

make the Nasdaq Registration and Continuing Education Rules applicable to the Exchanges' members, member organizations (as applicable), associated persons, and other persons subject to their jurisdiction as though such rules were fully set forth within each Exchange's rulebook.

The Exchanges have requested, pursuant to Rule 0–12 under the Exchange Act,⁶ that the Commission grant the Exchanges an exemption from the rule filing requirements of Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act for changes to each Exchange's rules that are effected solely by virtue of a change to the Nasdaq Registration and Continuing Education Rules. Specifically, the Exchanges request that they be permitted to incorporate by reference changes made to the Nasdaq Registration and Continuing Education Rules without the need for each Exchange to separately file with the Commission the same proposed rule changes pursuant to Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act.⁷

The Exchanges represent that the Nasdaq Registration and Continuing Education Rules are not trading rules.⁸ Moreover, the Exchanges state that they propose to incorporate by reference categories of rules (rather than individual rules within a category) that are regulatory in nature.⁹ The Exchanges also represent that, as a condition of this exemption, they would provide written notice to their members whenever Nasdaq proposes a change to the Nasdaq Registration and Continuing Education Rules.¹⁰

According to the Exchanges, this exemption is necessary and appropriate because it will result in the Exchanges' rules being consistent with the relevant cross-referenced Nasdaq Registration and Continuing Education Rules at all times, thus ensuring that the Exchanges and Nasdaq maintain consistent registration, qualification, and continuing education rules for their respective members, associated persons, and other persons subject to their jurisdiction.¹¹

The Commission has issued exemptions similar to the Exchanges'

request.¹² The Commission has previously outlined standards for reviewing exemption requests from self-regulatory organizations ("SROs"), provided that:

- An SRO wishing to incorporate rules of another SRO by reference has submitted a written request for an order exempting it from the requirement in Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act to file proposed rule changes relating to the rules incorporated by reference, has identified the applicable originating SRO(s), together with the rules it wants to incorporate by reference, and otherwise has complied with the procedural requirements set forth in the Commission's release governing procedures for requesting exemptive orders pursuant to Rule 0–12 under the Exchange Act;¹³
- The incorporating SRO has requested incorporation of categories of rules (rather than individual rules within a category) that are not trading rules (e.g., the SRO has requested incorporation of rule such as margin, suitability, or arbitration);¹⁴ and
- The incorporating SRO has reasonable procedures in place to provide written notice to its members each time a change is proposed to the incorporated rules of the other SRO.¹⁵

The Commission believes that the Exchanges have satisfied each of these conditions. The Commission also believes that granting the Exchanges an exemption from the rule filing requirements under Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act will promote efficient use of the Commission's and the Exchanges' resources by avoiding duplicative rule filings based on simultaneous changes to identical rule text sought by more than one SRO. The Commission therefore finds it in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors to exempt the Exchanges from the rule filing requirements under Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act with respect to the Nasdaq Registration and Continuing Education Rules described above to be incorporated by reference. This exemption is conditioned upon the Exchanges promptly providing written notice to their members whenever Nasdaq changes a rule which the Exchanges have incorporated by reference.

Accordingly, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 36 of the Exchange Act,¹⁶ that the Exchanges are exempt from the rule filing requirements of Section 19(b) of the Exchange Act solely with respect to changes to the rules identified in their request that incorporate by reference certain Nasdaq rules, provided that the Exchanges promptly provide written notice to their members whenever Nasdaq proposes to change a rule that the Exchanges have incorporated by reference.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.¹⁷

Jill M. Peterson,

Assistant Secretary.
