkey. Accordingly, effective April 23, 2019, the Commission, pursuant to sections 703(a) and 733(a) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671b(a) and 1673b(a)), instituted countervailing duty Investigation No. 701-TA-622 and antidumping duty Investigation No. 731-TA-1448 (Preliminary).

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of a public conference to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of April 29, 2019 (84 FR 18084). The conference was held in Washington, DC, on May 14, 2019, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission made these determinations pursuant to sections 703(a) and 733(a) of the Act (19 U.S.C. 1671b(a) and 1673b(a)). It completed and filed its determinations in these investigations on June 7, 2019. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 4902 (June 2019), entitled Dried Tart Cherries from Turkey: Investigation Nos. 701-TA-622 and 731-TA-1448 (Preliminary).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: June 7, 2019.

Katherine Hiner,

Supervisory Attorney.
