SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department is modifying the section entitled “SYSTEM NAME AND NUMBER” to remove “Faculty Research Abroad (FRA)” and “Fellows” from the system name.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “SECURITY CLASSIFICATION” to indicate that the system is unclassified.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “SYSTEM LOCATION” to reflect the current location within the Office of Postsecondary Education (OPE) as the “International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE)” office; and, to update the Department’s address, as applicable.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “SYSTEM MANAGER(S)” to list the system manager’s name; to reflect the current location of the system manager within OPE as the “International and Foreign Language Education (IFLE)” office; and, to update the Department’s address, as applicable.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM” to include doctoral candidates and to specify that both applicants and selectees are individuals whose information is maintained in the system.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM” to remove the “FRA” (Faculty Research Abroad) program and Social Security numbers, and to indicate that email addresses will be collected in the system.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES” to clarify that information in the system may also be obtained from other persons or entities from which data is obtained under routine uses set forth in the notice.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND PURPOSES OF SUCH USES” to remove the previous routine use (2) entitled “Disclosure for Use by Other Law Enforcement Agencies” from the list of routine uses of records maintained in the system because the system is not used in a law enforcement capacity.

The Department is modifying newly renumbered routine use (2) entitled “Enforcement Disclosure” to standardize it with other routine uses (permitting similar disclosures) commonly used by the Department in its systems of records notices to explain that if information in the system, either alone or in connection with other information, indicates a violation or potential violation of any applicable statutory, regulatory, or legally binding requirement, the Department may disclose records from the system to an entity charged with investigating or prosecuting those violations or potential violations.

The Department is modifying newly renumbered routine use (3) “Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Disclosures” to include, under subsection (3)(a)(iii), disclosures to the Department of Justice (DOJ) where DOJ’s representation of a Department employee in his or her individual capacity has been requested; to revise the subsection heading of subsection (3)(c) that had referred to “Administrative Disclosures” to instead refer to “Adjudicative Disclosure;” to insert, in subsection (3)(c), the word “person” in place of the word “individual,” in order to avoid any public confusion that may have been caused by the Department’s prior use of the word “individual” given that this term is a defined term in the Privacy Act; and, to clarify that subsections (3)(c) and (3)(d) apply to disclosures that are relevant and necessary to (applicable) judicial or administrative litigation or alternative dispute resolution rather than only “administrative litigation.”

The Department is modifying newly renumbered routine use (5) to standardize it with other routine uses (permitting similar disclosures) commonly used by the Department in its systems of records notices to permit disclosure, in the course of investigation, fact-finding, or adjudication, of records from this system that are relevant and necessary to employee grievances, complaints, or disciplinary actions involving present or former employees, to any party to the grievance, complaint, or action; to the party’s counsel or representative; to a witness; or, to a designated fact-finder, mediator, or other person designated to resolve issues or decide the matter.

The Department is modifying newly renumbered routine use (6) to permit the disclosure of records from this system of records to arbitrators to resolve disputes under negotiated grievance procedures or to officials of a labor organization recognized under 5 U.S.C. chapter 71 when relevant and necessary to their duties of exclusive representation.

The Department is modifying newly renumbered routine use (7) to permit the Department to disclose records to DOJ and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for assistance in determining whether particular records are required to be disclosed under the Privacy Act.

The Department is modifying newly renumbered routine use (9) to remove language that referenced imposing safeguard requirements on the contractor “before entering into” the contract and that are required under subsection (m) of the Privacy Act. The modified language clarifies that the Department will require, as part of applicable Department contracts, contractors to whom disclosures are made under this routine use to agree to establish and maintain safeguards to protect the security and confidentiality of the disclosed records.

The Department is modifying newly renumbered routine use (10) to remove language that had referred to “Privacy Act safeguards” to clarify that all researchers to whom disclosures are made under this routine use will be required to agree to establish and maintain safeguards to protect the security and confidentiality of the disclosed records.

The Department is modifying newly renumbered routine use (12) to permit the Department to disclose records to the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) as necessary to fulfill the requirements of the Federal Credit Reform Act of 1990, as amended, in accordance with 2 U.S.C. 661b.

Pursuant to the requirements in OMB Memorandum M–17–12 entitled “Preparing for and Responding to a Breach of Personally Identifiable Information,” the Department is adding: Routine use (13) entitled “Disclosure in the Course of Responding to Breach of Data” to permit the Department to disclose records from this system to appropriate agencies, entities, and persons in connection with the Department’s efforts to respond to a suspected or confirmed data breach of this system or to prevent, minimize, or remedy harm resulting from such a breach; and, routine use (14) entitled “Disclosure in Assisting another Agency in Responding to a Breach of Data” to permit the Department to disclose records from this system of records in the course of assisting another Federal agency or entity in responding to, or preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm resulting from, a suspected or confirmed breach of data.

The Department is removing the section entitled “DISCLOSURE TO CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES” because the Department will not disclose information in this system of records to consumer reporting agencies.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETRIEVAL OF RECORDS” to explain that both hard copy and electronic records are retrieved by an individual’s name; and, in the event that an individual’s name cannot be located, records can also be retrieved by award number and name of the educational institution.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR RETENTION AND DISPOSAL OF RECORDS” to reference the current, appropriate records schedule, General Records Schedule 1.2: Grant and Cooperative Agreement Records, Items 020 and 021; and, explain that records are destroyed either 3 years (for unsuccessful applications) or 10 years (for successful applications), as applicable, after final action is taken on an applicant’s case file, unless longer retention is required for business use.

The Department is modifying the section entitled “ADMINISTRATIVE, TECHNICAL, AND PHYSICAL SAFEGUARDS” to describe the safeguards used by the Department for hard copy files.

The Department is modifying the sections entitled “RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES,” “CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES,” and “NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES” to define and discuss the information needed to access, contest, or be notified of a record.

The Department is also adding a section entitled “HISTORY” to comply with the requirements in OMB Circular No. A–108.
