TRICARE; Reserve and Guard Family Member Benefits; Early Eligibility TRICARE and Transitional Assistance Management Program for Certain Reserve Component Members; Extended TRICARE Program Coverage for Certain National Guard MembersACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: This rulemaking proposes changes to implement provisions of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017 (NDAA–17) to continue TRICARE program coverage for certain members of the National Guard and their dependents during certain disaster response duty. This applies discretionary authority broadened by NDAA–17 to propose expansion of the TRICARE Reserve and Guard Family Benefits program to all families of Reserve Component (RC) members on active duty for more than 30 days, except for the families of RC members performing active Guard and Reserve (AGR) duty for a period of 180 consecutive days or more. This rulemaking also proposes to expand both early eligibility TRICARE coverage and Transitional Assistance Management Program (TAMP) coverage to RC members on active duty for some pre-planned missions.

DATES: Written comments received at the address indicated in the ADDRESSES section by November 25, 2019 will be accepted.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:I. Introduction and Background

Guardsmen on full-time National Guard duty under § 502(f) of 32 U.S.C. 502(f) who were called to state active duty (SAD) for disaster response duty, lost their premium-free TRICARE coverage. This rule implements authority under 10 U.S.C. 1076f (added by § 711 of NDAA–17 (Pub. L. 114–328)) and proposes to continue TRICARE coverage to these members of the National Guard (NG) and their eligible family members, upon request of the state/territory on a fully reimbursable basis. The TRICARE Guard and Reserve Family Benefits (TRGFB) program has successfully eased the transition for RC families to and from TRICARE since its inception under demonstration authority in September 2001. Section 748(b) of NDAA–17 extends TRGFB to eligible family members of any RC member who is on active duty for more than 30 days, amending prior legislation that required the active duty be in support of a contingency operation. Transition has also been eased by early
