INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation Nos. 701–TA–448 and 731–TA–1117 (Second Review)]

Certain Off-the-Road Tires From China; Termination of Five-Year Reviews

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Commission instituted the subject five-year reviews in January 2019 to determine whether revocation of the antidumping and countervailing duty orders on certain off-the-road tires from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury. On May 10, 2019, the Department of Commerce published notice that it was revoking the orders effective February 4, 2019, because it did not receive a notice of intent to participate from the domestic interested parties (84 FR 20616). Accordingly, the subject reviews are terminated.

DATES: June 17, 2019.

Participants will provide economic support, advice, and other assistance to CBI, which, as an ILA project, is subject to the oversight of the ILA Board of Directors.

ILA's current membership consists primarily of lead producers and other companies having a direct interest in lead and its use. ILA is a non-profit, tax-exempt research organization whose functions include the management of research to improve existing uses and advance new applications for lead. The CBI program has been established by ILA to carry out research and development of lead-based battery technologies. The CBI participants include companies who are not members of ILA.

The general area of CBI's planned activity is to serve the needs of its members by supporting cutting edge pre-competitive scientific research and promoting innovation in lead battery technology to maximize the market potential for lead batteries and the prosperity of actors in the lead battery value chain. CBI's vision is to be recognized by all stakeholders as the trusted global center for collaborative, pre-competitive lead battery research and authoritative voice on lead battery innovation by taking a leadership role in supporting lead battery research investment and the promotion of innovation. Membership in the Consortium includes lead producers; battery manufacturers; battery equipment, material and component manufacturers/suppliers; commodity traders; end users; research, testing and other services; universities; and affiliates. Consortium membership remains open, and the parties intend to file additional written notification disclosing all changes in membership to CBI.

Federal Bureau of Investigation

[OMB Number 1110-New]

Agency Information Collection Activities; Proposed eCollection eComments Requested; New Collection; Background Investigation Medical Release Forms

AGENCY: Federal Bureau of Investigation, Department of Justice.

ACTION: 60-Day notice.

SUMMARY: The Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation is submitting the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995.

DATES: The Department of Justice encourages public comment and will accept input until August 20, 2019.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: If you have additional comments especially on the estimated public burden or associated response time, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions or additional information, please contact Gabrielle Fournet, Unit Chief, Federal Bureau of Investigation, 935 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC, HQ-Div11-OGA1@FBI.gov, 202-651-2906.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

- > Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, including whether the information will have practical utility;
- > Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- > Evaluate whether and if so how the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected can be enhanced; and
- > Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of This Information Collection

1. Type of Information Collection:

New collection.

2. The Title of the Form/Collection: Background Investigation Medical Release Forms.

3. The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection: FD-1152 and FD-1153. The applicable component within the Department of Justice is the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

4. Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: This form is needed for obtaining medical information for non-FBI personnel, for which the FBI has been requested to obtain medical release information. For instance, when the FBI has been requested to conduct background investigations on non-FBI employees applying for positions with other government agencies, sometimes medical information must be obtained. When it occurs, the non-FBI employee applying for the position is asked to complete the medical release form so the FBI has the authority to seek the medical information.

5. An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: It is estimated that not more than 50 people would need to complete this form in a year. It should only take each person about 15 minutes to complete the form.

6. An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: There is an estimated 12.5 total annual burden hours associated with this collection hours anticipated for the collection.

If additional information is required contact: Melody Braswell, Department Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Justice Management Division, Policy and Planning Staff, Two Constitution Square, 145 N Street NE, 3E.405A, Washington, DC 20530.

Dated: June 18, 2019.
